Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2012 First Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2012 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 196 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 200 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 13 complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 6.5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 13 cases which is also a 6.5% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

The OCC began training one new 8124 (journey level) investigator during the first quarter. Two other investigators hired in 2011 completed their six month orientation and assumed full caseloads. Also, during this period, the OCC was staffed with 16 journey level investigators, although, one of them, a temporary hire, was assigned to only six cases involving complex investigations.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In February, the OCC held a one day workshop facilitated by Dr. Lorie Fridell on fair and impartial policing. The workshop, at which Chief Greg P. Suhr gave welcoming remarks, was attended by Police Commissioner Julius Turman, OCC investigators, members of the Police Department's Internal Affairs Division, community members and police oversight professionals from bay area agencies. Also, in February, the investigators and staff attorneys attended a two-day training on force science. At an all staff meeting in March, the OCC screened the documentary film by Abby Ginzburg, Cruz Reynoso – Sowing the Seeds of Justice.

C. Budget

On February 21, 2012, in compliance with City budget directives, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor and Controller. The Mayor's Office's budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2012/2013 and 2013/2014 with a 5% reduction of general fund support for each budget year and a 2.5% contingency reduction of general fund support. For these reductions, the OCC's targets are $124,928 for 2012/2013 and $124,928 for 2013/2014 and a contingency target of $62,464.

Additionally each department was required to reduce full time equivalent positions, FTEs, by 1% per year for five years for a total 5% FTE reduction. The OCC has 34.75 FTEs; however, 15 of them are not included in the formula due to Charter mandated minimum staffing for investigators based on one investigator for every 150 police officers. Over five years the reduction would equal 1 FTE in addition to the reduction of positions mandated by the 5% general fund reduction targets for two consecutive fiscal years.

1. Office of Citizen Complaints Budget

The OCC's fiscal year 2011/2012 baseline budget of $4,313,242.00 includes $3,831,781.00 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprise 89% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs fund 34.75 positions. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $481,461, is for operations. Of this operations amount, $308,362, or 64% is paid to the City to rent the OCC's office at 25 Van Ness Avenue.

2. Five Percent Reduction Target Each Fiscal Year for Two Years

To meet the 5% budget reduction target of $124,928 both in 2012/13 and 2013/14, for a total of $249,856, the OCC would have to eliminate two filled clerical positions and a vacant investigator position. The reduction for 2012/13 would be comprised of two filled clerk typist (1424) positions. This reduction would result in the layoff of two employees and the reduction of the clerical staff by 33%. The salary plus fringe benefits of these two filled positions is $115,050. The remaining $9,878 would be met by leaving a vacant 8124 position unfilled for the first quarter. The reduction for 2013/2014 would be met by cutting an investigator (8124) position. This would reduce journey level investigators to 15. The salary plus fringe benefits of an 8124 journey level investigator position is $124,135.

3. Two and One Half Percent Contingency Target

To meet the 2.5% contingency target of $62,464, the remaining clerk typist would work reduced hours and additional salary savings would be achieved by not filling a vacant investigator position for the first quarter of 2012/2013.

4. Reduction of Full Time Equivalent Positions by One Percent Each Year Five Years

The OCC has 34.75 FTEs. The budget instructions require a 1% FTE reduction each year for five years. Over five years the reduction would equal one FTE in addition to the reduction of positions mandated by the 5% reduction targets for two consecutive fiscal years. To meet this mandate, the OCC would eliminate its only accounting/payroll position, a Senior Account Clerk (1632.)

D. City Controller's 2007 Recommendations for OCC Process Improvement

On August 31, 2011, the Controller's City Services Auditor (CSA) division notified the OCC that it would conduct a second follow-up audit to the findings it issued in its January 24, 2007 audit report.

In response to the notification, on September 23, 2011, the OCC notified CSA staff that it had addressed 38 of the 41 audit recommendations contained in the audit report. Of the three remaining recommendations 2, 10 and 42, the Auditor was advised that the OCC would implement them but for lack of financial resources.

Recommendation number 2 requires that the OCC complete all its investigations within nine months or ten months at the latest. The OCC has endeavored to meet these goals but has never reached 100% compliance because of inadequate investigator, information systems and attorney staffing.

Maintenance of the OCC's database and hardware and software has been slowed by inadequate information systems technical staffing. The OCC has one information systems business analyst to provide for electronic production of evidence and documents, maintain hardware and software for 35 staff members and maintain its intranet, website and database.

The OCC investigative staff has been historically understaffed as observed in the Controller's audit which found as best practices 16 cases per investigator, yet OCC investigators have an average of 23 cases.

The four staff attorneys at the OCC are tasked with legal review of OCC complaints, sustained reports, hearing requests, subpoenas and document requests from State and Federal court. Additionally, the legal unit is responsible for facilitating an average of 65 mediations a year, policy analysis of police practices and policies and the OCC's community outreach program.

In order to effectively reduce investigator caseloads, this office would need the following positions at the cost of nearly $1,000,000.00:

1) Four 8124 journey level investigators
2) One 8126 supervising investigator
3) One 8177 attorney
4) One 1052 information systems business analyst

Recommendation number 10 provides for the OCC to install an automated tickler system for investigation deadlines. The cost of implementation is $7,000.

Recommendation number 42 provides for the OCC to allow online complaint filing. The cost of implementation is $12,000.

Once CSA staff reviewed the OCC's September 23, 2011 responses to the CSA's notice of a second follow-up audit, CSA staff developed a six point audit follow-up work plan dated January 27, 2012. In that work plan, the auditor notified the OCC that it would conduct a field audit to assess the OCC's and SFPD's compliance with the following recommendations:

- Recommendation #3[1] – Qualitative assessment of case reviews
- Recommendation #8 — Compliance with nine month notification requirements of Charter § 4.127
- Recommendation #16 – SFPD's Compliance with requests for information (Document Protocol)
- Recommendation #23 - Implementation of a strategic plan of training needs.
- Recommendation #35 – OCC's 2011 Community Outreach Strategic Plan
- Recommendation #38 – Periodic reports by the OCC to the Police Commission

During most of the first quarter of 2012, the OCC worked with CSA staff to provide data for the field audit. CSA staff advised the OCC that it would provide the OCC with its findings in the second quarter of 2012.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2012 first quarter, the OCC opened 196 new cases, and closed 200 cases. During this period, the OCC closed four more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 365 pending cases which are 31 less pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2011. By the end of the 2012 first quarter there were 60 pending cases from 2012, 194 pending cases from 2011 and one pending case from 2010.[2]

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

The first quarter 2012 case closure statistics showed the advantage of having more investigators which resulted in lower caseloads and more timely closures. During first quarter 2012, the OCC was staffed with 16 investigators. The average caseload was 23 cases. During the first quarter of 2011, the OCC had 12 investigators with an average caseload of 27 cases. OCC investigators closed 200 cases in the first quarter of 2012 with 73% of them closed within nine months and only one of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is an improvement over 2011 where of the 218 cases closed, only 61% of them were closed within nine months and 5% of them (10 cases) took more than a year to close. In 2011, nine of the ten cases that took more than one year to close had no sustainable allegations. The statute of limitations was tolled on the one sustainable case that took more than one year to close because of an ongoing criminal investigation.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases was similar in the first quarter of 2012, to the first quarter 2012; a 6.5% sustained rate in 2012 and a 7% sustained rate in 2011. In the first quarter of 2012 the OCC sustained allegations in 13 cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased for the first quarter of 2012 compared to the first quarter of 2011. In the first quarter of 2012, 46% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after receipt, while during the same period in 2011, only 12% of the sustained cases were completed within nine months and one sustained case was completed more than 365 days after receipt.[3]

The impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[4] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

[2] The 2010 case was an officer involved shooting case with the death of the suspect where the statute of limitations was tolled through July 25, 2012 due to a criminal investigation. By letter dated July 25, 2011, the District Attorney declined to prosecute.

[3] The one-year statute of limitations for the one sustained case which was completed after 365 days in the first quarter of 2011 was tolled while a criminal investigation is pending pursuant to Government Code section 3304, section (d), subsection (1).

[4] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the first quarter of 2012 was 23 cases.

During the first quarter of 2012, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 10 of the 13 sustained complaints. Seven of these complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or 70% of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. The neglect of duty sustained allegations in these seven complaints are as troubling as they were in previous quarters because the allegations were sustained because an officer either failed to complete the worksheet for traffic stop data or to enter the information into the MDT in the patrol vehicle or at the station computer in the case of motorcycle officers. Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[5] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional categories for which allegations were sustained include:

1. Conduct reflecting discredit for chewing and spitting tobacco while engaging in an enforcement action.
2. Unwarranted action for:
    a. Detaining,
    b. Handcuffing
    c. Searching
    d. Transporting to a police station
    e. Seizing a vehicle without cause
3. Neglect of duty for:
    a. Violation of the juvenile protocols (Department General Order 7.10),
    b. Failure to issue a property receipt

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline he may impose. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated 13 OCC sustained cases as follows:[6]

- OCC Case number 0145-11 – Neglect of Duty - an officer failed to enter an incident report into the database for a complainant who while shopping was assaulted and injured by a stranger. The officer was suspended.

- OCC Case number 0194-11- Neglect of Duty – Upon checking out of a hotel, an inspector forgot a service revolver, ammunition clip and handcuffs in the room hotel safe. While cleaning the vacated room, the housekeeping staff observed the locked room safe. They called hotel security and hotel security and an engineer unlocked the safe and discovered the officer's loaded service revolver, ammunition clip and handcuffs. The hotel contacted the officer who made arrangements to have the equipment retrieved by a superior officer. Although the complainant also complained about the superior officer's conduct in retrieving the weapon, the OCC determined that the inspector's conduct in forgetting his weapon and equipment was neglect of duty because he lost custody and control of them when he checked out of the hotel and therefore the officer's conduct was sustainable. The Police Chief did not agree and found the officer's conduct of forgetting his equipment in the hotel room safe to be Proper Conduct.

- OCC Case number 0196-11 – Neglect of Duty - an officer failed to properly log a use of force in the incident report even though the officer noted in the incident report that the complainant had an injury. The sergeant failed to properly supervise the officer by ensuring that the incident report was complete. The sergeant failed to enter the use of force in the use of force log. The officer and the sergeant were each given a written reprimand.

- OCC Case number 0218-11 – Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to log traffic stop data. The officer was suspended.

- OCC Case number 0221-11 – Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to prepare an incident report when the complainant stated he wanted to press charges against another driver for a road rage incident. The officer was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0325-11 – Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to log traffic stop data. The officer received a written reprimand.

[6] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this first quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this first quarter.

- OCC Case number 0438-11 – Neglect of Duty - an officer failed to log in traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0320-11- Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to log in traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0508-11 – Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to log traffic stop data. The Chief of Police will file charges with the Police Commission.

- OCC Case number 0312-11 – Conduct Reflecting Discredit – An officer chewed and spat tobacco while engaging in an enforcement action. The officer was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0156-11- Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to inform a juvenile that the juvenile's parent or guardian could be present during the interrogation in violation of DGO 7.01. The officer was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0157-11 – Unwarranted Action – a captain caused a vehicle to be seized without cause. The captain was admonished.

- OCC Case number 0453-11- Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to log traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Occupy SF

San Francisco's Occupy movement generated ten complaints from twenty-two complainants in 2011. An additional complaint was filed in the first quarter of 2012 and mediated during this quarter. Allegations in these complaints include unnecessary force, failure to provide medical attention, unwarranted seizure of property, interference with the rights of onlookers, violation of DGO 8.10 (First Amendment Guidelines), issuing invalid orders, unwarranted handcuffing, detention, citation and arrest, failure to provide medical attention, selective enforcement and biased policing. In 2011, two complaints were closed, one with proper conduct findings and the other with both not sustained and proper conduct findings. Eight of the complaints remained under investigation.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

In 2011, three complaints were filed involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remained open through the first quarter.

C. Officer Involved Shootings

During the first quarter of 2012, a complaint was filed in an officer involved shooting which resulted in the death of the suspect. In 2011, the OCC received three complaints on officer involved shootings and continued its investigation of an officer involved shooting complaint from 2010. During the first quarter of 2012, the OCC continued its investigation of the 2010, 2011 and 2012 officer involved shooting complaints. Of the five officer involved shooting complaints under investigation during the first quarter, four resulted in the death of the suspect.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2012 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2011 cases and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2011 cases pending. In comparison to 2011, by the end of the 2011 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all but one 2010 case, and had closed 71% of them, leaving 29% of the 2010 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigator caseload as of March 31, 2012 shows a slight decrease from the same period in 2011. This decrease is attributable to a significant increase in the number of journey level investigators, 16 at the close of the first quarter in 2012 and 12 at the close of the first quarter in 2011. The average caseload as of March 31, 2012 was 23 cases per investigator. As of March 31, 2011, the average caseload was 27 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's legal unit. The legal unit is led by Ines Vargas Fraenkel. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections IX and X of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During the first quarter of 2012, the trial attorneys presented seven cases at Chief's Hearings. Of these, four cases resulted in the proposed discipline being upheld, one case was dismissed for procedural reasons, and two are pending.

As to Police Commission cases, the trial attorneys were active with four cases this quarter. They handled a case management conference in one case, and attended a Settlement Conference in another. The case management conference resulted in the calendaring of various dates up to and including a hearing date. The settlement conference resulted in a recommendation that the Police Commission send the case back to the Chief's level for imposition of a ten-day suspension discipline. It is anticipated that the settlement will be ratified by the Police Commission during the second quarter.

The two remaining Police Commission cases were fully briefed and presented to the Police Commission. One of the cases was dismissed after hearing on a pre-trial motion to dismiss brought by the subject officers on the procedural matters of 'notice' and when the statute of limitations begins and ends, when a civilian complaint is arguably made to a police department captain rather than directly to the OCC. On the other case, which had been fully presented at a hearing in 2011 and resulted in the officer's termination, the Legal Unit prepared findings of fact, which were adopted by the Police Commission during this quarter.

VIII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2012, the OCC mediated thirteen cases compared to eighteen cases in 2011. In the first quarter of 2010, the OCC mediated five cases when the mediation coordinator was on an unexpected medical leave.

In early March, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator attended the Alternative Dispute Resolution of Northern California conference. In February, the Mediation Coordinator addressed a class at Community Boards mediation training. The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2012, the OCC was engaged in several outreach activities. The OCC Director made presentations about the OCC's services during Police Commission meetings held in the Park District in February and the Bayview District in March.

The OCC also staffed informational tables at an Operation Homeless Connect event and the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth and Families (DCYF). In January, Supervisor David Campos invited Director Joyce Hicks and Staff Attorney Samara Marion to join representatives from numerous juvenile justice advocacy organizations, and SFPD to discuss training on police interactions with youth. During January, Attorney Marion also gave a presentation to the Youth Justice Committee of the San Francisco Youth Commission.

In February the Outreach Coordinator met with staff at the Arab Cultural and Community Center about OCC services and provided OCC brochures for distribution to the mosques within the city. With assistance from the Arab Cultural and Community Center's staff, the OCC completed its Arabic translation of its informational brochure. The Arabic translation will be included in the OCC's quarterly distribution of its informational brochures to city agencies and organizations. The Arabic brochure can also be down loaded from the OCC's website along with the informational, mediation and Know Your Rights for Youth in San Francisco brochures in English, Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Russian, and Vietnamese.

In March, the OCC participated in DCYF's Youth Advocacy Day, a yearly event where high school students meet with city officials to talk about issues impacting youth. Attorney Marion met with two groups of students to talk about youth rights and constitutional policing. As mentioned above, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator also made a presentation about the OCC's mediation program to students completing the Community Boards' mediation training.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the first quarter 2012, the OCC advanced its policy work in two areas: language access and juvenile-policing protocols.

A. Language Access – Department General Order 5.20

The OCC took several steps to address concerns raised during the Police Commission's language access hearings on December 7, 2011 and February 1, 2012. During both hearings, advocates for domestic violence victims talked about cases in which language barriers compromised the accuracy of incident reports and the quality of police assistance. Testimony also included a domestic violence victim's unsuccessful attempts at two different police stations to obtain language assistance to file a domestic violence report. The OCC also reported on over two dozen language access complaints that had been filed during 2009-2010, including four (4) sustained complaints and five (5) resulting in training and policy failure findings. On February 2nd and March 28, 2012 the OCC brought together representatives from several domestic violence service providers, language access advocates and SFPD. The OCC concurred with the following strategies to enhance SFPD's language access services:

- A Department Bulletin that highlights the common indicators during police encounters with Limited Proficient English (LEP) individuals that language assistance is necessary,
- Language access training for Police Service Aides who work at the district stations,
- Roll call training addressing the areas of concerns raised by OCC complaints and domestic violence service providers,
- Bimonthly meetings between SFPD and OCC to address language access complaints,
- Quarterly meetings with SFPD and community stakeholders to discuss language access issues,
- Issuance of digital recorders to certified bilingual officers
- SFPD's distribution at the ten district stations of the Language Access, OCC informational, and Juvenile Know Your Rights brochures in multiple languages,
- Distribution of SFPD's list of certified bilingual officer at the ten district stations, and
- Request the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) to meet with SFPD, the OCC, and domestic violence service providers about protocols involving LEP callers.

With input from domestic violence service providers, in February, the OCC coauthored a Language Access Department Bulletin that awaits the Chief's approval. The OCC has also written and provided the Department a roll call training involving a domestic violence scenario with a LEP victim. In March, the OCC and SPFD met with the Department's videographer to discuss the scripting and filming of a LEP roll call training video.

B. Juvenile Policing Protocols – Department General Order 7.01

During the first quarter 2012, the OCC also continued its work on juvenile-policing protocols. Since 2004, the OCC has met regularly with representatives from the Youth Commission, juvenile justice advocacy groups and SFPD to implement OCC recommendations about Department General Order 7.01's juvenile-policing protocols. In response to juvenile justice advocates' continuing concern that juveniles are being brought to the district stations instead of the Community Assessment and Referral Center (CARC) and the Juvenile Justice Center (JJC), in January 2012, the Department provided the OCC data concerning the number of juveniles who were brought to the district stations. The OCC determined that from 2010 to 2011 the number of juveniles being brought to the district stations had declined from an average of 133 juveniles a month to 52 juveniles a month. The data also indicated that over half of the juveniles brought to the district stations could have been transported directly from the field to CARC or JJC. To address this concern, in February, the Department invited CARC to discuss with captains and lieutenants the benefits of CARC's services, including its low recidivism rate of juveniles who participate in the program, SFPD's use of a computer equipped police interview room on site, and the speed with which an officer can deliver a juvenile to CARC and return to the street for service.

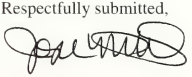

C. Vehicle Pursuit Policy – Department General Order 5.05

And last, the OCC continued to urge the Police Department to finalize revisions to the Department's response and pursuit policy (DGO 5.05.). Since 2009 the OCC has suggested revisions to the Department's pursuit policy that are consistent with best practices and would enhance both officer and public safety.

XI. CONCLUSION

As in the past four years, the OCC faces severe budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year which could result in additional case resolution delays, however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to promptly, fairly and impartially investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks

0194-11	Upon checking out of a hotel, an inspector forgot a service revolver, ammunition clip and handcuffs in the room hotel safe. While cleaning the vacated room, the housekeeping staff observed the locked room safe. They called hotel security and hotel security and an engineer unlocked the safe and discovered the officer's loaded service revolver, ammunition clip and handcuffs. The hotel contacted the officer who made arrangements to have the equipment retrieved by a superior officer. Although the complainant also complained about the superior officer's conduct in retrieving the weapon, the OCC determined that the inspector's conduct in forgetting his weapon and equipment was neglect of duty because he lost custody and control of them when he checked out of the hotel and therefore the officer's conduct was sustainable. The Police Chief did not agree and found the officer's conduct of forgetting his equipment in the hotel room safe to be Proper Conduct.

Members, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors
Members, the San Francisco Police Commission
San Francisco Police Chief Gregory P. Suhr

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2012 Second Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2012 second quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 182 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 227 complaints this second quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 12 complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 23 cases which is also a 10% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

The OCC continued training one probationary 8124 (journey level) investigator during the second quarter. Also, during this period, the OCC was staffed with 16 journey level investigators, although, one of them, a temporary hire, was assigned to only six cases involving complex investigations.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. San Francisco Police Lt. Joe McFadden and representatives from Crime Scene Investigations conducted training on their work and Commander Lea Militello conducted training on the work of officers assigned to San Francisco Municipal Transit Authority (SFMTA).

C. Budget

On May 31, 2012, Mayor Edwin Lee submitted his two-year proposed budget to the Board of Supervisors. Rather than cuts to the OCC's $4.3 million budget, the proposed budget included two additional 8124 investigator positions. The OCC's $4.7 and $4.9 million two-year proposed budget was considered by the Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee at hearings on June 20 and June 27, 2012. The committee recommended reductions to the OCC's materials and supplies and professional services line items as well as one of the two additional 8124 investigator positions. After hearing testimony from OCC Director Joyce M. Hicks, the committee withdrew the proposed reductions to the materials and supplies and professional services line items and held firm with its recommendation that the OCC budget be enhanced by one additional 8124 investigator position instead of two.

D. City Controller's 2007 Recommendations for OCC Process Improvement

On August 31, 2011, the Controller's City Services Auditor (CSA) division notified the OCC that it would conduct a second follow-up audit to the findings it issued in its January 24, 2007 audit report.

In response to the notification, on September 23, 2011, the OCC notified CSA staff that it had addressed 38 of the 41 audit recommendations contained in the audit report. Of the three remaining recommendations 2, 10 and 42, the Auditor was advised that the OCC would implement them but for lack of financial resources.

Recommendation number 2 requires that the OCC complete all its investigations within nine months or ten months at the latest. The OCC has endeavored to meet these goals but has never reached 100% compliance because of inadequate investigator, information systems technology and attorney staffing.

Maintenance of the OCC's database and hardware and software has been slowed by inadequate information systems technology staffing. The OCC has one information systems business analyst to provide for electronic production of evidence and documents, maintain hardware and software for 35 staff members and maintain its intranet, website and database.

The OCC investigative staff has been historically understaffed as observed in the Controller's audit which found as best practices 16 cases per investigator, yet OCC investigators have an average of 23 cases.

The four staff attorneys at the OCC are tasked with legal review of OCC complaints, sustained reports, hearing requests, subpoenas and document requests from State and Federal court. Additionally, the legal unit is responsible for facilitating an average of 65 mediations a year, policy analysis of police practices and policies and the OCC's community outreach program.

In order to effectively reduce investigator caseloads, this office would need the following positions at the cost of nearly $1,000,000.00:

1) Four 8124 journey level investigators

2) One 8126 supervising investigator

3) One 8177 attorney

4) One 1052 information systems business analyst

Recommendation number 10 provides for the OCC to install an automated tickler system for investigation deadlines. The cost of implementation is $7,000.[1]

Recommendation number 42 provides for the OCC to allow online complaint filing. The cost of implementation is $12,000.[2]

Once CSA staff reviewed the OCC's September 23, 2011 responses to the CSA's notice of a second follow-up audit, CSA staff developed a six point audit follow-up work plan dated January 27, 2012. In that work plan, the auditor notified the OCC that it would conduct a field audit to assess the OCC's and SFPD's compliance with the following recommendations:

- Recommendation #3 – Qualitative assessment of case reviews[3]
- Recommendation #8 -– Compliance with nine month notification requirements of Charter § 4.127
- Recommendation #16 – SFPD's Compliance with requests for information (Document Protocol)
- Recommendation #23 - Implementation of a strategic plan of training needs.
- Recommendation #35 – OCC's 2011 Community Outreach Strategic Plan
- Recommendation #38 – Periodic reports by the OCC to the Police Commission

During most of the first quarter of 2012, the OCC worked with CSA staff to provide data for the field audit. CSA staff advised the OCC that it would provide the OCC with its findings in the second quarter of 2012. On May 29, 2012 the Auditor issued a report which found that the six audited recommendations had been fully complied with.

[1] Due to savings in its professional services budget, the OCC determined that it could begin designing online complaint filing with an estimated completion date of December 2012.
[2] Due to savings in its professional services budget, the OCC determined that it could begin designing an auto-prompt calendaring system with an estimated completion date of June 2013.
[3] These recommendation numbers correspond with the recommendation numbers in audit report #05046, entitled, Office of Citizen Complaints: Weak Case Management and Organizational Issues Degrade OCC's Performance, that was issued on January 24, 2007.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2012 second quarter, the OCC opened 376 new cases, and closed 427 cases. During this period, the OCC closed 51 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 325 pending cases which are 102 less pending cases than the close of the second quarter in 2011. By the end of the 2012 second quarter there were 76 pending cases from 2011 and 249 pending cases from 2012

In comparison, as of the end of the 2011 second quarter, the OCC opened 418 new cases and closed 417 cases. During this period, the OCC closed one less case than it opened. The OCC closed the second quarter of 2011 with 427 pending cases and by the end of the 2011 second quarter there were 119 pending cases from 2010 and 308 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

The second quarter 2012 case closure statistics showed the advantage of having more investigators which resulted in lower caseloads and more timely closures. During second quarter 2012, the OCC was staffed with 16 investigators. The average caseload was 19 cases. During the second quarter of 2011, the OCC had 13 investigators with an average caseload of 28 cases. OCC investigators closed 227 cases in the second quarter of 2012 with 78% of them closed within nine months and only one of them took more than a year to close.[4] This is an improvement over second quarter 2011 when of the 203 cases closed, only 66% of them were closed within nine months and 4% of them (nine cases) took more than a year to close. In 2011, none of the cases that took more than one year to close had sustainable allegations.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases was lower in the second quarter of 2012, compared to second quarter 2011; a 5.3% sustained rate in 2012 and a 10% sustained rate in 2011. In the second quarter of 2012 the OCC sustained allegations in 12 cases. The number of days to close sustained cases increased in the second quarter of 2012 compared to the second quarter of 2011. In the second quarter of 2012, only 16% of sustained cases were completed within nine months. One sustained case was completed after one year but the statute of limitations was tolled due to an ongoing criminal investigation. During the same period in 2011, 30% of the sustained cases were completed within nine months and one sustained case was completed more than 365 days after receipt.[5]

[4] The one-year statute of limitations for the one case that was completed after 365 days in the second quarter of 2012 was tolled while a criminal investigation was pending pursuant to Government Code section 3304, section (d), subsection (1).

[5] The one-year statute of limitations for the one sustained case which was completed after 365 days in the second quarter of 2011 was tolled while a criminal investigation was pending pursuant to Government Code section 3304, section (d), subsection (1).

The impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[6] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the second quarter of 2012, the OCC sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 11 of the 12 sustained complaints. Only one of these complaints with a sustained neglect of duty allegation, or 8% of them, was for failure to collect traffic stop data. This is a significant improvement over the first quarter when 70% of the ten cases had a neglect of duty sustained allegation for failure to collect traffic stop data. The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional categories and cases for which allegations were sustained include:

1. Unwarranted action for:
    a. Interfering with complainant's signature gathering for a ballot measure.
    b. Entering a residence without cause.
2. Neglect of duty for:
    a. Failure to write an incident report.
    b. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing.
    c. Failure to broadcast to DEM the officer's destination and the police vehicle's starting mileage when transporting a female passenger.
    d. Failure to properly process property by leaving the complainant's iPhone and purse on the roof of a moving police car.
    e. Writing an inaccurate incident report.
    f. Failure to submit an incident report by the end of the officer's watch.
    g. Failure to supervise by approving an inaccurate incident report.
3. Conduct reflecting discredit for:
    a. Contacting a witness during an ongoing OCC investigation and divulging confidential information to that witness.
    b. Interfering with complainant's signature gathering for a ballot measure.

[6] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the second quarter of 2012 was 23 cases.

c. Responding in a discourteous manner to a request for medical assistance.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline he may impose. During the second quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated 13 OCC sustained cases as follows:[7]

1. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to document traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

2. Neglect of Duty – an officer violated Department General Order 7.01 when the officer failed to broadcast the starting and ending mileage of the transport of a male juvenile. The officer was admonished.

3. Neglect of Duty – an officer violated Department General Order 2.01, Rule 36 when the officer failed to broadcast to DEM the ending mileage of the transport of a female passenger. The officer received a written reprimand.

4. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to document traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

5. Conduct Reflecting Discredit – based on a request of a business owner who felt his customers were being annoyed by the complainant who was gathering signatures for a ballot measure, an officer told the complainant that he was going to stand next to the complainant while the complainant gathered signatures and then after the complainant asked pedestrians if they wanted to sign the petition, the officer asked the pedestrians if they felt harassed. The officer received a written reprimand for harassing the complainant.

6. Neglect of Duty – an officer violated a Department Bulletin by failing to prepare SFPD form 184, (849 (b) PC) for 647 (f) Release When Sober (RWS) pursuant to the complainant's arrest. The officer was admonished.

[7] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this second quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this second quarter.

7. Neglect of Duty – an officer violated two general orders when transporting a juvenile female passenger; Department General Order 2.01, Rule 36 when the officer failed to broadcast to DEM the ending mileage of the transport of a female passenger and Department General Order 7.01, section III., paragraph I., when the officer failed to broadcast to DEM the ending mileage of a juvenile passenger. The officer received a written reprimand.

8. Neglect of Duty – an officer who handcuffed and released the complainant failed to issue a certificate of release in violation of Department General Order 5.03, section II. paragraph A., subsection 3. The officer was admonished.

9. Neglect of Duty – After taking the complainant into custody for a 72-hour detention for evaluation and treatment, the officer failed to complete an incident report by the end of the officer's watch. The officer was admonished.

10. Neglect of Duty – An officer prepared an inaccurate incident report and the officer's sergeant approved it. The officer and sergeant were admonished.

11. Neglect of Duty and Conduct Reflecting Discredit – An officer took the complainant into custody and placed the complainant's purse and iPhone on the roof of the patrol car while putting the complainant into the car. The officer forgot that the complainant's property was on the hood of the car and drove to the station. The complainant's property could not be located. The officer received a written reprimand for neglect of duty in failing to maintain property. Another officer responded to the complainant's request for medical assistance in a discourteous and disrespectful manner. The officer was admonished for conduct reflecting discredit for the way the officer responded to the complainant's request.

12. Neglect of Duty – An inspector failed to complete an incident report by the end of the inspector's watch. The inspector was admonished.

13. Neglect of Duty and Unwarranted Action – When responding to a noise complaint at a single room occupancy hotel, the officer left the officer's baton in the patrol car. The officer was admonished for failure to maintain required equipment.

    In violation of the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution, the manager of the hotel opened a resident's door so the officer could address the resident about the noise complaint. The OCC's sustained finding against the officer for the unwarranted action of entering the resident's room absent a search warrant, fresh pursuit or exigent circumstances was deemed a training failure by Chief Suhr. The officer will be provided updated training and a copy of newly issued Department Bulletin 12-142 (Entering Residences (Houses, Apartments, and Hotels, including SRO Hotels)).

In violation of Police Commission Resolution 1159-88 and Department General Order 2.0, (General Rules of Conduct, Rule 48, Compromising Investigations and Rule 49, Divulging Confidential Information), at the direction of a sergeant offering peer counseling, the officer contacted a witness during an open OCC and Internal Affairs Division investigation and divulged confidential medical history of a suspect. The OCC found that while the officer committed a sustainable violation, there were insufficient policies to prevent supervisors from directing subordinates to contact witnesses as part of peer counseling. Chief Suhr found insufficient evidence for the officer and training failure for the sergeant. Additionally Chief Suhr issued Department Bulletin 12-145 (Contact with Victims/Witnesses during on-going Investigations). Both the officer and sergeant will be provided the newly issued Department Bulletin and the Police Commission Resolution.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Occupy SF

San Francisco's Occupy movement generated ten complaints from twenty-two complainants in 2011. An additional complaint was filed in the first quarter of 2012 and mediated during the first quarter. Allegations in these complaints include unnecessary force, failure to provide medical attention, unwarranted seizure of property, interference with the rights of onlookers, violation of DGO 8.10 (First Amendment Guidelines), issuing invalid orders, unwarranted handcuffing, detention, citation and arrest, failure to provide medical attention, selective enforcement and biased policing. In 2011, two complaints were closed, one with proper conduct findings and the other with both not sustained and proper conduct findings. As of the second quarter, eight of the complaints remained under investigation. These eight complaints were merged into three complaints that are still under investigation.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

In 2011, three complaints were filed involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remained open through the second quarter pending investigations by other government agencies.

C. Officer Involved Shootings

In its first quarter report, the OCC attributed a complaint arising from an officer involved shooting which resulted in the death of the suspect to having been filed during the first quarter when it was in fact filed during the second quarter of 2012. In 2011, the OCC received three complaints of officer involved shootings. During the second quarter of 2012, the OCC continued its investigation of a 2010 and the 2011 and 2012 officer involved shooting complaints. Of the five officer involved shooting complaints under investigation during the second quarter, four resulted in the death of the suspect. During the second quarter, the OCC concluded its investigation of its 2010 officer involved shooting case.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2012 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2011 cases and by the end of the 2012 second quarter staff had closed 90% of its 2011 cases, leaving 10% or 76 of the 2011 cases pending. In comparison to 2011, by the end of the 2011 second quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2010 cases, and had closed 86% of them, leaving 14% or 118 of the 2010 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigators' caseloads as of June 30, 2012 show a significant decrease from the same period in 2011. This decrease is attributable to a significant increase in the number of journey level investigators, 16 at the close of the second quarter in 2012 and 13 at the close of the second quarter in 2011. The average caseload as of June 30, 2012 was 19 cases per investigator. As of June 30, 2011, the average caseload was 28 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads, reassigning cases to adjust for imbalanced caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

During the second Quarter of 2012, the Legal Unit functioned operated with 3.75 attorney positions, which include a Supervising Trial Attorney, a Staff Trial Attorney, a Policy Analyst, and a Mediation Coordinator.

The OCC's two trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten-day suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this second quarter, the Legal Unit had one Chief's hearing scheduled but the case was voluntarily dismissed as the officer decided not to appeal his proposed discipline.

The legal unit handled two active Police Commission cases this quarter. It handled a case management conference in one of the cases, and settlement conferences in both cases.

The case management conference resulted in the calendaring of various dates up to and including a trial date. In that case, the parties reached resolution during the settlement conference, pending Police Commission approval. The OCC will recommend that the Police Commission approve a settlement of imposition of 30-days suspension on the officer. In the other case, a resolution was also reached during the settlement conference, pending Police Commission approval. The OCC will recommend that the Police Commission send the case back to the Chief's level for imposition of 10-days suspension. The proposed settlements will be presented to the Police Commission in Closed Session and it is anticipated that the Police Commission will approve them during the third quarter.

VIII. MEDIATION

In the second quarter there were twenty-three mediations compared to fifteen in 2011. At the end of the second quarter there were thirty-six mediations as compared to thirty-three in 2011.

During the first half of 2012 a total of 89 officers were considered for mediation. Fifteen or 17% were ineligible. Of the 74 officers who were offered mediation, only five, or 6% declined. Of 56 citizens offered mediation, 33 or 59% agreed to mediate.

On June 1, 2012, the Office of Citizen Complaints Mediation Program was given an award for excellence in alternative dispute resolution practices at the Community Boards Annual Peacemaker Awards Benefit. In addition, the OCC Mediation Program was awarded a Certificate of Honor from the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and a Certificate of Recognition from Senator Mark Leno of the California State Senate.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the second quarter of 2012, the OCC engaged in the following activities:

The Director and OCC staff members met with a delegation of Justices from the highest court of Morocco sponsored by the U.S. Department of State. The Director also participated in an event sponsored by the University of California School of Law (Boalt Hall), Women of Color Collective. In April, the Director was interviewed by David Onek for his Criminal Justice podcast.[8] The Director also explained the functions of the OCC at two Police Commission meetings which were held in the Taraval and Tenderloin districts.

OCC staff gave presentations to a group of youth from the Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center, a Youth Summit held at Balboa High School, the Police Commission Community Meeting held in the Taraval District, the National Alliance on Mental Illness, the Domestic Violence Consortium, and a group of juvenile justice advocates with Supervisor David Campos.

OCC staff also made presentations to the San Francisco Youth Commission and two groups of high school students participating in Youth Advocacy Day sponsored by the Department of Children Youth and their Families.

OCC staffed information booths at Operation Homeless Connect, the annual Summer Resource Fair, and the SFPD Youth Resource Fair in the Western Addition.

Brochures and complainant forms were provided to all ten police stations, the Ella Hill Hutch Community Center, the African Resource Center, the Buchannan YMCA, the OMI Family Resource Center, the Bayview Family Resource Center, Young Community Developers, the Third Street Youth Center, the John King Senior Center, Community Boards, the Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center, the District Attorney's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Bayview Senior Center, the Third Street Youth Center, John King Senior Center, the Immigrants Rights Commission, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, the Jewish Vocational Center, the Asian Pacific Islander Outreach Program, ACCESS, the Asian Law Caucus, Chinese for Affirmative Action, La Raza Central Legal, CUAV, the Mission Resource Center, Arriba Juntos, the Instituto Laboral de la Raza, the SF Law Library, the SF Taxi Council, and Horizons Unlimited

[8] The Criminal Justice Conversations Podcast with David Onek, http://www.law.berkeley.edu/13292.htm

In the second quarter of 2012, OCC staff continued working with the Educational and Social Service Coordinator of the Arab Cultural and Community Center to translate our OCC brochure into Arabic. That publication has since been distributed to all of the mosques in the City.

As mentioned above, the OCC Mediation Program was recognized for excellence in ADR practices at the Community Boards Annual Peacekeeping Awards benefit. That event was attended by the Mediation Coordinator as well as Police Commission President Mazzucco. In addition, the Mediation Coordinator attended the annual Alternative Dispute Resolution Northern California Conference, the Peninsula Conflict Resolution annual luncheon, and two Community Boards trainings.

Evaluations returned after OCC presentations indicate that 100% of the representatives of those organizations felt that the presentation met their expectations; that the presenters were knowledgeable about their subject matter; and felt that the materials distributed were substantive. Every evaluator stated they would ask OCC to return and would recommend it to others.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is another essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work.

During the second quarter of 2012, the OCC concluded its investigation of an unnecessary force complaint regarding an officer who responded to a noise complaint in a single room occupancy hotel and had the building manager unlock the occupant's room with a passkey. The occupant encountered by the officer was mentally ill. As a result of this encounter, the OCC recommended the following reforms:

- Prohibit officers from using passkeys to enter single room occupancy hotels or other premises unless constitutional requirements are fulfilled.

- Enhance the emergency dispatch system so that responding officers are apprised of previous mental health crisis calls and the prior presence, seizure and/or return of weapons at that location.

- Prohibit officers who are the subject of criminal or administrative investigations from talking to witnesses.

- Amend DGO 8.04 (Critical Incident Response Team) to clarify the role, responsibilities and activities of CIRT members, especially when a CIRT officer is providing support services to an officer who is the subject of a criminal or administrative investigation.

In another case involving a psychiatric detention of a complainant, where the Department could not locate the officer's application for the 72-hour psychiatric detention despite it being listed in an incident report as booked evidence, the OCC recommended the following reforms:

- Establish a uniform procedure to document and preserve all attachments to Incident Reports.

- Amend DGO 6.14 (Psychological Evaluation of Adults) to establish one procedure for documenting and maintaining the application for a 72-hour involuntary hold

- Amend DGO 1.04 (Duties of Sergeants) to require sergeants to verify that property listed in an Incident Report has been booked into evidence and documented in the station's property control log.

During the second quarter of 2012, the OCC continued to advance its language access work. In collaboration with several community organizations and SFPD, the OCC co-authored a Department Bulletin. Issued by SFPD on June 26, 2012, Department Bulletin 12-132 provides officers a list of common indicators that language services are necessary and includes additional factors that may hinder effective communication with an LEP person. The OCC also met regularly with the Department to begin the script writing for video roll call training. This video will address areas of concern recently raised by OCC complaints and San Francisco domestic violence service providers.

Finally, the OCC continued advocating for revisions to the Department's pursuit policy (DGO 5.05) that will enhance both officer and public safety and are consistent with best practices.

XI. CONCLUSION

While the OCC does not face the severe constraints with its investigator staffing that it did in the previous four years, the OCC still faces staffing shortages on its legal and information technology teams for the upcoming year. These shortages could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to promptly, fairly and impartially investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty.

AUDIT FOLLOW-UP MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: Results of Follow-up of 2007 Audit of Office of Citizen Complaints

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Office of the Controller's City Services Auditor Division (CSA) issued an audit report in 2007, Weak Case Management and Organizational Issues Degrade OCC's Performance, on which it first performed a field follow-up in 2009. Of the 45 recommendations in the audit report, 38 were directed solely at the Office of Citizen Complaints (OCC), 4 were directed at the San Francisco Police Commission. and 3 were directed at the San Francisco Police Department. In September 2011 OCC reported that it had implemented all but 4 of the recommendations directed to it, and explained why it did not concur with those it had not implemented. This 2012 field follow-up addressed 6 of the report's recommendations, finding that all 6 have been fully implemented.

BACKGROUND, OBJECTIVE & METHODOLOGY

Background

OCC was established in 1983 as the result of a voter-initiated amendment to the San Francisco Charter. OCC's main functions are to receive, investigate, and make findings on complaints against members of the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD). CSA issued an audit report in January 2007, Weak Case Management and Organizational Issues Degrade OCC's Performance, on which it first performed a field follow-up in 2009. In April 2009 OCC reported progress indicating that it had fully implemented 18 (47 percent), partially implemented 11 (29 percent), and not yet implemented 9 (24 percent) of these 38 recommendations. Later in 2009, CSA followed up on 8 recommendations in the audit report, finding that 4 of the 8 had been fully implemented and 4 partially implemented. For this 2012 follow-up, CSA selected 6 recommendations: 4 not previously reviewed and 2 found to be partially implemented by CSA's 2009 follow-up. One of the recommendations reviewed was addressed to SFPD, not OCC.[1]

Objective

The objective of this follow-up is to verify the degree to which OCC and SFPD have implemented six recommendations in CSA's January 2007 audit report. Consistent with Government Auditing Standards, Section 7.05, promulgated by the United States Government Accountability Office, the purposes of audit reports include facilitating follow-up to determine whether appropriate corrective actions have been taken. CSA follows up on its audits because their greatest benefit is not in the findings reported or the recommendations made, but in the implementation of actions to resolve audit findings. As a result of CSA's recommendations being implemented, OCC's operations should be more efficient, effective, transparent, and compliant with city law and policy.

Methodology

To conduct the follow-up, CSA met with key OCC personnel to discuss the status of the corrective actions taken to date and, for the six recommendations selected for this follow-up, obtained documentary evidence. CSA then verified OCC's reported progress on implementing five purposefully selected recommendations that address a variety of OCC responsibilities and, for the recommendation directed at SFPD, verified its reported progress. CSA then documented the results of its fieldwork.

RESULTS

Of the 6 recommendations assessed in this follow-up, all were determined to be fully implemented, as presented below.[2]

Recommendation 3 - To better assist investigators in managing their caseloads, OCC should create consistent standards for case reviews and train senior investigators on them.

CSA confirmed that OCC has developed a policy and procedures manual that covers all key aspects of investigation, including: establishing an investigation plan with timelines; the need for, and frequency of case reviews; and the maintenance of adequate documentation. OCC's senior investigators and management team also have electronic access to case summaries that can be reviewed at will.

Conclusion: Recommendation 3 has been implemented.

[1] Because this recommendation concerns SFPD responsiveness to OCC's document requests, OCC was able to provide information (partially based on data provided to it by SFPD) needed to determine the implementation status of the recommendation.

[2] Recommendation numbers below correspond to the numbering of the recommendations in the audit report.

Recommendation 8 - To meet the notification requirements of Charter §4.127, OCC should develop a standard notification letter to inform SFPD when sustained cases will take longer than nine months to close and develop a centralized method to track OCC's compliance with this notification requirement.

CSA's previous audit field follow-up determined that OCC had developed a notification letter template, but had issued most of the notification letters (10 of 12) after the nine-month deadline.

This follow-up found that OCC's notification letter compliance rate has greatly improved. Of 64 letters sent in 2010, 40 (63 percent) were on time, and of 53 letters sent in 2011, 35 (66 percent) were on time. CSA also verified that OCC has developed a method of tracking cases along with the issuance dates of their respective nine-month notification letters. This information is readily electronically accessible to senior investigators.

Conclusion: Recommendation 8 has been implemented.

Recommendation 16 - SFPD should comply with the document protocol for responding to OCC requests for information.

A report summarizing SFPD's performance related to this recommendation in 2010 and 2011 indicates that SFPD is largely complying with the document protocol.[3] The report shows that:

- SFPD's responses to OCC's document requests were late 12 percent of the time (265 late responses out of 2,240 requests).[4]
- SFPD had denied or partially denied 22 (1 percent of) requests.
- At the end of 2011, 9 non-routine requests were pending.[5]

The 2007 audit found that SFPD's actions in regard to OCC document requests were responsible for few (8 percent) of OCC's extended delays in completing investigations, but that when SFPD refused to comply with OCC document requests, delays were significant. The audit report noted that SFPD's refusals were often in high-profile cases that were the subject of a concurrent SFPD investigation. In its January 2007 response to the audit report, SFPD agreed with this recommendation. However, in a September 2011 response to a CSA audit follow-up, SFPD indicated that it had not implemented the recommendation. In both responses, SFPD stated that it attempts to comply with all OCC document requests, but that in rare cases it must refuse an OCC request when information cannot be released by law.

In assessing whether the recommendation has been implemented, CSA notes that the document protocol:

[3] All data in the report is originally from SFPD. 2010 data was reviewed and corrected by OCC; 2011 data was not.
[4] The report indicates only that responses were late, not how late (in days, weeks, or months).
[5] The document protocol defines routine and non-routine document types.

- Allows SFPD to take longer than the protocol's timelines to produce documents if it notifies OCC and the Police Commission in writing of this, explains the basis for the delay, and estimates when the documents will be produced.
- Allows the police chief to deny an OCC document request if the chief determines that there is a legal basis to do so, and explains in writing to OCC and the Police Commission why each requested item cannot be provided.
- Gives OCC recourse in these cases if it disagrees with SFPD, with the Police Commission empowered to resolve such instances.

Whether SFPD met every requirement of the document protocol in 2010 and 2011 is not reflected in the data provided by SFPD and OCC, and is beyond the scope of this follow-up. Therefore, based on the data provided and on the fact that the document protocol does not require SFPD to comply with every OCC document request, CSA considers this recommendation substantively implemented.

Conclusion: Recommendation 16 has been implemented

Recommendation 23 - OCC should create and implement a strategic plan for the ongoing training needs of staff, and maintain a record of this training.

CSA confirmed that OCC has established strategic training plans for its entire staff. The level and degree of training provided varies with employees' classifications. For example, the training planned for investigators is more extensive and more formal than that planned for a clerk; however, OCC has a training budget intended to ensure that all of its employees can participate in general training provided by the City's Department of Human Resources, in addition to any specialized training deemed necessary by management.

Conclusion: Recommendation 23 has been implemented.

Recommendation 35 - OCC should develop and present an annual outreach strategic plan to the Police Commission at an agreed-upon time. OCC should also develop tools for measuring the success of its outreach efforts.

CSA's 2009 audit field follow-up determined that OCC had developed a strategic outreach plan but had not developed a strategy for measuring the success of its outreach efforts. CSA now finds that OCC has established procedures for obtaining feedback with which to measure the success and effectiveness of its outreach efforts. These results are included in the quarterly reports that OCC submits to the Police Commission.

Conclusion: Recommendation 35 was implemented.

Recommendation 38 - The Police Commission should require OCC to regularly submit reports detailing its outreach activities and progress toward its strategic outreach goals for the year.

The Police Commission confirmed that OCC submits to the commission monthly, quarterly, and annual reports. Samples of these reports show that they contain information on OCC's outreach activities and on the progress that OCC has made toward its annual strategic outreach goals.

Conclusion: Recommendation 38 was implemented.

CSA extends its appreciation to you and your staff who assisted with this review. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at (415) 554-5393 or tonia.lediju@sfgov.org.

ATTACHMENT A: RECOMMENDATIONS AND FOLLOW-UP WORK

Recommendation	2011 Status per OCC	Auditor's Follow-up Work	Results
Recommendation 3 To better assist investigators in managing their caseloads, OCC should create consistent standards for case reviews and train senior investigators on them, including: (1) Establishing an investigation plan with timelines at the beginning of each investigation; (2) How often to review cases including overall timelines to ensure the nine-month guideline is met; (3) What items to check for in reviews and how to document them; and (4) What to document if investigators are not complying with senior investigator requests.	OCC has developed a standard notification letter known as the 270 -day letter to provide to SFPD notifying it when cases will take longer than nine months. OCC has developed a tracking system that keeps a record that SFPD was notified at the nine-month point. In 2009 17 percent of its 270-day letters were timely. In 2010 45 percent of its 270-day letters were timely. OCC has implemented tools in its investigator browser to show the age of a case in relation to 270 days.	Verified that OCC has developed a policy and procedures manual that covers all of the issues in this recommendation. Auditor obtained a hardcopy of the manual from OCC's chief investigator. Determined that these procedures have been incorporated into the investigators' performance plans. Reviewed a senior investigator's performance plan and found that it incorporates those procedures that relate to case reviews and to ensuring that investigators are, in fact, conducting investigations according to OCC's stated policies and procedures. Observed that OCC's senior investigators and management team have real-time electronic access to case summaries that can be reviewed at will.	Implemented.

Recommendation 8 To meet the notification requirements of Charter §4.127, OCC should: a. Develop a standard notification letter to send SFPD when cases will take longer than nine months. b. Develop a centralized system (using the case tracking system if practicable) to keep a record that SFPD was notified at the nine-month point for sustained cases taking more than nine months to close.	OCC has developed a standard notification letter known as the 270-day letter to provide to SFPD notifying it when cases will take longer than nine months. OCC has developed a tracking system that keeps a record that the SFPD was notified at the nine-month point. In 2009 17 percent of its 270-day letters were timely. Reviewed the 270-day letters issued in 2010 and 2011, along with a schedule listing all the 270 letters that were issued in 2010 and 2011. Verified data on schedule (i.e., date of complaint, date of 270-day letter, case number) by tracing to 270-day letters. Determined OCC's rate of compliance with notification deadline for 2010 and 2011 Determined if OCC has implemented a tracking system to keep a record of pending 270-day due dates for sustained cases.	Implemented.
Recommendation 16 SFPD should comply with the document protocol for responding to OCC requests for information and Administrative Code Chapter 96, "Coordination Between the Police Department and Office of Citizen Complaints."	OCC reports quarterly to the Police Commission about SFPD's compliance with OCC's document requests made pursuant to Police Commission Ordinance 44-03 (Protocol Between OCC and the SFPD re: Responding to Requests for Documents for OCC Investigations). OCC policy analyst routinely notifies SFPD when it is out of compliance with the document protocol.	Reviewed the status report on SFPD's compliance for 2010 and 2011, discussed SFPD's compliance with an OCC policy analyst, and reviewed SFPD's responses to this recommendation in 2007 and 2011. Although SFPD sometimes responds late to OCC's document requests and in a few cases denies them, these actions are allowed under certain conditions by the document protocol, and testing whether those conditions were met is beyond the	Implemented.

Recommendation 23 OCC should create and implement a strategic plan for the ongoing training needs of staff, maintaining recordkeeping that shows: a. The topics in which employees need training. b. What training employees already have and the date completed. c. Timing and funding for training sessions.	Yes, OCC has created a Strategic Training Plan for Investigators and maintains records of that training. The outreach efforts that will be undertaken during the year and the reason for the efforts. b. Strategies for reaching the targeted	In 2008 OCC developed its first Community Outreach Strategic Plan. Recommendation 38 The Police Commission should require OCC to make regular (e.g., quarterly or semiannual) reports to the Police Commission on: a. The outreach activities performed by OCC in the reporting period. b. OCC's progress toward its strategic outreach goals for the year.	Not applicable. Not responded to in 2011.	Reviewed the Police Commission's website. Found that commission meeting agendas regularly include presentation of periodic reports by OCC director. Agendas list monthly, quarterly, and annual reports. Examples of agenda items include: • Presentation of OCC's Strategic Plan • Presentation of a monthly report on OCC's outreach activities	Implemented.

Re: OCC Response to the Controller's May 3, 2012 Draft Memorandum on the Results of the Follow-up Review of Audit of the OCC

Dear Ms. Lediju,

This letter responds to the Controller's May 3, 2012 draft memorandum on the follow-up review of the January 27, 2007 audit of the OCC. The OCC appreciates the work of the City Services Auditor in evaluating OCC's progress toward achieving compliance with recommendations made in the Auditor's January 27, 2007 report on the operations of the Office of Citizen Complaints. We concur with your findings that the OCC has fully complied with the six recommendations you assessed.

My charge upon beginning my tenure as the Director of the Office of Citizen Complaints on November 26, 2007 was to implement the 38 recommendations contained in the January 27, 2007 City Services Auditor Division's report. I am pleased to advise you that with the hard work and dedication of the OCC staff over the past four years, we have implemented all but four of the recommendations or nearly 90% of them in spite of severe budget constraints. Two of the four remaining recommendations will be addressed as budget adjustments occur. Those two recommendations are 1) Auto prompt calendaring system for key deadlines and 2) Online complaint filing. These two recommendations will cost approximately $20,000 to implement. We have determined that the remaining two recommendations regarding formalized document protocol and training for City departments other than the Police Department are unnecessary because noncompliance is at a minimum.

While this round of audits did not assess the OCC's compliance with Recommendation number 2 in the 2007 audit report, it is important to address the OCC's challenges to comply with this recommendation as the recommendation underpins customer satisfaction with the OCC's work. Recommendation number 2 is to, "…aim to complete OCC investigations within 9 months and no later than 10 months." The OCC's lack of sufficient staffing continues to present challenges to achieving this goal.[1] In 2011, only 67% of cases were closed within nine months. The length of time to complete an investigation where one or more allegations were sustained was an average of 304 days. Only 22% of cases with one or more sustainable allegations were completed within nine months. Should the OCC receive a budget augmentation for personnel to increase its journey level investigator positions from 16 to 20 and to add a senior investigator, an attorney and an information technology business systems analyst, the OCC would have sufficient staffing to meet its goal of completing its investigations within 9 months or no later than 10 months.

Conclusion

In spite of staffing and budget challenges, the OCC will continue its implementation of the recommendations contained in the 2007 audit report to assist it in achieving its Charter mandate of conducting prompt, fair and unbiased investigations of civilian complaints of police misconduct and making policy recommendations of police policies and practice.

Sincerely

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director

CC: Mark Tipton

[1] In conducting the 2007 audit, the Controller concluded that a best practices caseload for investigators was 16 cases. OCC investigators have had caseloads of nearly 40 cases and now on average 23 cases, largely due to a 20% decline in complaint filing since 2009. Based on 350 pending cases, the OCC would need four additional journey level investigators to attain caseloads of 16. Higher than best practices caseloads continue to be a challenge for the OCC's goal of promptly completing investigations.

The OCC has also determined that its staff of four attorneys is understaffed by one and contributes to the length of time it takes to close investigations at several stages from sustainability reviews to policy and training failure analyses to reviewing sustained reports for form and legality. OCC attorneys additionally prosecute cases in Chief's hearings and before the Police Commission. An OCC attorney also manages the OCC's mediation and outreach program. In 2011, the legal unit prosecuted 27 cases, made 15 policy recommendations and facilitated 61 mediations.

The OCC is a data driven organization and its one information systems business analyst must maintain the OCC database, provide technical assistance to the OCC's 35-member staff, generate reports and manage the OCC's phones, computers, copiers, scanners and website. The OCC has determined that an additional information systems business analyst would provide the necessary support to maintain the OCC's systems.

Policy Recommendations – Second Quarter 2012

Case No.	Policy Issue	Policy Recommendation
1. Recommendation #1	Prohibit Officers' Use of Pass Keys To Enter a Premise Unless Constitutional Requirements Are Met.	The OCC concluded an investigation of an unnecessary force allegation that established that an officer responding to a noise complaint directed hotel staff to use a passkey to open the hotel room that was the subject of the noise complaint. The officer encountered a mentally ill occupant. The OCC recommended changes in Department's policy, procedure and training to address factors that contributed to this deadly force situation. The OCC recommended that the Department issue a Priority A bulletin (to be codified in a Department General Order) that: 1) identifies the lawful circumstances in which an officer may gain entry into a hotel room, apartment or residence by relying upon a landlord's or management's key; 2) explicitly prohibits officers from using a pass key to enter a premises unless constitutional requirements are met; and 3) refers to or includes Department Bulletin 11-134 requirement that officers obtain consent in writing by having the Permission to Search form signed before a search is conducted or orally via audio recording when requesting permission to search an individual's residence, including a hotel, motel or other domicile.

Case No.	Policy Issue	Policy Recommendation
1. (Continued) Recommendation #2	Enhance the Emergency Dispatch System to Include A Premise's Prior Mental Health Crisis Calls (Welfare & Institution Code section 5150) and Presence, Seizure and/or Return of Weapons.	The OCC investigation established that SFPD had responded previously to a mental health crisis call involving the same individual and location in which numerous weapons had been seized. The Department's Psychiatric Liaison unit had also been in contact with this individual about the return of weapons that officers had seized from his apartment. The officer did not have any information about the prior mental health crisis call and seizure of weapons when the officer responded to a noise complaint at the premises. The OCC recommends that the Department in conjunction with Department of Emergency Management develop a comprehensive system that enables officers responding to calls for service to obtain information about prior 5150 contacts of the involved parties and the prior presence, seizure and/or return of weapons.
1. (Continued) Recommendation #3	Prohibit Officers Under Criminal Or Administrative Investigation From Contacting Witnesses	The OCC investigation established that a crisis intervention response team (CIRT) officer arranged for an officer involved critical incident to meet with a civilian witness reportedly to provide emotional support to each other. This meeting occurred less than two weeks after the incident and during the time that the officer was the subject of administrative and criminal investigations. The OCC recommends that Department General Order 8.04 (Critical Incident Response Team) be amended to clarify the role, responsibilities and activities of CIRT members, especially when providing support services to officers who are the subject of a criminal or administrative investigation.

Case No.	Policy Issue	Policy Recommendation
2. Recommendation #1	Uniform Procedure to Document and Maintain All Attachments to Incident Reports.	The OCC received a complaint arising from a police-initiated psychiatric detention pursuant to Welfare and Institution Code section 5150. The Incident Report stated that the officer's application for the 72-hour involuntary psychiatric hold was booked into evidence. However, the Department could not locate in evidence the officer's application for a 72-hour involuntary psychiatric hold. The application for a 72-hour psychiatric hold was not attached to the Incident Report. Additionally, the officer's application for the 72-hour hold was not listed in the district station's Property Control log. Initially, this application was the sole record of this incident because the officer did not complete the Incident Report before the end of his watch. During the last five years there have been several occasions when the OCC has been unable to obtain documents from the Department that have been attached or are suppose to be attached to Incident Reports. The OCC recommends that the Department establish one uniform procedure for documenting and maintaining all attachments to Incident Reports.
2. (Continued) Recommendation #2	Amend DGO 6.14 (Psychological Evaluation of Adults) to Establish One Procedure for Documenting and Maintaining the Application for a 72-hour Involuntary Hold.	DGO 6.14 establishes the procedures for taking an adult into custody for a psychiatric evaluation. It requires the detaining officer to complete an application for a 72-hour involuntary psychiatric hold and to write an Incident Report. In cases where the detainee is either ill or injured, DGO 6.14 requires an officer to bring the detainee to a medical facility first, write an Incident Report and attach a copy of the 72-hour involuntary psychiatric evaluation to the Incident Report. (See DGO 6.14 (III) (F) (3), emphasis added.) In cases where the detainee does not require treatment at a medical facility first, DGO 6.14 does not state whether the detaining officer shall attach the 72-hour involuntary hold to the Incident Report or book the 72-hour hold into evidence. Both sergeants in the instant case stated that there was no uniform procedure for recording and preserving attachments. To avoid further confusion, the OCC recommends that DGO 6.14 be amended to establish one procedure for preserving a copy of the officer's 72-hour involuntary hold application and that this procedure apply regardless of whether the detainee requires medical assistance first and/or is criminally charged.

Case No.	Policy Issue	Policy Recommendation
2 (Continued) Recommendation #3	Amend DGO 1.04 (Duties of Sergeants) to Require Supervisor Confirmation That Evidence Listed as Booked Into Evidence In Incident Report Is Properly Booked and Such Evidence is Listed In the Station's Property Control Log.	The OCC received a complaint arising from a police-initiated psychiatric detention pursuant to Welfare and Institution Code section 5150. The investigation established that the officer did not complete the incident report before going off duty. The officer stated he had booked the 72-hour psychiatric detention application into evidence but he had not listed it in the district station's property control log. The Department could not locate the 72-hour hold application. The OCC recommends that DGO 1.04 (Duties of Sergeants) be amended to require that sergeants verify that property identified as booked into evidence in the Incident Report is documented in the station's property review log and booked into evidence, including when subordinates submit their incident reports after the completion of their watch.

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2012 Third Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2012 third quarter. This quarter the OCC received an adjusted total of 186 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 203 complaints this third quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 13 complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 6% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases which is also a 6% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS

A. Staffing

During this period, the OCC was staffed with 15 journey level investigators. We initiated a hiring process to fill two journey level investigator vacancies.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. San Francisco Police Lt. Carl Fabbri and representatives from the Violence Reduction Team conducted training on their work. Staff also viewed a screening of the documentary film, After Innocence, which documents the lives of "exonerated - innocent men wrongfully imprisoned for decades and then released after DNA evidence proved their innocence."

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2012 third quarter, the OCC opened 581 new cases with an adjusted total of 557 new cases, and closed 629 cases. During this period, the OCC closed 48 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 316 pending cases which are 114 less pending cases than the close of the third quarter in 2011. By the end of the 2012 third quarter there were 15 pending cases from 2011 and 301 pending cases from 2012.

In comparison, as of the end of the 2011 third quarter, the OCC opened 622 cases with an adjusted total of 594 new cases and closed 618 cases. During this period, the OCC closed four fewer cases than it opened. The OCC closed the third quarter of 2011 with 440 pending cases and by the end of the 2011 third quarter there were 19 pending cases from 2010 and 411 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

As with the second quarter of 2012, the third quarter 2012 case closure statistics showed the advantages of having more investigators; lower caseloads and more timely closures. During third quarter 2012, the OCC was staffed with 14 fully trained investigators and one who had just completed probation. The average caseload was 21 cases. However, during the second quarter of 2012, the OCC had 15 investigators and the average caseload was 19 cases per investigators. During the third quarter of 2011, the OCC had 12 investigators with an average caseload of 35 cases.

OCC investigators closed 203 cases in the third quarter of 2012. Eighty-three percent of the cases closed within nine months and only one case took more than a year to close. This is a marked improvement over third quarter 2011 when of the 202 cases closed, only 62% of them were closed within nine months and 5% of them (nine cases) took more than a year to close. In the third quarters of 2011 and 2012, none of the cases that took more than one year to close had sustainable allegations.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases was lower in the third quarter of 2012, compared to third quarter 2011; a 6 % sustained rate in 2012 and an 8% sustained rate in 2011. In the third quarter of 2012, the OCC sustained allegations in 13 cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased in the third quarter of 2012 compared to the third quarter of 2011. In the third quarter of 2012, 54% of sustained cases were completed within nine months. During the same period in 2011, 32% of the sustained cases were completed within nine months and all of them were completed within 365 days.

The impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Still larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[1] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the third quarter of 2012, the OCC sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 10 of the 13 sustained complaints. Five of these complaints with a sustained neglect of duty allegation, or 50% of them, contained a sustained allegation for failure to collect traffic stop data. This is a significant departure from the improvement in the second quarter when only one, or 8%, of the 11 cases which had a neglect of duty sustained allegation was sustained for failure to collect traffic stop data. The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional categories and cases for which allegations were sustained include:

1. Unwarranted action for detaining, handcuffing and searching the complainant without justification.
2. Neglect of duty for:
    a. Failure to include a date for a court appearance on a traffic citation.
    b. Failure to comply with Department General Order 6.09 which requires the officer to provide the victim of domestic violence with a Domestic Violence Resource Card and the CAD number documenting the incident.
    c. Failure to properly supervise a subordinate to require the subordinate to comply with Department General Order 6.09.
    d. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing.
    e. Failure to broadcast to DEM the police vehicle's ending mileage at the County Jail when transporting a female passenger.
    f. Failing to comply with Department General Order 5.04 by not completing an incident report when the officer determined there was no probable cause to take a person into custody based on a private person's request for an arrest.
3. Conduct reflecting discredit for:
    a. Ordering an alleged perpetrator of domestic violence to leave the house rather than arresting the alleged perpetrator.
    b. Pretending to videotape the complainant who was videotaping an interaction between officers and homeless persons and commenting to the officer's partner about having a YouTube account.

[1] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the third quarter of 2012 was 21 cases.

c. Harassing the complainant and misusing authority by requesting that DMV suspend the complainant's license after the complainant filed a complaint with the OCC.
d. Using profane language when detaining the complainant.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police she has two choices: 1) she can recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission or 2) after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief, if he declines her request she can file charges on her own with the Police Commission. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline he may impose. During the third quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated 12 OCC sustained cases as follows:[2]

1. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant. The officer was admonished.

2. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer received a written reprimand.

3. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer asserted that the Department Bulletin for traffic stop data was permissive and not mandatory for suspicious person stops. In the incident report, the officer classified the stop as a traffic stop for defective brake lights. The case was deemed a policy failure by Chief Suhr and he issued a new department bulletin removing the exception by changing the permissive language to mandatory for the collection of traffic stop data for suspicious person high risk vehicle stops and DUIs.

4. Unwarranted Action – a sergeant detained, handcuffed and searched the complainant without justification. The sergeant was admonished.

5. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

6. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

[2] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this third quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this third quarter.

7. Neglect of Duty – on a domestic violence call, a sergeant failed to properly supervise and made an unauthorized order for the husband to leave the residence instead of arresting the husband. An officer failed to comply with Department General Order 6.09 by failing to document the incident which he determined to be verbal only and that no crime was committed. The officer was required to give the complainant a Domestic Violence Referral Card and the CAD number and did not. The sergeant received a written reprimand and the officer was admonished.

8. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer received a written reprimand.

9. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant. The officer was admonished.

10. Conduct Reflecting Discredit – an officer used her personal cell phone to videotape the complainant who was videotaping the officer and other officers engaging in an enforcement action against homeless campers on a sidewalk. The complainant alleged the officer stood within two feet of the complainant and the officer commented that she had a YouTube account. The complainant felt the officer was trying to intimidate him and that the officer would post the complainant's picture on YouTube. The officer was admonished.

11. Conduct Reflecting Discredit and Neglect of Duty – an officer engaged in conduct unbecoming of an officer by telling the complainant that he felt sorry for her boyfriend because the complainant was upset about receiving a moving violation for driving the wrong way down a one way street and blamed her boyfriend. The officer also failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

12. Conduct Reflecting Discredit and Neglect of Duty – an officer engaged in neglect of duty for failure to comply with DMV regulations, abuse of authority and harassment in retaliation for the complainant contesting a moving violation and filing a complaint with the OCC. Chief Suhr has filed charges with the Police Commission.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Occupy SF

San Francisco's Occupy movement generated ten complaints from twenty-two complainants in 2011. An additional complaint was filed in the first quarter of 2012 and mediated during the first quarter. Allegations in these complaints include unnecessary force, failure to provide medical attention, unwarranted seizure of property, interference with the rights of onlookers, violation of DGO 8.10 (First Amendment Guidelines), issuing invalid orders, unwarranted handcuffing, detention, citation and arrest, failure to provide medical attention, selective enforcement and biased policing. In 2011, two complaints were closed, one with proper conduct findings and the other with both not sustained and proper conduct findings. As of the third quarter, eight of the complaints remained under investigation. These eight complaints were merged into three complaints that are still under investigation.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

In 2011, three complaints were filed involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remained open through the third quarter pending investigations by other government agencies.

C. Officer Involved Shootings

During the third quarter of 2012, a complaint was filed in an officer involved shooting that did not result in the death of the suspect. During the third quarter the OCC had five open officer involved shootings, four resulted in the death of the suspect.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2012 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2011 cases and by the end of the 2012 third quarter staff had closed 90% of its 2011 cases, leaving 10% or 76 of the 2011 cases pending. In comparison to 2011, by the end of the 2011 third quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2010 cases, and had closed 86% of them, leaving 14% or 118 of the 2010 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigators' caseloads as of September 30, 2012 show a significant decrease from the same period in 2011. This decrease is attributable to a significant increase in the number of journey level investigators, 14 at the close of the third quarter in 2012 and 12 at the close of the third quarter in 2011. The average caseload as of September 30, 2012 was 21 cases per investigator. As of September 30, 2011, the average caseload was 31 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads, reassigning cases to adjust for imbalanced caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

During the third quarter of 2012, the Legal Unit functioned with its full complement of attorneys. The Legal Unit's two trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During the third quarter, the Legal Unit did not present any Chief's Hearings, but expects to schedule pending matters involving two officers during the fourth quarter. As to Police Commission cases, the Legal Unit obtained the Police Commission's approval of a settlement imposing a 30-day suspension on an officer.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys and policy analyst attorney also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and is deemed sustainable. During the third quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised and submitted 13 sustained reports, each of which involved multiple allegations.

VIII. MEDIATION

In the third quarter the OCC completed 15 mediations as compared to twelve in 2011. At the end of the third quarter, the OCC had mediated 48 cases compared to 45 in 2011.

During the third quarter, a total of 43 officers were considered for mediation. Seven of those officers or 16% were ineligible. Of the officers who were offered mediation, only three, or 8% declined. Of 30 citizens offered mediation, 18 or 60% agreed to mediate.

In September, the San Francisco Giants, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Officers Association and Community Boards, saluted Bay Area volunteer mediators at a game held on September 22nd. Thomas Klitgaard, a veteran OCC mediator, represented the OCC Mediation Program in a ceremony at home plate.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, and also serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the third quarter of 2012, the OCC engaged in the following outreach activities:

- Director Hicks and Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar gave a presentation to the Alliance for a Better District 6 and answered questions about the functions of the OCC. OCC representatives staffed tables at the National Night Out festivities in the Bayview and Western Addition. The Director and Senior Investigators visited the National Night Out observations in four districts.

- OCC staffed information booths at the Bayview Homeless Connect, the Tenderloin Resource Fair, the Oceanside/Merced/Ingleside United Festival, Back-to-School events in the Bayview and Western Addition Neighborhoods, and "Language Matters," an event promoting language access for San Francisco City Agencies.

- OCC met with the Executive Director of the Council of American Islamic Relations (CAIR) to discuss future OCC-CAIR collaborations.

- On September 20, 2012 Executive Director Hicks and Policy Analyst Marion participated in the Human Rights Commission's roundtable discussion on the use of condoms as evidence in prosecuting prostitution related cases.

- The OCC Mediation Coordinator, Donna Salazar, staffed the Community Clubhouse at the above mentioned Giant's salute to volunteer mediators and distributed information about mediation resources in the bay area and at the OCC.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

During the third quarter the OCC met with the Department to address policy recommendations arising from the OCC's investigation of an unnecessary force complaint involving a mentally ill individual. These discussions resulted in the issuance of two San Francisco Police Department Bulletins. Department Bulletin 12-142 prohibits officers from using passkeys to enter single room occupancy hotels or other premises unless constitutional requirements are fulfilled. Department Bulletin 12-145 prohibits officers who are the subject of criminal or administrative investigations from talking to witnesses or victims.

The OCC also continued its language access work with the Department and community stakeholders to address concerns that domestic violence victims raised during this Commission's hearings on December 7, 2011 and February 1, 2012. Among several projects, the OCC is working with the Department on a roll call video training that will address language barriers and dominant aggressor issues in domestic violence incidents. The OCC is also working with the Department to improve report-taking procedures of limited English proficient (LEP) victims at the district stations.

Last, the OCC met with the Department to finalize revisions to the pursuit policy (DGO 5.05.).

XI. CONCLUSION

While the OCC does not face the severe constraints with its investigator staffing that it did in the previous four years, the OCC still faces staffing shortages on its legal and information technology teams for the upcoming year. These shortages could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to promptly, fairly and impartially investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Policy Recommendations – Third Quarter 2012

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0487-11	Failure to follow proper procedures required by DGO 5.20 (Language Access Services)	An officer stopped the complainant and his partner, tourists from Germany, in their rental car for illegally driving in a bus lane. The complainant reported that the officer yelled at his partner (the driver), to face and speak to only him, asked if there were drugs in the car, and did not understand that although the driver may have looked African-American in appearance, he was German, and spoke and understood very little English. The OCC concluded that the officer's conduct was the result of a policy failure and recommended that SFPD issue a Department Bulletin on common indicators that language services are necessary and factors that hinder effective communication with an LEP person. Specific to this case, the OCC recommended that the Department Bulletin instruct that "[s]omeone may appear to speak one language, but may actually speak another. For example, Spanish may not be the primary language for some people from Central and South America. Someone appearing African American may be from Africa, the Caribbean, Europe, or elsewhere and not speak English well." The OCC also recommended that the Department Bulletin's explanation of common indicators that language assistance is necessary include: 1) the individual requests an interpreter or translator; 2) the individual switches from English into another language or mixes English with another language; 3) dispatch used Language Line Services (or bilingual staff) to obtain information from the 911 caller; 4) the individual speaks in fragmented or incomplete sentences and uses English words incorrectly, relies upon incorrect verb tenses or speaks in the present tense even when needing to describe past or future events; 5) the individual's response to open-ended questions indicates a limited ability to understand the question or to communicate in English (i.e. the individual answers, "yes or no" to questions that require an explanation.); 6) the individual's facial or body gestures indicate the individual is having difficulty understanding or communicating in English; and 7) the individual responds physically to simple verbal commands (i.e. hand me your driver's license); however any of the aforementioned common indicators are also present. The Department incorporated the OCC's suggested recommendations into Department Bulletin 12-132 that was issued on June 26, 2012.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0042-12	Unwarranted action for issuing an invalid order to vacate the premises	The complainant called the police when the individual from whom he had subleased an apartment for thirty days demanded the complainant to vacate the apartment after two weeks. The responding officer in consultation with a supervisor concluded the complainant was trespassing and ordered the complainant to vacate the premises. The supervisor's and subordinate's actions incorrectly assumed a criminal violation had occurred that permitted police intervention. The evidence established that the individual and the complainant had entered into a written agreement for sublease of the apartment and that the complainant was not a trespasser but instead was a tenant who could only be removed through an unlawful detainer action. The OCC recommended that the Department enhance its training and written materials on police procedures regarding landlord tenant disputes to include sublease disputes and the distinction between civil and criminal violations.

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2013 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 147 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 174 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in seven complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 4% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is a 7% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

The OCC began continued training one new 8124 (journey level) investigator during the first quarter. During this period, 13 journey level investigators staffed the OCC because two investigators began extended leaves of absence. Also during the first quarter, Chief Investigator, Charles Gallman retired after twenty-four years of service. Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar assumed the Chief Investigator position in acting status.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In February, the SFPD Director of Technology, Sue Giffin, informed the investigators about SFPD's technology initiatives including the implementation of a search engine, the Crime Data Warehouse.

C. Budget

After consideration by the San Francisco Police Commission, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor's Office during the first quarter on February 21, 2013. The Mayor's Office's 2013/2014 and 2014/2015 budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2013/2014 and 2014/2015 with a 1.5% reduction of general fund support for each budget year. For these reductions, the OCC's targets were $39, 308 for 2013/2014 and $39, 308 for 2014/2015.

The OCC's fiscal year 2012/2013 baseline budget of $4,602,850.00 included $4,114,464.00 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprised 89% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs funded 34.75 positions. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $488,386, was for operations. Of this operations amount, the OCC paid $307,132 or 63% to the City to rent the OCC's office at 25 Van Ness Avenue.

To meet the 1.5% budget reduction target of $39, 308 in both 2013/2014 and 2014/2015, for a total of $78,616, the OCC proposed to eliminate a vacant investigator (8124) position. This would reduce journey level investigators to 16. The salary plus fringe benefits of an 8124 journey level investigator position is $124,135. The OCC proposed to use the savings to help fund the purchase of two hybrid vehicles as both of its two cars are 14 years old and pursuant to City policy, were required to be retired by 2015.

The Mayor's proposed budget was scheduled for release to the Board of Supervisors on May 31, 2013 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2013.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2013 first quarter, the OCC opened 151 new cases, and closed 174 cases. During this period, the OCC closed 27 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 284 pending cases, which are 81 less pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2012. By the end of the 2013 first quarter, there were 119 pending cases from 2013, 161 pending cases from 2012 and 4 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

A 25% decrease in complaints filed the first quarter of 2013 versus the first quarter of 2012 resulted in a lower average caseload, 20 cases per investigator versus 23 cases per investigator. The average number of days to close cases was reduced by 13% from 187 to 162. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During first quarter of 2013, OCC investigators closed 174 cases with 85% of them closing within 270 days and only two of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is an improvement over 2012 where of the 200 cases closed, 73% of them were closed within nine months.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases declined in the first quarter of 2013, compared to the first quarter of 2012; a 4% sustained rate in 2013 and a 6.5% sustained rate in 2012. In the first quarter of 2013, the OCC sustained allegations in seven cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased for the first quarter of 2013 compared to the first quarter of 2012 by 7%. In the first quarter of 2013, 57% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after its receipt. In the first quarter of 2012, 46% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after receipt.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[1] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the first quarter of 2013, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in six of the seven sustained complaints, or 86% of them. Two of these six complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or one third of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 29% of all sustained complaints the first quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[2] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

[1] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the first quarter of 2012 was 23 cases.

[2] Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and the Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

Additional allegations sustained include:

1. Conduct reflecting discredit and discourtesy for using profane language and punishing the complainant by making him sit down and return to the end of the line.
2. Neglect of duty for:
    a. Failure to advise Dispatch of a traffic stop.
    b. Failure to promptly and courteously advise the complainant of the officer's name and star number in violation of Department General Order 2.01
    c. Failure to prepare an incident report in violation of Department General Order 2.01.
    d. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant in violation of Department General Order 5.03.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated four OCC sustained cases as follows:[3]

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of the San Francisco Police Department Field Training Manual, March 2010 edition, while conducting a traffic stop, the officer failed to notify Dispatch. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department Bulletin 11-097, San Francisco Police Department traffic stop data collection policy, while conducting a traffic stop of a bicyclist for running a red light, the officer failed to collect traffic stop data. Chief Suhr disagreed with the OCC's sustained finding and instead found a Policy Failure because SFPD's stop data collection policy specifically refers to vehicles, not bicycles. This case demonstrates the constraints of SFPD's traffic stop data collection policy since it can be narrowly interpreted to apply only to vehicles. Other jurisdictions have broader stop data collection requirements that apply to all stops, not just traffic stops. The officer was not disciplined, as the finding was Policy Failure.

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of San Francisco Police Department traffic stop data collection policy, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data when conducting a traffic stop. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department General Order number 2.01, paragraph 14, Public Courtesy, an officer failed to promptly and politely provide his name and star number upon the complainant's request. The officer instead told the complainant the complainant could find the information on the citation. The officer was admonished.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

During the first quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remain open pending action by federal authorities

B. Officer Involved Shootings

Five officer-involved shootings were under investigation during the first quarter. Four of these shootings resulted in the death of the suspect. The OCC received one of these complaints in the first quarter of 2013. Two others were filed in 2012 and two were filed in 2011.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2013 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2012 cases and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2012 cases pending. These statistics are identical to the end of the 2012 first quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2011 cases, and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2011 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigator caseload as of March 31, 2013 shows a slight decrease from the same period in 2012. This decrease is attributable to a 25% decrease in the number of cases filed first quarter 2013 compared to first quarter 2012. The number of journey level investigators, 13 at the close of the first quarter in 2013 would have contributed to an increased caseload in the first quarter of 2013 had the number of cases filed been greater. The average caseload as of March 31, 2013 was 20 cases per investigator. As of March 31, 2012, the average caseload was 23 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit. Ines Vargas Fraenkel leads the Legal Unit. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VIII and IX of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section X. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this first quarter, the Legal Unit presented one hearing at the Chief's Hearing level. One of the cases involved an appeal of discipline that had been argued and determined at the Chief's Hearing level. The matter was concluded when the officer decided to withdraw his appeal.

In the other case, the Legal Unit handled a Case Management Conference as well as a Settlement Conference. A resolution was reached during the Settlement Conference pending Police Commission approval. The OCC recommend that the Commission approve a settlement of the imposition of 15-days suspension on the officer, as well as transfer from his current assignment. The proposed settlement was presented to the Police Commission in Closed Session for consideration by the Commission during the second quarter.

Two Police Commission cases were in the Legal Unit's inventory first quarter.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the first quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted seven sustained reports, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VIII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2013, the OCC mediated twelve cases compared to thirteen cases in the first quarter of 2012, which is a slight mediation rate increase, 6.8% over 2012 first quarter, which was 6.5%.

In early March, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator attended the Alternative Dispute Resolution of Northern California conference. At the conference, the OCC Mediation Coordinator was presented with the President's Award for excellence and outstanding contributions to mediation and community building. In February, the Mediation Coordinator addressed a class at Community Boards mediation training.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2013, the OCC was engaged in several outreach activities. On January 30, 2013, Director Joyce Hicks presented the OCC's 2013 Community Outreach Strategic plan to the Police Commission. In January and February, Director Hicks and Staff Attorneys Marion and Fortes attended community meetings addressing the proposed use of Tasers in the Taraval, Northern, and Bayview Districts. Director Hicks made presentations about the OCC's services during Police Commission community meetings held in the Northern District in February and the Mission District in March.

During the first quarter, Director Hicks also attended a community meeting convened by the BART Independent Police Auditor. The Director, who sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE), attended a mid-winter meeting to finalize scheduling the 2013 Conference to be held in Salt Lake City, Utah from September 22 through September 26, 2013.

Staff Attorney Samara Marion addressed the Domestic Violence Consortium in January and Acting Deputy Director Baltazar and Acting Senior Investigator Hall addressed recruits at the San Francisco Police Academy in March. During this quarter, the OCC staffed informational tables at one Operation Homeless Connect event and the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth, and Families.

Additionally, OCC staff provided brochures and complaint forms to the Ella Hill Hutch Community Center, the African American Cultural Center, the Buchanan YMCA, Richmond, Young Community Developers as well as the Richmond, Ingleside, Taraval, Northern and Park District Police Stations.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the first quarter 2013, the OCC continued to advance its policy projects in the areas of language access, use of force, and vehicle pursuits.

The OCC commenced the new year by continuing its work on language access projects that address concerns that domestic violence victims raised during the Police Commission's hearings on December 7, 2011 and February 1, 2012. During both hearings, advocates for domestic violence victims talked about instances in which language barriers compromised the accuracy of incident reports and the quality of police assistance. To enhance report taking at the district stations, the OCC assisted in the drafting of a multi-lingual informational card for Police Service Aides (PSA) to use with Limited English Proficient (LEP) crime victims. This card explains that Police Service Aides are not authorized to take certain types of reports and informs LEP individuals that their report will be taken as soon as an officer and language assistance are available. As recommended by the OCC, the Department announced the purpose and distribution of these informational cards in a Department Bulletin and began language access training for PSAs. The OCC also continued its work on several other language access projects including a language access roll call training video, a communications system that identifies in real time the availability of bilingual officers to respond to calls, and increased certification opportunities for bilingual officers and civilians.

The OCC also worked on completing two other policy priorities: use of force incidents involving complaints of pain and vehicle pursuits. In 2011, the OCC recommended that the Department's use of force reporting and investigation procedures include incidents when an individual complains of pain that persists beyond the officer's original physical control hold. The OCC had investigated complaints in which the officers' use of force resulted in pain but not a visible injury (i.e. the complainant's fractured wrist or injured shoulder was not visible to the naked eye though the individuals complained of pain to the officers at the time.) Yearlong discussions have culminated in the Department's recently proposed Department Bulletin that, once issued, will resolve the OCC's policy recommendation.

Last, the OCC reviewed and concurred with the Department's March 2013 proposed revisions to the Department's 1997 pursuit policy. Since 2007, the OCC has discussed and suggested revisions to the Department's pursuit policy that are consistent with best practices and would enhance both officer and public safety.

XI. CONCLUSION

As in the past five years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays, however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2013 Second Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2013 second quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 186 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 176 complaints in the second quarter. Between January 1, and June 20, 2013, the OCC opened an adjusted total of 332 complaints and closed 350 complaints. In the second quarter it sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in seven complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 4% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is a 7% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

During this period, 13 journey level investigators staffed the OCC because two investigators were on extended leaves of absence and one new investigator was in training.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In May, the OCC staff watched the movie, Heroes Behind the Badge, to develop an understanding of officers' risks in critical incidents.

C. Budget

The Mayor released the 2013/2014 budget to the Board of Supervisors on May 31, 2013 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2013. The Mayor's proposed budget enhanced the OCC's 2012/2013 baseline budget of $4,602,850.00 to provide for increased overhead cost and it also provided funding to replace the OCC's two 14-year old cars. The Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee held budget hearings for the Public Safety Departments on June 19 and June 26. The Committee recommended that the OCC's cars be neither replaced nor retired because in spite of their old age, the mileage was low. Additionally, the Committee recommended budget reduction equal to a three months attrition savings for the vacant Deputy Director/Chief Investigator position because the Director did not anticipate filling it until August.

D. Technology

The OCC Information Systems Business Analyst, Chris Wisniewski, continues to work on two significant technology projects, the first will enhance the OCC's customer service for complainants, online complaint filing, and the second, an auto-prompt system that will enhance investigator case management by leveraging static data in OCC databases to automatically deliver reminder prompts to investigators as cases near deadlines. While with the assistance of an outside developer, the OCC has made significant progress on the online complaint filing project, challenges have included whether the website will be hosted internally or externally with a final resolution of internal hosting through the Department of Technology for security purposes. Chris Wisniewski is developing the auto-prompt system without the assistance of a developer. The estimated time for completion on both these projects is December 2013.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2013 second quarter, the OCC opened 332 new cases, and closed 350 cases. During this six-month period, the OCC closed 18 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 299 pending cases, which are 26 less pending cases than the close of the second quarter in 2012. By the end of the 2013 second quarter, there were 236 pending cases from 2013, 61 pending cases from 2012 and 2 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

A 14% decrease in available investigators the second quarter of 2013[1] versus the second quarter of 2012 resulted in a higher average caseload, 21 cases per investigator versus 19 cases per investigator. The average number of days to close cases increased 6% from 161 to 172. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the second quarter of 2013, OCC investigators closed 176 cases with 79% of them closing within 270 days and only three took more than a year to close.[2] This is similar to the second quarter of 2012 where of the 227 cases closed, 78% of them were closed within nine months.

[1] Two OCC investigators were on extended leave, another was a new employee without a caseload, and one 8124 position was left vacant due to budget shortfalls for staff salaries.

C. Sustained Cases

The sustained rate was four percent for the second quarter of 2013 and five percent for the second quarter of 2012. In the second quarter of 2013, the OCC sustained allegations in seven cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased by 9% for the second quarter of 2013 compared to the second quarter of 2012. In the second quarter of 2013, the percentage of sustained cases completed within nine months increased to 71% compared to 16% in the second quarter of 2012. In the second quarter of 2013, all sustained cases were completed within 365 days compared to one sustained case completed more than 365 days after its receipt in the second quarter of 2012.[3]

As with previous quarters, the ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[4] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the second quarter of 2013, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in six of the seven sustained complaints, or 86% of them. One of these six complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or 17% of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 14% of all sustained complaints the second quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[5] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

[2] None of the cases had sustainable allegations.

[3] The statute of limitations was tolled while a criminal investigation was pending so the completion of the investigation past 365 days did not preclude discipline.

[4] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC investigators' caseloads during the second quarter of 2013 averaged 21 cases.

Additional allegations sustained include:

1. Conduct reflecting discredit for incorrectly telling a mother that if the mother were arrested her four-year old child would be taken into custody by Child Protective Services, when SFPD's policy is to release children to the noncustodial parent. Additional inappropriate comments included telling the mother that her 8-year old son, also a suspect, could go to jail, when SFPD's policy is to refer children younger than 11 years to Child Protective Services.
2. Neglect of duty for:
    a. Failure to advise Dispatch of the officer's location and a detention of a person resulting from an on-view theft of recyclables.
    b. Failure to comply with Department General Order 5.20 when interacting with a limited English proficient Spanish speaker.
    c. Providing incomplete Miranda admonitions to two juvenile suspects.
    d. Failure to obtain a waiver from two juvenile suspects that they understood and waived their Miranda rights.
    e. Failure to advise the juveniles' father that he could be present during the questioning.
    f. Failure to comply with Department General Order 7.01 when arresting a juvenile by ordering that he be taken to the district station instead of contacting the probation officer at the Community Assessment and Referral Center who would have determined whether the juvenile should be booked at the Juvenile Justice Center, cited to CARC or to Juvenile Court.
    g. Failure to supervise subordinates on the application of Department General Order 5.20 (Language Access) and by allowing a subordinate to threaten a mother in contravention of the Department's policy on the release of juveniles to noncustodial parents.
    h. Misplacing an arrestee's identification card.
    i. Failing to provide a court date on a citation.
    j. On at least two occasions, parking a marked police vehicle in the bicycle lane in front of Fox Plaza when attending a nonemergency meeting.
3. Unwarranted Action
    a. Unlawfully entering a residence
    b. Damaging property by kicking in a door during an unlawful entry
    c. Arrest without cause
4. Unnecessary Force

    After unlawfully entering a residence, and without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, grabbing, detaining and pulling a juvenile outside his home and taking him to the ground.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the second quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated nine OCC sustained cases as follows:[6]

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department General Orders 1.03, Attention to Duty and 2.01, On-Duty Written Reports and the SFPD Report Writing Manual, an officer failed to prepare an incident report after the complainant advised the officer that the complainant had been punched on a Muni bus. The bus driver reported the alleged assault to Dispatch. The officer advised that he did not prepare an incident report because the complainant left the scene before the officer finished interviewing him. The officer was provided sufficient information to prepare a report. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department General Order 5.03, an officer failed to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing the complainant. The officer was admonished.

- Discourtesy and Conduct Reflection Discredit – in violation of Department General Order number 2.01, paragraphs 9 and 14, Misconduct and Public Courtesy, sergeant used uncivil language when the complainant requested assistance. The sergeant was suspended.

- Neglect of Duty – during contact with an elderly woman whom a sergeant observed removing recyclables, the sergeant failed to remain in constant radio contact with Dispatch in violation of Department General Order 1.04, A., 4. The sergeant was admonished

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of San Francisco Police Department Bulletin 12-088 and Vehicle Code section 40500 (a) an officer failed to provide an appearance date on a citation. The officer was admonished.

[6] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this second quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this second quarter.

- Unwarranted Action and Unnecessary Force – A sergeant and officers engaged in an unlawful warrantless residential entry, unlawful arrests, and used unnecessary force when they entered the complainant's private residence in pursuit of an individual whom the sergeant and officers suspected of a homicide committed three weeks earlier. The entry into the complainant's home lacked both probable cause and an exigency. The sergeant and the officers violated Department General Orders 5.03, A. Reasonable Suspicion, 2.01, Maintaining Knowledge, 5.16, Obtaining Search Warrants and the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution. The sergeant was suspended and the officers were admonished.

- Neglect of Duty, Failure to Take Action and Conduct Unbecoming – During a bicycle theft sting, a sergeant and officers violated Department General Orders 7.01, Interactions with Juveniles, 5.20, Language Access, Rules of Conduct, 2.01, and 1.04, Duties of Sergeants, and state and federal law. The sergeant provided incomplete Miranda admonitions to the two juvenile suspects by failing to inform them that if they could not afford an attorney one would be appointed free of charge before any questioning. The sergeant also failed to obtain a waiver that the juveniles understood and waived their Miranda rights. The sergeant failed to advise the juveniles' father that he could be present during the police questioning. The sergeant also told the 8-year old suspect he could be taken to jail which is contrary to Department General Order 7.01 that specifically requires children under the age of eleven suspected of criminal wrong-doing be brought to Child Protective Services. The sergeant also failed to obtain an interpreter when conversing with the juveniles' mother. Finally, the sergeant failed to follow post-arrest procedures for a juvenile. Department General Order 7.01 establishes that officers should avoid bringing juveniles to the district station. DGO 7.01, Department Bulletin 10-220, and SFPD Form 531 instruct officers that upon the arrest of a juvenile, officers shall phone the probation officer at the Community Assessment and Referral Center (CARC) who will determine whether the juvenile should be booked at the Juvenile Justice Center, cited to CARC, or cited to Juvenile Court. The sergeant instead ordered the sergeant's subordinates to transport the juvenile to the district station. The sergeant also failed to supervise subordinates by failing to require them to comply with the Department's language access and juvenile protocols and misrepresenting the Department's policy concerning the arrested parent's right to choose the placement of her child.

  An officer made inappropriate comments by misstating the Department's policy on placement of an arrested mother's child by threatening to have her four-year old sent to Child Protective Services instead of placing her in the custody of her father, who was neither a suspect nor present during the sting. An officer also failed to obtain an interpreter for the mother who was a Spanish speaker. An officer who was not certified to speak Spanish serviced as an interpreter in violation of Department policies and an officer failed to note in the incident report that the complainant's primary language was Spanish. The sergeant and officers were admonished.

- Neglect of Duty –In violation of Department General Order 6.15 an officer failed to process property properly by misplacing the complainant's identification card during the arrest and booking process. Once the officer received notice of the complaint, the officer located the card and returned it to the complainant. The complainant was without his identification card for almost seven weeks. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was suspended.[7]

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

During the second quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remain open pending action by federal authorities

B. Officer Involved Shootings

The OCC investigated five officer-involved shootings during the second quarter. Four of these shootings resulted in the death of the suspect. At the end of the second quarter, the OCC continued to investigate three officer-involved shootings. During the second quarter, the OCC closed two officer-involved shootings with no sustainable allegations but in one case made several policy recommendations.

[7] Previous offenses related to failure to collect traffic stop data by this officer resulted in Police Commission charges. The officer settled four cases (two included in the charges and two that were pending at the Chief's level) with the Police Commission. The Police Commission approved a settlement of 30-days suspension on August 1, 2012. This case involves the same type of violation but this new violation occurred after the imposition of discipline from the previous cases.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2013 second quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2012 cases and had closed 92% of them, leaving 8% of the 2012 cases pending. These statistics are similar to the end of the 2012 second quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2011 cases, and had closed 90% of them, leaving 10% of the 2011 cases pending. For complaints filed in 2013, by the end of the second quarter, the OCC had closed 31% of them, intake was in process for 6% of them and there were 217 pending cases or 63% of them. By the end of the second quarter 2012, the case status statistics for cases filed that year were similar to the 2013 statistics.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigator caseload as of June 20, 2013 shows a slight increase from the same period in 2012. The number of journey level investigators, 13 at the close of the second quarter in 2013 contributed to an increased caseload in the second quarter of 2013. Unlike the first quarter of 2013, which showed a 25% decrease in case filings over the first quarter of 2012, the rate of case filings increased in the 2013 second quarter with a 12% decrease in case filings compared to the second quarter 2012. The average caseload as of June 30, 2013, was 21 cases per investigator. As of June 30, 2012, the average caseload was 19 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Deputy Director/Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit. Ines Vargas Fraenkel leads the Legal Unit. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VIII and IX of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section X. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police proposed revisions to the Department's pursuit policy placed more decision-making authority in the hands of the pursuit supervisor and are important features of the revised policy.

XI. CONCLUSION

As during the past five years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays, however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

responders to mental health crisis calls and to also include the Department's philosophy and procedures for handling encounters with mentally ill persons in crisis.

8. Implement the Department's 2011 obligation to design a data collection system to review and evaluate mental health crisis calls and SFPD's responses to such incidents.

9. Amend the Department's officer-involved shooting procedures to include the Chief's designation of an on-site commander to act as a liaison between the Department and the family of the individual injured or killed and also between the Department and the community.[9] This commander's responsibilities shall include:

    - providing timely information to the family of the individual who was shot;
    - notifying the Department of Public Health (or other relevant Department) for immediate or follow-up crisis support services for impacted individuals such as family members of the individual who was shot, witnesses, and bystanders;
    - obtaining language assistance for involved or impacted individuals whom the Department is interviewing in relation to this event; and
    - identifying and addressing community concerns about the incident and the investigative process through community meetings, press releases, media briefing, and other relevant means.

The OCC completed two other policy projects this quarter. In April 2013, the Police Department issued Department Bulletin 13-067, "Use of Force Options: Reporting and Medical Assessment Requirements." This Department Bulletin implements the OCC's recommendation that the Department's use of force reporting and investigation procedures should include incidents when an individual complains of pain that persists beyond the officer's original physical control hold.

Last, on June 26, 2013, the Police Commission unanimously adopted revisions to Department General Order 5.05, the Department's pursuit policy. The OCC's

[9] On August 11, 2004 pursuant to Resolution 82-04, the Police Commission conditionally adopted OCC's policy recommendation that the Department assign and provide training to a SFPD liaison to families whose members had been killed during an officer-involved shooting, in-custody death or pursuit. The Police Commission directed the Chief of Police to prepare changes to the Department's General Orders for Commission approval as necessary to implement this OCC recommendation. Changes to the Department's General Orders to implement the OCC's policy recommendation concerning the role, responsibilities, and training of the SFPD liaison officer are still outstanding.

3. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to include more specific use of force finding categories including training failure, policy failure, supervision failure, tactical debrief and administrative disapproval.

4. Require a sergeant or officer of higher rank to respond to any call involving an armed subject. Develop a protocol with the Department of Emergency Management so that dispatchers immediately notify a sergeant or officer of higher rank when the dispatch receives a call concerning an armed subject.

5. Immediately implement scenario-based training that addresses de-escalation and decision-making tactics for encounters with emotionally disturbed individuals with bladed weapons. A significant number of the Department's officer-involved shootings have involved emotionally disturbed individuals with bladed weapons. As police leaders recently acknowledged, these cases are particularly challenging because of the difficulty in assessing the level of danger. Individuals in crisis may appear threatening or uncooperative when in fact they are unable to understand an officer's questions or orders. Confrontational tactics such as boxing a suspect in or making direct eye contact can actually escalate the situation and pose a greater safety risk to the officer.[8]

   Since 2010, the OCC has recommended that the Department's subject matter experts in patrol procedures, tactics, and behavioral health review the Department's officer-involved shooting incidents involving mentally ill individuals to develop training that addresses these high risks calls. This scenario-based training should require officers to make split second decisions about best tactics, including whether it is tactically prudent to apprehend or contain an emotionally disturbed individual with a bladed weapon. Issues of de-escalation tactics, tactical planning, communication, coordination, assessment of threat, officer-safety, and use of force options should be integrated throughout this training.

6. Develop with the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) a list of questions dispatchers will ask to determine whether the call involves an individual with a mental illness and to obtain key information about the individual's mental illness.

7. Revise Department General Orders 6.14, 8.02, 8.01 to establish written protocols for the Department's Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) program, including its procedures for training and dispatching CIT officers as first dispatchers to immediately identify the location and availability of bilingual officers to respond to LEP calls for service. The OCC researched communication systems and met with numerous staff from SFPD and the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) to explore how to incorporate this capability. Beginning in February 2012, the OCC held monthly meetings with representatives from SFPD, DEM, the District Attorney's Office, and domestic violence and language advocates to collaborate on language access projects, including an enhanced communications system. During the first quarter of 2013, SFPD provided the Department of Emergency Management the necessary data to identify officers with specialized skills such as bilingual abilities, Crisis Intervention Team training, and Hostage and Negotiation Team certification. In April 2013, following the training of all 911 dispatchers, this new feature became operational. With this new capability, now when an LEP reportee or SFPD officer needs language assistance, dispatchers can identify immediately whether a bilingual officer is available or whether language assistance should be requested through a telephone interpreter.

During the second quarter, the OCC's policy work also focused on enhancing the Department's use of force protocols, particularly concerning incidents involving mentally ill individuals in crisis. In an officer-involved shooting that resulted in the death of a mentally ill individual, the OCC made the following policy and training recommendations:

1. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to require that the Department's Training Division provide a written analysis in each officer-involved shooting and discharge that is included in the Department's administrative investigative report for consideration by the Firearm Discharge Review Board. This training analysis shall evaluate the incident from the moment of the officer's deployment to the conclusion of the incident and address the topics of tactics/decision-making, drawing or exhibiting a firearm, and use of force. It will explain how officers are trained with respect to the tactical issues that are presented in the incident, evaluate whether the officer(s) performed consistent with training, and make recommendations concerning the training needs of the involved officers and/or the Department in general. The analysis will evaluate the officer's actions preceding the use of force and address whether the officer took unnecessary, overly aggressive, or improper actions that contributed to the need to use deadly force. The training analysis shall also address topics such as planning, supervision, communication and choice of weapons.

2. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to include the officer-in-charge of the Department's Training Division as an advisory member of the Firearm Discharge Review Board.

IX. OUTREACH

During the second quarter of 2013, the OCC was engaged in the following outreach activities:

In April, Director Hicks spoke with a representative of the Seattle Police Department about the benefits of fair and impartial policing training. Also in April, at U.C. Berkeley, Director Hicks participated on a Cal Alumni Association panel on "Careers that Matter". Later that month, she participated in a U.C. Berkeley School of Law, Boalt Hall, Women of Color Collective networking event where she described the OCC's services. She has described the OCC's services during the Police Commission's May meeting in the Ingleside District neighborhood.

OCC staff made a presentation regarding the services it offers to a group at the Center for Juvenile and Criminal Justice. In June, staff members staffed informational tables at the Bayview Connect as well as a Career Day for Youth sponsored by the Chief.

The Mediation Coordinator made presentation to mediation classes at Community Boards and UC Berkeley. She also attended the Community Boards Peacemaker Awards Luncheon as well as an event sponsored by Peninsula Conflict Resolution Services.

Additionally, OCC staff provided brochures and complaint forms to La Raza Central Legal, the La Raza Community Venter, Community United Against Violence, two offices of the Mission Resource Center, the Instituto Laboral de la Raza, Arriba Juntos, the SF Public Defender's office, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, the ACCESS Center, the Jewish Vocational Center, Asian Pacific Islander Outreach, the Asian Law Caucus, Chinese for Affirmative Action, and the Southern, Mission, Central District Police Stations.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the second quarter 2013, the OCC continued its policy work in the areas of use of force, language access, and vehicle pursuits.

Since the adoption of Department General Order 5.20 in 2007, the OCC has worked with the Police Department to enhance its language services. For many years the OCC has advocated for a communications system that would enable 911 Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this second quarter, the Legal Unit presented no hearings at the Chief's Hearing level.

The Legal Unit maintained three Police Commission cases in its inventory during the second quarter. In one case, the Legal Unit reached a tentative settlement during the previous quarter for the imposition of a 15-day suspension on the officer as well as transfer from his current assignment, pending Police Commission approval. During the second quarter, the Police Commission approved the settlement. In another case involving an officer's appeal to the Police Commission of discipline he received at the Chief's Hearing level, the officer withdrew his appeal and the Police Commission approved the withdrawal.

Three of the Legal Unit's attorneys, the two trial attorneys and the policy analyst attorney review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the second quarter, these three attorneys reviewed, revised, and submitted seven sustained reports and drafted and submitted one policy recommendation report, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VIII. MEDIATION

The OCC mediated twelve cases during the second quarter of 2013, compared to twenty-three cases during the second quarter of 2012, when the program had two record months for cases mediated. At the end of the second quarter, the OCC has mediated twenty-four cases as compared to thirty-six in 2012.

Officer participation declined during the first half of 2013. By the end of the second quarter of 2013, nearly 14% of officers declined to mediate compared to 7% in 2012. An informal poll of officers who declined to meet indicated they declined due to the circumstances of the particular case rather than a reluctance to mediate.

In April, Donna Salazar, the Mediation Coordinator addressed a class of new mediators at the Community Boards Spring training.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

Her 8-year son, also a suspect, was improperly told that he could go to jail, when SFPD policy is to refer children younger than 11 years to Child Protective Services.
3.	When detaining a suspected recycling thief, a sergeant failed to remain in constant radio contact in violation of DGO 1.04.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
1	Unnecessary Force	In an officer-involved shooting involving an individual who was mentally ill and in crisis, the OCC made the following nine training and policy recommendations: 1. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to require that the Department's Training Division provide a written analysis in each officer-involved shooting and discharge that is included in the Department's administrative investigative report for consideration by the Firearm Discharge Review Board. This training analysis shall evaluate the incident from the moment of the officer's deployment to the conclusion of the incident and address the topics of tactics/decision-making, drawing or exhibiting a firearm, and use of force. It will explain how officers are trained with respect to the tactical issues that are presented in the incident, evaluate whether the officer(s) performed consistent with training, and make recommendations concerning the training needs of the involved officers and/or the Department in general. The analysis will evaluate the officer's actions preceding the use of force and address whether the officer took unnecessary, overly aggressive, or improper actions that contributed to the need to use deadly force. The training analysis shall also address topics such as planning, supervision, communication and choice of weapons. 2. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to include the officer-in-charge of the Department's Training Division as an advisory member of the Firearm Discharge Review Board. 3. Amend Department General Order 3.10 to include more specific use of force finding categories including training failure, policy failure, supervision failure, tactical debrief and administrative disapproval. 4. Require a sergeant or officer of higher rank to respond to any call involving an armed subject. Develop a protocol with the Department of Emergency Management so that dispatchers immediately notify a sergeant or officer of higher rank when the dispatch receives a call concerning an armed subject.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
1. (Continued)	Unnecessary Force	5. Immediately implement scenario-based training that addresses de-escalation and decision-making tactics for encounters with emotionally disturbed individuals with bladed weapons. A significant number of the Department's officer-involved shootings have involved emotionally disturbed individuals with bladed weapons. As police leaders recently acknowledged, these cases are particularly challenging because of the difficulty in assessing the level of danger. Individuals in crisis may appear threatening or uncooperative when in fact they are unable to understand an officer's questions or orders. Confrontational tactics such as boxing a suspect in or making direct eye contact can actually escalate the situation and pose a greater safety risk to the officer.[1] Since 2010, the OCC has recommended that the Department's subject matter experts in patrol procedures, tactics, and behavioral health review the Department's officer-involved shooting incidents involving mentally ill individuals to develop training that addresses these high risks calls. This scenario-based training should require officers to make split second decisions about best tactics, including whether it is tactically prudent to apprehend or contain an emotionally disturbed individual with a bladed weapon. Issues of de-escalation tactics, tactical planning, communication, coordination, assessment of threat, officer-safety, and use of force options should be integrated throughout this training. 6. Develop with the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) a list of questions dispatchers will ask to determine whether the call involves an individual with a mental illness and to obtain key information about the individual's mental illness. 7. Revise Department General Orders 6.14, 8.02, 8.01 to establish written protocols for the Department's Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) program, including its procedures for training and dispatching CIT officers as first responders to mental health crisis calls and the Department's philosophy and procedures for handling encounters with mentally ill persons in crisis.

Case. No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
1 (Continued)		8. Implement the Department's 2011 obligation to design a data collection system to review and evaluate mental health crisis calls and SFPD's responses to such incidents. 9. Amend the Department's officer-involved shooting procedures to include the Chief's designation of an on-site commander to act as a liaison between the Department and the family of the individual injured or killed and also between the Department and the community.[2] This commander's responsibilities shall include: • providing timely information to the family of the individual who was shot; • notifying the Department of Public Health (or other relevant Department) for immediate or follow-up crisis support services for impacted individuals such as family members of the individual who was shot, witnesses, and bystanders; • obtaining language assistance for involved or impacted individuals whom the Department is interviewing in relation to this event; and identifying and addressing community concerns about the incident and the investigative process through community meetings, press releases, media briefing, and other relevant means.
2	Failure to Take Required Action	The complainant requested that her husband be permitted to take their four-year old child from the scene while she and her older children were under police investigation. Department Bulletin 11-110 (06/02/11) Children of Arrested Parents establishes that children of an arrested parent shall be placed with the non-arrested parent unless there is compelling evidence to the contrary. The Department Bulletin does not specify when and who should contact the non-arrested parent. It also does not address detentions in which parents are accompanied by children. The OCC recommends that the Children of Arrested Parents' Department Bulletin be converted into a Department General Order, that it specify the procedures for contacting the non-arrested parent, and that in addition to arrests, these procedures be used for detentions of parents who are accompanied by children when the detention lasts 30 minutes or longer.

[2] On August 11, 2004 pursuant to Resolution 82-04, the Police Commission conditionally adopted OCC's policy recommendation that the Department assign and provide training to a SFPD liaison to families whose members had been killed during an officer-involved shooting, in-custody death or pursuit. The Police Commission directed the Chief of Police to prepare changes to the Department's General Orders for Commission approval as necessary to implement this OCC recommendation. Changes to the Department's General Orders to implement the OCC's policy recommendation concerning the role, responsibilities, and training of the SFPD liaison officer are still outstanding.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
3.	Failure to Take Required Action	The police responded to an incident in which a suspect punched the complainant in retaliation for the complainant calling 911 to report the perpetrator's physical assault on a victim the complainant was witnessing. The responding officers, who were from a different district, wrote an incident report that was forwarded to the correct district where the incident occurred. Although the complainant called the Department to follow up on the investigation, he did not hear back from the Department. The investigation established that because of inadequate tracking procedures, the case was not reassigned to a new investigative team. The investigation also established that there are not procedures in place to ensure that stations or units do not simultaneously investigate the same case. Although the Crime Data Warehouse will reportedly resolve these problems at some future time, the OCC recommends that the Department immediately institute a tracking procedure to ensure that cases transferred from one district station investigative team to another district station investigative team are reassigned to specific individuals who become responsible for their investigation and closure.

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2013 third quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 214 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 168 complaints in the third quarter. Between January 1, and September 30, 2013, the OCC opened an adjusted total of 544 complaints and closed 518 complaints. In the third quarter it sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in eight complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 18 cases, which is an 11% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

During this period, 13 journey level investigators staffed the OCC because one investigator was on an extended leave of absence and one investigator was an acting senior investigator. In August, Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was appointed to the newly created Deputy Director position which replaced the prior Chief Investigator position. The Deputy Director serves as the Chief of Investigations.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In September, representatives from the investigation and legal teams attended four days of training at the National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) annual training conference. At the conference, Attorney Samara Marion co-presented on a panel she had developed on policy recommendations for officer involved shootings and other critical incidents, Attorney Donna Salazar co- presented on a panel on mediations and Investigator Jayson

Wechter co-presented on a panel he had developed on investigations. In September, two clerical staff members and two investigators attended an all day Department of Health Services training on Non-Violent Crisis Intervention

The Mayor released the 2013/2014 budget to the Board of Supervisors on May 31, 2013 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2013. The Mayor's proposed budget enhanced the OCC's 2012-2013 baseline budget of $4,610,850.00 to provide for increased overhead cost and it also provided funding to replace the OCC's two 14-year old cars. The Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee held budget hearings for the Public Safety Departments on June 19 and June 26. The Committee recommended that the OCC's cars be neither replaced nor retired because in spite of their old age, the mileage was low.[1] Additionally, the Committee recommended a budget reduction equal to a three months attrition savings for the vacant Chief Investigator position because the Director did not anticipate filling it until August.

The adopted budget and appropriation ordinance for Fiscal Years 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 was passed by the Board of Supervisors and approved by Mayor Edwin M. Lee on July 24th, 2013. The adopted budget provided the OCC with a $4,829,125 appropriation for 2013-2014. This increased the OCC's 2012-2013 baseline by $218,275. The $5,012,287 appropriation for 2014-2015 increased the OCC's 2013-3014 appropriation by $183,162. The budget includes the following 34.75 positions:

1. Department Head
2. Deputy Director
3. Attorney (3.75)
4. Information Technology Business Analyst
5. Executive Assistant
6. Senior Account Clerk
7. Senior Investigator (3)
8. Investigator (17)
9. Principal Clerk
10. Clerk Typist (3)
11. Senior Clerk Typist (2)

D. Technology

The OCC's Information Systems Business Analyst, Chris Wisniewski, continues to work on two significant technology projects. The first will enhance the OCC's customer service for complainants' online complaint filing. The second, an auto-prompt system, will enhance investigator case management by leveraging static

[1] Unfortunately, Central Shops advised the OCC in September that one car must be taken out of service in February 2014 and the other in June 2015 because each of their CNG tanks will expire then.

data in OCC databases to automatically deliver reminder prompts to investigators as cases near deadlines.

With the assistance of an outside developer, the OCC has made significant progress on the online complaint filing project. Challenges have included whether the website would be hosted internally or externally with a final resolution of internal hosting through the Department of Technology for security purposes. OCC staff is now testing the online complaint filing website.

Chris Wisniewski is developing the auto-prompt system without the assistance of a developer. He has completed research and developed an outline of the methodology. Software to deliver alerts has been chosen, installed and configured. In September, a complex query was completed to test the system's ability to identify cases nearing late intake, having gaps since the last entry in the case chronology or delayed in their submission for supervisory review. One of two scripts needed to write these records into files that the alert software can read was also completed.

The estimated time for completion on both projects is December 2013.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2013 third quarter, the OCC opened 559 new cases and closed 518 cases. During this nine-month period, the OCC opened 26 more cases than it closed. Fifteen of the 559 cases were merged or voided. Although the backlog is small, some of it is attributable to the week of training at the NACOLE conference which included OCC managers, attorneys and investigators. Also contributing to this small backlog are the four investigator vacancies. The OCC closed the quarter with 348 pending cases which are 32 more pending cases than the close of the third quarter in 2012. By the end of the 2013 third quarter, there were 327 pending cases from 2013, 19 pending cases from 2012 and 2 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

An 8% decrease in available investigators the third quarter of 2013[2] versus the third quarter of 2012 resulted in a higher average caseload, 25 cases per investigator versus 21 cases per investigator. The average number of days to close cases dropped 17% from 166 to 138. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the third quarter of 2013, OCC investigators closed 168 cases with 86%

[2] One OCC investigator was on extended leave, another investigator position was vacant because an investigator was appointed to an acting senior investigator position and two were vacant because the 8124 list had expired and due to workload issues, the Department of Human Resources predicted it would not be able to schedule a job analysis until January 2014. Additionally, there were budget shortfalls for staff salaries and until salary savings were realized, additional temporary employees could not be hired.

of them closing within 270 days and none took more than a year to close. This is similar to third quarter of 2012 where of the 202 cases closed, 83% of them were closed within nine months.

C. Sustained Cases

The sustained rate was five percent for the third quarter of 2013 and six percent for the third quarter of 2012. In the third quarter of 2013, the OCC sustained allegations in eight cases. The average number of days to close sustained cases increased by eight days for the third quarter of 2013 compared to the third quarter of 2012. In the third quarter of 2013, the percentage of sustained cases completed within nine months decreased to 50% compared to 54% the third quarter of 2012. In the third quarter of 2013, all sustained cases were completed within 365 days, as were all sustained cases the third quarter of 2012.

As with previous quarters, the ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations[3] 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the third quarter of 2013, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in five of the eight sustained complaints, or 63% of them. Four of the complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or 80% of the neglect of duty sustained allegations, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 50% of all sustained complaints the third quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[4] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

[3] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the third quarter of 2013 was 25 cases.

[4] Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and the Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

Sustained allegations in addition to neglect of duty for failure to collect traffic stop data include:

1. Conduct reflecting discredit:
   a. An officer lost his temper with the complainant when responding to a dispute over parking. The officer yelled at the complainant, approached the complainant aggressively, called the complainant a liar and dared the complainant "to take him on."

   b. In an encounter with a bicyclist, an officer used profanity, told the complainant to "be a man", "say it to my face", and asked the complainant, "Do you have a problem?"

2. Neglect of duty:
   An officer failed to refer the complainant to a senior officer at the Airport and instead telling the complainant, "If you want to file a complaint, you'll have to take it downtown."

3. Unwarranted Action:
   A sergeant violated Department Bulletin No. 12-158, Section II. Procedure, b., 2, by towing a car driven by an unlicensed driver when the car's owner, a licensed driver, was sitting in the passenger seat and requested to drive the car after the sergeant pulled the car over.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the third quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated five OCC sustained cases as follows:[5]

1. Neglect of Duty – On two occasions an officer parked his vehicle in the designated bicycle lane in front of Fox Plaza when he was there on nonemergency Police Department business.
   The officer was admonished.

[5] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this third quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this third quarter.

2. Unwarranted Action and Neglect of Duty – A sergeant unlawfully detained and searched the complainant while the complainant was at a liquor store. While unlawfully searching the complainant, the sergeant removed the complainant's house key and walked the complainant to the complainant's house. The sergeant entered the complainant's house and conducted a probation search of an absent occupant's room. The sergeant and other officers seized items from the absent occupant's room but did not give the complainant a property receipt for the items seized from the absent occupant's room. The sergeant was suspended.

3. Neglect of Duty – A sergeant violated DGO 1.04 by failing to contact the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) when he conducted a traffic stop. The sergeant also failed to collect traffic stop data. The sergeant received a written reprimand.

4. Neglect of Duty – In violation of DG0 2.04 section I. B., an officer failed to take the complainant's complaint and instead told the complainant, "….[he] could file it downtown."
The officer was admonished.

5. Conduct Reflecting Discredit – In violation of DGO 2.01 rules 9 and 14, an officer lost his temper, approached the complainant aggressively, yelled at the complainant, called the complainant a liar, and dared the complainant to take him on. The officer was admonished.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

During the third quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remain open pending action by federal authorities.

B. Officer Involved Shootings

Three officer-involved shootings were under investigation during the third quarter. Two of these shootings resulted in the death of the suspect.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2013 third quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2012 cases and by the end of the third quarter had closed 97% of them, leaving 3% of the 2012 cases pending. These statistics are similar to the end of the 2012 third quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2011 cases, and had closed 98% of them, leaving 2% of the 2011 cases pending. For complaints filed in 2013, by the end of the third quarter, the OCC had closed 42% of them, intake was in process for 7% of them and there were 286 pending cases or 51% of them. By the end of the third quarter of 2012, the OCC had closed 48% of complaints filed in 2012, intake was in process for 5% of them and there were 271 pending cases or 47% of them.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigators' average caseloads as of September 30, 2013 show a 20% increase from the same period in 2012. The number of journey level investigators, 13 versus 14 at the close of the third quarter in 2013, contributed to an increased caseload in that quarter as did increased complaint filings during the third quarter of 2013. Unlike the first quarter of 2013, which showed a 25% decrease in case filings over the first quarter of 2012, the rate of case filings increased in the 2013 third quarter with a 11% increase in case filings compared to the third quarter of 2012. The average caseload as of September 30, 2013, was 25 cases per investigator. As of September 30, 2012, the average caseload was 21 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit. Ines Vargas Fraenkel leads the Legal Unit. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VIII and IX of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section X. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During the third quarter, the Legal Unit presented two (2) hearings at the Chief's Hearing level, one which involved a failure to supervise, and one which related to an entry without a warrant and a search.

During the third quarter, one (1) Police Commission case went to Settlement Conference. This case was filed by an officer as an appeal from the Chief's level hearing and resulting discipline. A settlement could not be reached and unless the officer withdraws his appeal, the matter will be heard at a Commission hearing.

During the third quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted eight sustained reports, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VIII. MEDIATION

In the third quarter of 2013, the OCC completed 18 mediations compared to 15 during the third quarter of 2012. By September 30, 2013, in the third quarter, the OCC had mediated 42 cases year to date compared to 48 in 2012.

During the third quarter of 2013, a total of 45 officers were considered for mediation. Four of those officers or 9% were ineligible. Of the officers who were offered mediation, eight or 18% declined compared to 8% during the same period in 2012. One factor in the increase in the rate of officers who declined is that three officers in a single case declined to meet with the complainant with whom they had prior experience. Of the 35 complainants offered mediation, 11 or 31% agreed to mediate.

In August, the San Francisco Giants, in partnership with the Association for Dispute Resolution of Northern California, saluted Bay Area mediators at a game held on August 24. Donna Salazar, the Mediation Coordinator, represented the OCC Mediation Program in a ceremony at home plate. In July, the Mediation Coordinator and one of the OCC mediators offered a presentation and practice session to a class at UC Berkeley.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the third quarter of 2013, the OCC engaged in the following activities:

In July, Director Hicks gave a presentation about the functions of the OCC at a Police Commission meeting in the Taraval District and in August, Deputy Director Erick Baltazar gave a presentation on the OCC's functions at a Police Commission meeting in the Central District. Deputy Director Baltazar and Senior Investigator McMahon gave presentations to two groups of cadets at the Police Academy.

In August, an OCC representative staffed a table at the National Night Out festivities in the Western Addition. Senior Investigator McMahon visited the National Night Out observations in several districts.

OCC staffed information booths at a Homeless Connect event, the Tenderloin Resource Fair, the Western Addition Senior Center Fair, the DACA Resource Fair, as well as Back-to-School events in the Bayview and Western Addition Neighborhoods.

OCC Attorney and Police Analyst Samara Marion attended ongoing meetings with the Youth Commission, the Language Access Working Group, and a Youth Group that addressed strategies for training. Ms. Marion also provided an in-house training on Fourth Amendment issues for OCC Investigators.

In August, Director Hicks, who sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement, hosted an event for Bay Area representatives of oversight organizations including members of the San Francisco Police Commission.

In September, Director Hicks led an OCC delegation including the Deputy Director, investigators, and staff attorneys at the NACOLE Annual Training Conference. At the conference, the Director moderated two panels. Staff Attorney Marion developed and co-presented a session on "Analyzing Officer-Involved Shootings and Other Critical Incidents through a Policy Lens" and Staff Attorney Salazar co-presented a session on "Mediating Citizen-Police Complaints". NACOLE Board Member and OCC Investigator Jayson Wechter developed and co-presented a session on planning and prioritizing investigations and moderated two other panels.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the third quarter 2013, the OCC continued its policy work in the area of language access and recommended enhancing police protocols for children of arrested parents.

Since the adoption of Department General Order 5.20 in 2007, the OCC has worked to enhance the Police Department's language services. Since February 2012, the OCC has met monthly with domestic violence service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, and the Police Department. The OCC has initiated several projects to address community concerns that language barriers continue to compromise the accuracy of incident reports and the quality of police assistance. During the third quarter, the OCC continued its work with SFPD and community advocates on an officer training video entitled "Investigative Techniques for Overcoming Language Barriers." Using a domestic violence incident involving a Spanish-speaking victim and an elder-abuse incident involving Mandarin-speakers, this training video will assist officers in obtaining the language services they need.

During the third quarter, the OCC also recommended that SFPD enhance its police protocols for children of arrested parents. In 2006, SFPD worked with over a dozen child welfare services and community agencies to address the immediate care and well being of children following the arrest of their parent. This work culminated in a Department Bulletin that requires officers to inquire whether the arrested adult has a child for whom the adult is responsible and if so, to follow procedures to ensure the safety and care of the child. During the third quarter, the OCC urged the Police Department to reissue immediately this Department Bulletin and include these procedures for detentions lasting beyond thirty minutes. This recommendation arises from a complaint in which a detainee requested that her husband be contacted so that their toddler could be removed from the investigative scene. The removal of a child during a lengthy detention is consistent with the Department Bulletin's goal of minimizing unnecessary trauma to children.

XI. CONCLUSION

As in the past five years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Sustained Allegations – Third Quarter 2013

6.	In violation of San Francisco Police Department traffic stop data collection policy, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data when conducting a traffic stop.
7.				In an encounter with a bicyclist, an officer used profanity, told the complainant to "be a man", "say it to my face", and asked the complainant, "Do you have a problem?"

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS – THIRD QUARTER 2013

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0639-12	Neglect of Duty	An officer detained a ten-year old child who was wearing clothing similar to a robbery suspect and was in close proximity to where the robbery suspect had fled. Upon grabbing the child's shoulder, and the child turning around, the officer realized the child was not the suspect. The officer apologized and continued searching for the suspect. The child was alone and had stepped outside from an after school program when the officer detained her. The child was frightened by the detention and did not understand why the officer had stopped her. Department Bulletin 12-190 (08/30/12) discusses the importance of officers communicating with juveniles and breaking down the barriers between police and juveniles. However, for detentions that do not require a Certificate of Release or the preparation of an incident report, there are no current procedures requiring an officer to contact a juvenile's parent or guardian to inform them their child was detained and to discuss the nature of the police interaction. The OCC recommends enhancing Department General Order 7.01 to include this notification.
0028-13	Neglect of Duty	When the complainant, a San Francisco resident, had her car stolen, she provided both her work and cellular telephone numbers to the officer who took the report. The reporting officer incorrectly wrote the complainant's cellular telephone number's area code in her report. When the complainant's car was subsequently recovered, dispatch was unable to contact the complainant. The complainant's car was towed, causing the complainant to incur storage fees. Several days later the complainant's insurance company notified her that SFPD had recovered her vehicle. The complainant provided SFPD a written request for Supervisor's Review of Towing and Refund of Tow Fees that explained the officer had incorrectly written the complainant's cell number in the incident report and requested waiver of the tow and storage fees in light of the officer's error. The SFPD denied the complainant's request for waiver of the tow and storage fees. The complainant filed a civil claim with the City's Controller's Office and was ultimately reimbursed for the tow and storage fees. The OCC recommends that SFPD's rules concerning supervisor's review of towing and refund of tow fees be reviewed to determine whether SFPD has the discretion to refund tow fees in circumstances such as in the instant case and if so, to amend the rules in accordance with this discretion.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0005-13	Neglect of Duty	The complainant alleged that the officer refused to take his report of a crime. The officer was on a 10-B assignment at the time. Policies and procedures pertaining to 10-B assignments are unclear about an officer's responsibility to take a report when it would require the 10-B officer to leave the assignment. The OCC recommends that the Department's 10-B manual be revised to instruct 10-B officers that they are to take appropriate action to control any crime in progress they may view, notify dispatch of the need for a responding unit, and that the responding unit is responsible for all aspects of investigation, including the incident report.

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2014 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 186 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 168 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in eight complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 17 cases, which is a 10% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

The OCC began training one new temporary 8124 line investigator during the first quarter. During this period, 14 permanent line investigators staffed the OCC. There were three line investigator vacancies. One of the line investigators acted as a Senior Investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations position in August 2013. During the first quarter there was a total of four investigator vacancies, three line investigators (8124) and one Senior Investigator (8126). The OCC's budget provides for 17 line investigators and three Senior Investigators. There are currently 19 employees (17 permanent and 2 temporary) staffing the 21 investigator positions.

San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers. With 2116 sworn SFPD members during the first quarter, the floor was 14 line investigators.

During the first quarter, the OCC worked with the Department of Human Resources to develop an 8124 Investigator job announcement. The OCC and DHR anticipate posting the 8124 job announcement during the second quarter. When that recruitment is concluded, the OCC will work with DHR to recruit for the 8126 Senior Investigator position.

B. Technology

The OCC's Information Systems Business Analyst, Chris Wisniewski, continued to work with the online complaint form developer through revision and resolution of outstanding obstacles to its deployment. By the end of the third quarter, the form was near completion and its June 30 release appears realistic.

In 2013, the IS Business Systems Analyst developed and completed the OCC's tickler system for investigators, "Auto Prompt". "Auto-Prompt" is a complex system that leverages static data in the OCC's database and file systems to automatically deliver prompts to investigators and supervisors as cases near milestones. During the third quarter, it was fully operational.

C. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In February, Shannon Martin, a Manager from Superior Court, provided training to the investigators on citations. In March, the OCC staff watched a movie about the Oscar Grant shooting, Fruitvale Station. During the first quarter, six OCC investigators and clerical staff attended training on nonviolent crisis intervention. Additional staff were scheduled to attend the training during the second and third quarters.

D. Budget

After consideration by the San Francisco Police Commission, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor's Office on February 21, 2014. The Mayor's Office's 2014/2015 and 2015/2016 budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2014/2015 and 2015/2016 with a 1.5% reduction of general fund support the first budget year and a 1% reduction of general fund support the second budget year. For these reductions, the OCC's targets were $49,803 for 2014/2015 and $32,722 for 2015/2016.

The OCC's fiscal year 2014/2015 baseline budget of $4,994,423.00 includes $4,512,274.00 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprise 90% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs fund 34.75 positions. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $482,149, is for operations. Of this operations amount, the OCC pays $307,132 or 64% to the City to rent the OCC's office at 25 Van Ness Avenue.

To meet the 1.5% budget reduction target of $49, 083 for FY 14/15 and the 1% reduction target of $32,722 for FY 2015/2016, for a total of $81,805, the OCC would eliminate an investigator (8124) position. This would reduce journey level investigator positions to 16. The salary plus fringe benefits of an 8124 journey level investigator position is $130,350. The OCC would use the savings to purchase two hybrid vehicles as one of its two cars was retired in February when its CNG tanks expired and the other's tanks will expire in 2015.

The Mayor's proposed budget is scheduled for release to the Board of Supervisors on June 2, 2014 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2014.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2014 first quarter, the OCC opened 188 new cases, and closed 168 cases. During this period, the OCC opened 20 more cases than it closed. The OCC closed the quarter with 333 pending cases, which are 49 more pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2013. By the end of the 2014 first quarter, there were 147 pending cases from 2014, 180 cases from 2013, four from 2012, and two cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

A 25% increase in complaints filed the first quarter of 2014 versus the first quarter of 2013 resulted in a higher average caseload, 24 cases per investigator versus 20 cases per investigator, both above best practices caseloads for civilian oversight investigators.[1] The average number of days to close cases was decreased by 12% from 162 to 142. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the first quarter of 2014, OCC investigators closed 168 cases with 83% of them closing within 270 days and only three of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is similar to 2013 where of the 174 cases closed, 85% of them were closed within nine months. While the average number of days to close cases decreased during the first quarter, the average number of days to close sustained cases increased.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases increased in the first quarter of 2014, compared to the first quarter of 2013; a 5% sustained rate in 2014 and a 4% sustained rate in 2013. In the first quarter of 2014, the OCC sustained allegations in eight cases. The average number of days to close sustained cases increased by 55 days or by 22% for the first quarter of 2014 compared to the first quarter of 2013. In the first quarter of 2014, only one case or 13% of sustained cases was completed within nine months but no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after its receipt. In the first quarter of 2013, 57% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after receipt.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) Several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the first quarter of 2014, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in three of the eight sustained complaints, or 38% of them. Two of these three complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or two thirds of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 25% of all sustained complaints the first quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[2] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional allegations sustained include:

1. Unwarranted action
    a. Detaining and searching a complainant and removing his cell phone from his pocket without cause.
    b. Seizing complainant's guns on two occasions, entering and searching his house, detaining and handcuffing complainant's roommate, and detaining and handcuffing complainant's roommate's girlfriend, all without cause.
    c. Issuing a citation without cause.
2. Conduct reflecting discredit:
    a. Making rude comments to a taxi fare who didn't want to pay a tip by saying, "I don't play. I have 25 years on the job. I'm not going to mess with a drunk. I'm going to drag your ass to jail. You're going to sit down at the County Jail and you're going to be cited for defrauding an innkeeper. That means taxi, hotel, gas station, any of that. Do you understand that? You'll be sitting down at the County in orange pajamas going, 'Man, I should've just paid this. I just blew…' How much money did you spend on drinking tonight? And you wouldn't give the guy a dollar? Seriously? Wow! "Is that your word?"

b. Calling the complainant a coward because the complainant didn't intervene with a violent man who was harassing pedestrians and instead the complainant questioned the lieutenant's physical contact with the violent individual.
c. In response to the complainant who was cursing the officer, the officer said, "Why don't you come over here and say it to my face?"
d. Wrongfully ordering a DMV priority reexamination of the complainant's driver's license in apparent retaliation for the complainant's attitude and not because the complainant showed signs of incapacity while committing a traffic violation. Also failing to notify the complainant that if he did not contact the DMV in five days, his license would automatically be suspended causing the DMV to suspend the complainant's license.

3. Neglect of duty for:
   a. Writing an inaccurate incident report.
   b. Failure to comply with DGOs 5.08 by wrongfully conducting a traffic stop while in plainclothes and in an unmarked vehicle.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated eight OCC sustained cases as follows:[3]

- Neglect of Duty – An officer violated Department General Order 1.03 when responding to an incident involving the complainant whose car was damaged in a traffic accident. The officer failed to notify the Communications Division about the incident. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer violated Department General Order 7.01 when he failed to transmit beginning and ending mileage when transporting a juvenile. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

- Unwarranted Action – An officer violated Department General Order 5.03 while looking for a stolen iPhone, when without reasonable suspicion, he detained the complainant and without probable cause, he seized the complainant's cell phone from his shirt pocket. The complainant did not match the description of the suspect and the complainant's phone was not an iPhone. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Unwarranted Action – A sergeant violated the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Department General Order 5.16, Obtaining Search Warrants and Department General Order 5.03, Investigative Detentions when without a warrant he went to complainant's residence, ordered officers to handcuff complainant's roommate and roommate's guest, searched the complainant's residence and seized two handguns because the landlord observed grow lights and a rifle in the garage. The sergeant received a written reprimand.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to issue a certificate of release after detaining, handcuffing, placing the complainant in a patrol vehicle and transporting the complainant to another location, then releasing the complainant from custody. The officer was admonished.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Officer-Involved Shootings

In the first quarter of 2014, the OCC received one complaint regarding the officer-involved shooting of Alejandro Nieto. Four officer involved shootings were under investigation during this first quarter. Of the four officer-involved shooting complaints under investigation, three resulted in the death of the suspects. The four investigations are pending.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

During the first quarter of 2014, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entries and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior.

C. SFPD Investigation of the Death of a Bicyclist Involved in a Vehicle Collision

In 2013, a complainant alleged SFPD inadequately investigated the death of a bicyclist involved in a vehicle collision. The complainant also alleged a sergeant behaved inappropriately during a rally in the wake of the cyclist's death. The investigation is pending.

D. SFPD Investigation of a Missing Person

In 2013, a complainant alleged SFPD inadequately investigated the disappearance of Lynne Spalding, a patient at San Francisco General Hospital who was later found deceased in a stairwell. The investigation is pending.

E. Officers' Response to Bystander Videotaping Police Officers Contacting an Individual

In 2013, the OCC received several complaints regarding a video taken by a bystander and posted on an Internet site. The video showed the bystander videotaping a contact between an individual and SFPD officers, when the bystander was taken into custody. Allegations in the complaint include the unlawful detention and arrest of the bystander, failure to comply with Department General Order 5.04 (Rights of Onlookers), failure to promptly provide name and star number, use of profanity and inappropriate behavior. The investigation remains pending.

F. Valencia Gardens Incident

In 2013, the OCC received two complaints regarding an incident that involved several SFPD officers and residents of the Valencia Gardens housing complex. The complaints allege excessive use of force, unlawful detentions and arrests, unlawful entry and inappropriate behavior. The investigation is pending.

G. Complaint Regarding SFPD's Crime Lab

During the first quarter of 2014, the OCC received a complaint from a sexual assault victim who complained about SFPD's failure to promptly process evidence. The investigation is pending.

H. City College Incident

During the first quarter of 2014, the OCC received one complaint alleging excessive use of force during a demonstration at San Francisco City College. The investigation is pending.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2014 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2013 cases and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2013 cases pending. These statistics are identical to the end of the 2013 first quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2013 cases, and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2012 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the leadership of Inés Vargas Fraenkel. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this first quarter, the Legal Unit presented two cases on appeal by officers at the Chief's Hearing level, one with sustained allegations against an officer for profanity, excessive force and failure to identify himself, and the other with a sustained allegation for use of force.

During the first quarter, the Police Commission handled an appeal by an officer from a Chief's level hearing imposition of three days suspension for an illegal detention and use of force. A Police Commissioner conducted a settlement conference that resulted in a settlement that retained the three days suspension and the findings.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the first quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted eight sustained reports, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2014, the OCC mediated 17 cases compared to 12 cases in 2013, a 42% increase. The number of cases mediated during the first quarter --17, exceeds the average number of cases closed per investigator -- 10, during the same period by 70%

In January, Donna Salazar, the Mediation Coordinator spoke with a representative of the Dayton, Ohio Police Department regarding a proposed mediation program in that jurisdiction.

In early March, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator traveled to Los Angeles where she met with officers of the LAPD Internal Affairs Department and the LA City Attorney's office. The Mediation Coordinator addressed an audience of employees from both departments and the volunteer mediators chosen to participate in their new program. The Los Angeles Police Department has consulted with the OCC over the past few years in preparation for the roll out of their Biased Policing Mediation Program.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2013, the OCC engaged in the following outreach activities:

Director Hicks, who sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE), attended a mid-winter meeting to finalize scheduling for the 2014 Conference. She also made a presentation about the OCC's services during the Police Commission meeting held in the Park District neighborhood in February. She participated in a panel discussion on civil oversight of law enforcement at Santa Rosa Community College sponsored by the ACLU in response to the officer involved shooting death of Andy Lopez by a Sonoma County Deputy Sheriff. Director Hicks, Deputy Director Baltazar, and Senior Investigator McMahon attended a community meeting in Bernal Heights on March 25th in response to the officer involved shooting death of Alejandro Nieto. The Director also represented the OCC at an event sponsored by the Boalt Hall Women of Color Attorneys where she hosted two Boalt Hall Masters of Laws degree (LLM) candidates, one from China and the other from Nigeria.

Deputy Director Erick Baltazar and Acting Senior Investigator Sherry Fletcher attended a joint session of the Public Safety Committee of the Board of Supervisors and the San Francisco Police Commission where they participated in a conversation about pedestrian deaths.

The OCC Policy Analyst, Samara Marion, participated in activities involving the Youth Commission, SF Women Against Rape, the Domestic Violence Coalition, and the Family Violence Council.

In February, Mediation Coordinator Donna Salazar attended a community function for Black History Month at the Sojourner Truth Family Service Agency in the Sunnydale neighborhood. Lead Attorney Ines Vargas Frankel attended a Police Commission Community Meeting in the Tenderloin in March and gave a presentation about the functions of the OCC.

The Deputy Director and a Senior Investigator offered a presentation to three groups of new officers at the Police Academy in February and March.

During this quarter, the OCC staffed informational tables at one Operation Homeless Connect event and the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth and Families.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaints' mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the first quarter 2014, the OCC continued its policy work on language access and police protocols for children of arrested parents. The OCC also made recommendations to establish written procedures and training regarding officer-initiated incapacity proceedings against a driver.

Since the adoption of Department General Order 5.20 in 2007, the OCC has worked to enhance the Police Department's language services. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to address on-going language access concerns. During the first quarter 2014, the OCC worked with SFPD and community advocates to complete the officer training video entitled "Investigative Techniques for Overcoming Language Barriers." Using a domestic violence incident involving a Spanish-speaking victim and an elder-abuse incident involving a Cantonese-speaker, this training video identifies the common signs that language assistance is needed. It also addresses how evidence of a dominant aggressor and elder abuse can be overlooked because of a language barrier. Following the Department's posting of the training video on the Internet, the OCC has received inquiries from other agencies about the Department's language access procedures. The video can be viewed at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i8qY1zi0tzc).

During the first quarter, the OCC also worked with the Department to finalize Department General Order 7.04 (Children of Arrested Parents). This proposed DGO requires officers to inquire whether the arrested adult has a child for whom the adult is responsible and if so, to follow procedures to ensure the safety and care of the child. The OCC also drafted the script for a video roll call training that the Department and the OCC commenced filming in April. The proposed DGO was heard before the Police Commission on May 7, 2014.

Last, the OCC recommended that the Department adopt written procedures and provide training on officer-initiated driver incapacity proceedings. Vehicle Code § 21061 permits an officer to issue a notice of Department of Motor Vehicle re-examination to a driver who shows signs of mental or physical incapacity while committing a traffic violation. Because officers have to comply with evidentiary and notice requirements to initiate the DMV priority re-examination proceeding and OCC investigations have determined that some officers have initiated these proceeding without cause, the OCC made the following recommendations:

1. Require a supervisor's authorization to initiate DMV re-examination of a driver (for both priority re-examination and non-priority re-examination);

2. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to book into evidence a copy of the officer's completed and signed DMV re-examination form:

3. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to document in an incident report the following information:

    a. the factual basis for the re-examination;
    b. the time, date, and manner in which the officer provided the driver a written copy of the DMV re-examination form;
    c. the supervisor who authorized the DMV re-examination; and
    d. that the officer booked into evidence a copy of the DMV re-examination form.

4. Issue a priority "A" Department Bulletin immediately that states the legal standard and notice requirements to initiate a DMV priority re-examination of a driver and includes the three procedures described above.

5. Provide training to all officers and recruits consistent with the above-mentioned procedures as soon as the Department Bulletin is issued.

X. CONCLUSION

As in the past six years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Sustained Allegations – First Quarter 2014

Case No.	Neglect of Duty	Unwarranted Action	Unnecessary Force	Conduct Reflecting Discredit	Discourtesy	Racial or Sexual Slur
1.	An officer violated Department General Order 5.03 while looking for a stolen iPhone, when without reasonable suspicion, he detained the complainant and without probable cause, he seized the complainant's cell phone from his shirt pocket. The complainant did not match the description of the suspect and the complainant's phone was not an iPhone.
2.		A sergeant violated the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Department General Order 5.16, Obtaining Search Warrants and Department General Order 5.03, Investigative Detentions when without a warrant he went to complainant's residence, ordered officers to handcuff complainant's roommate and roommate's guest, searched the complainant's residence and seized two handguns because the landlord observed grow lights and a rifle in the garage.

8	An officer failed to write a complete incident report because it omitted the parking citation he issued to the complainant and in the incident report the officer also omitted reference to the priority reexamination proceeding he initiated against the complainant.	In violation of DGOs 5.08 and 9.01, officers in plain clothes issued the complainant a traffic citation when there was no evidence that the complainant's driving created an aggravated situation requiring the officer's immediate attention. One of the officers incorrectly cited the complainant for parking in a prohibited area, Traffic Code section 32B, when the officer claimed that the complainant refused to pay the parking meter and had parked too far from the curb.		An officer wrongfully ordered a DMV priority reexamination of the complainant's driver's license in apparent retaliation for the complainant's attitude and not because the complainant showed signs of incapacity while committing a traffic violation. The officer also failed to notify the complainant that if he did not contact the DMV in five days, his license would automatically be suspended causing the DMV to suspend the complainant's license.

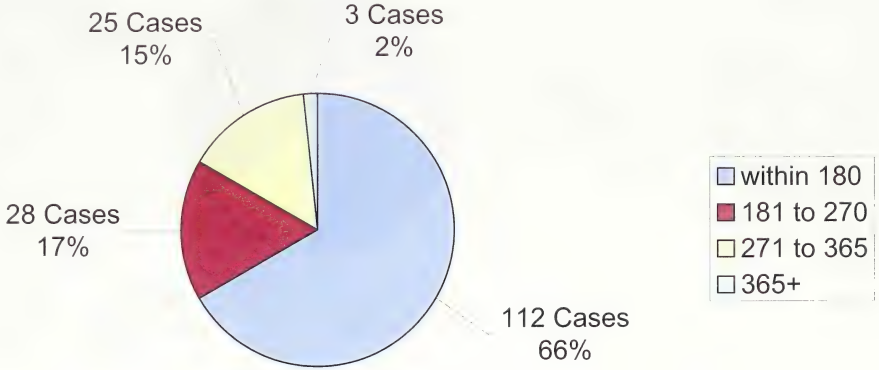

Policy Recommendations – First Quarter 2014

Case No.	Allegation	Policy Recommendation
A.	Neglect of Duty	The complainant alleged that the Department failed to disclose a $100,000 gift from a venture capitalist and sixty (60) laptop computers donated by a computer manufacturing corporation in violation of the disclosure requirements established by the California Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC). The OCC investigation determined the Department did not receive the $100,000 cash gift from the venture capitalist. Instead, the money went from the venture capitalist to a mobile application developer to develop technology in mobile devices that would be used by police officers. Development of the technological application would allow officers to build investigative case files in the field rather than returning to the station in order to prepare them. The company developed a prototype, but as of the closure of this complaint, the Department had not received the prototype. Thus, the Department's reporting obligations have not yet been triggered. Concerning a gift of sixty laptops, the SFPD notified the Police Commission of the gift of the sixty laptop computers at the July 11, 2012 Police Commission meeting. The Police Commission approved a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors to accept the gift. The gift of the sixty laptop computers has subsequently been listed (around August 2013) on the SFPD website, although the Department did not initially post the gift to its website. The SFPD has now included on its website a section entitled Department Gifts and Donations list and has included donations from 2010-2013. The investigation also determined that DGO 2.01, titled "General Rules of Conduct," Section 27 (Gifts, Compensation, Rewards) did not adequately address the Department's obligations concerning gifts. On January 23, 2014 the SFPD issued Department Bulletin 14-026 (Protocol and Form for accepting Gifts, Compensation, Rewards). This Department Bulletin updated the Department's procedures by setting forth the San Francisco Administrative Code's requirements for accepting a gift. Pursuant to this Department Bulletin, officers are required to use the Donor Disclosure/Gift Acknowledgement Form, obtain permission to accept the gift by the Police Commission, and for gifts over $10,000, obtain Board of Supervisor approval. Officers are also required to complete all mandated paperwork, including the State's Fair Political Practice Commission Form 801. Last, all gifts once approved shall be posted on the Department's website. The OCC concluded that the conduct alleged in the complaint was the result of a policy failure and that the Department has since enhanced its procedures to comply with applicable rules governing the acceptance of gifts.

Case No.	Allegation	Policy Recommendation
None	None	The OCC recommended that the Department adopt written procedures and provide training on officer-initiated driver incapacity proceedings. Vehicle Code § 21061 permits an officer to issue a notice of Department of Motor Vehicle re-examination to a driver who shows signs of mental or physical incapacity while committing a traffic violation. Because officers must comply with evidentiary and notice requirements to initiate the DMV priority re-examination proceeding and OCC investigations have determined that some officers have initiated these proceedings without cause, the OCC made the following recommendations: 1. Require a supervisor's authorization to initiate DMV re-examination of a driver (for both priority re-examination and non-priority re-examination). 2. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to book into evidence a copy of officer's completed and signed DMV re-examination form. 3. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to document in an incident report the following information: a. the factual basis for the re-examination, b. the time, date, and manner in which the officer provided the driver a written copy of the DMV re-examination form, c. the supervisor who authorized the DMV re-examination; and d. that the officer booked into evidence a copy of the DMV re-examination form. 4. Issue a priority A Department Bulletin immediately that states the legal standard and notice requirements to initiate a DMV priority re-examination of a driver and includes the three procedures described above. Provide training to all officers and recruits consistent with the above-mentioned procedures.

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2014 Second Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2014 second quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 155 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 172 complaints this second quarter. Between January 1, and June 30, 2014, the OCC opened an adjusted total of 343 complaints and closed 340 complaints. During the second quarter, it sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 16 complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 10% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 13 cases, which is an 8% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

During the second quarter, the OCC had 34.75 budgeted positions. Of those positions, 20 were investigator positions, not including the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations. Seventeen of the investigator positions were 8124 line investigators and three were 8126 Senior Investigators. During the second quarter, 14 permanent line investigators and two temporary line investigators staffed the OCC. There were three line investigator (8124) vacancies and one Senior Investigator (8126) vacancy. One of the line investigators acted as a Senior Investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations position in August 2013. As of the close of the second quarter, 18 employees (16 permanent and 2 temporary) staffed the 20 investigator positions. San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers. With 2130 sworn SFPD members at the close of the second quarter, the floor was 14.2 line investigators.

During the second quarter, with the Assistance of the Department of Human Resources (DHR), the OCC continued working to create an 8124 list. The OCC and DHR posted the 8124 job announcement and conducted the written portion of the test during the second quarter. During the third quarter, the OCC anticipates DHR conducting the oral portion of the examination and receiving a list from DHR. The OCC anticipates finally hiring complaint investigators during the fourth quarter. When the 8124 recruitment is concluded, the OCC will work with DHR to recruit for the vacant 8126 Senior Investigator position.

B. Technology

The OCC's Information Systems Business Analyst, Chris Wisniewski, worked with the City's Department of Technology engineers to test the online complaint form during the second quarter. Although the system had worked in tests outside the City's infrastructure, it was not delivering data from completed forms once hosted inside. Mr. Wisniewski tried numerous code changes until he found the right combination. During the third quarter, online complaint filing will go live on the OCC's webpage.

In addition to assisting investigators with technical aspects of casework, preparing special reports for the budget process, mitigating unforeseen upheavals when the OCC's access to RMS was denied for two months, and organizing its website, Mr. Wisniewski also further refined the OCC's "Auto Prompt" system which was implemented in January 2014. "Auto-Prompt" is a complex system that leverages static data in the OCC's database and file systems to automatically deliver prompts to investigators and supervisors as cases near milestones.

C. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In April, San Francisco Police Commander Mikail Ali provided training to the investigators on law enforcement functions at SFMTA. In June, the OCC investigators watched a language access training video co-produced by the San Francisco Police Department and Samara Marion of the Office of Citizen Complaints. During the second quarter, five OCC investigators attended training on nonviolent crisis intervention. Additional staff was scheduled to attend the training during the third quarter.

D. Budget

During the second quarter, Mayor Lee released his proposed budget to the Board of Supervisors on June 2, 2014 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2014. The Mayor's proposed budget took no cuts from the OCC, reduced the step and attrition adjustment by $84,000 and provided the OCC with funding for two cars. The Board of Supervisors' Budget and Finance Committee largely accepted the proposed OCC budget but cut the funding of one car since the OCC will have two operable cars in 2015; one used car and one new car.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2014 second quarter, the OCC opened 343 new cases, and closed 340 cases. The OCC closed the quarter with 322 pending cases, which are 23 more pending cases than the close of the second quarter in 2013. By the end of the 2014 second quarter, there were 234 pending cases from 2014, 83 cases from 2013, three from 2012, and two cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

A 25% increase in complaints filed the first quarter of 2014 versus the first quarter of 2013 resulted in a higher average caseload during the first quarter of 2014, 24 cases per investigator versus 20 cases per investigator during the first quarter of 2013, both above best practices caseloads for civilian oversight investigators.[1] Average caseload in the second quarter of 2014 increased to 23 cases per investigator versus 21 cases per investigator at the close of the second quarter in 2013. While in the second quarter of 2014, 20% fewer complaints were filed than the second quarter of 2013, the surge of complaints in the first quarter of 2014 contributed to a higher caseload by the close of the second quarter 2014 than during the same period in 2013. Additionally, the doubling of cases sustained in the second quarter of 2014 over the first quarter of 2014 impeded a timelier disposition of non-sustainable cases during the second quarter of 2014.

The average number of days to close cases between the first and second quarters of 2014 increased by 20% from 142 in the first quarter to 170 in the second quarter. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the second quarter of 2014, OCC investigators closed 172 cases with 80% of them closing within 270 days and only three of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is similar to the second quarter of 2013 where of the 176 cases closed, 79% of them were closed within nine months.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases increased during the first half of 2014, compared to the first half of 2013; a 7% sustained rate the first half of 2014 and a 4% sustained rate the first half of 2013. In the first quarter of 2014, the OCC sustained allegations in eight cases and in the second quarter of 2014, the OCC sustained 16

cases. The average number of days to close sustained cases increased by one day for the second quarter of 2014 compared to the second quarter of 2013. In the second quarter of 2014, seven cases or 44% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained case was completed more than 365 days after its receipt. This is a significant improvement over the first quarter of 2014 where only one of the eight sustained cases, or 13%, was completed within 270 days. The average number of days to close sustained cases decreased to 291 days during the second quarter of 2014 from 307 days during the first quarter of 2014.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) Several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the second quarter of 2014, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 12 of the 16 sustained complaints, or 75% of them. Four of these twelve complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or 33% of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 25 % of all sustained complaints the second quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[2] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional allegations sustained include:

1. Unnecessary force for punching the complainant in the face after the complainant spit in the officer's face.

2. Unwarranted action:
    a. Conducting a traffic stop in plain clothes in an unmarked vehicle for a driving violation that did not require immediate action to protect life or property.
    b. Citing the complainant for conduct the officer did not observe.
    c. Moving the complainant's backpack during a traffic stop.

[2] Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and the Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

3. Conduct reflecting discredit for calling the complainant a knucklehead.

4. Discourtesy for using profanity.

5. Sexual slur for referring to a woman inappropriately.

6. Neglect of duty:
    a. Misplacing complainant's cell phone when the complainant was taken into custody.
    b. Only Mirandizing a juvenile once, instead of twice and failure to record the Miranda warning.
    c. Field Training officer's failure to properly instruct a recruit on Department General Order 7.01, Policies and Procedures for Juveniles, Detention, Arrest and Custody.
    d. Sergeant approving an incident report that showed the investigation did not comport with Department General Order 7.01.
    e. Failing to place name, star number, unit identifier and date of issuance on Notice to Appear.
    f. In violation of Department General Order 5.20, failure to interview complainant in her primary language, Cantonese.
    g. Conducting a traffic stop in plain clothes when the driver's conduct did not constitute an aggravated situation
    h. Writing the wrong vehicle code section on the complainant's citation.
    i. In violation of Department General Oder 5.20, failure to record the custodial interview of a Limited English Proficient Spanish speaker.
    j. Failure to properly investigate a dispute over a bicycle, failure to write an incident report, and failure to book the bicycle into evidence.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the second quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated thirteen OCC sustained cases as follows:[3]

- Neglect of duty – An officer detained and searched the complainant and removed the complainant's cell phone from his pocket without cause. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Conduct Reflecting Discredit – An officer made rude comments to a fare who did not want to pay the taxi driver a tip. The officer received a written reprimand.

- Conduct Reflecting Discredit – A lieutenant called the complainant a coward for failing to stop a violent suspect from harassing people and instead questioning the lieutenant on the lieutenant's physical contact with the suspect. The lieutenant was admonished and retrained.

- Unwarranted Action, Neglect of Duty, and Conduct Reflecting Discredit – Two officers in plain clothes in violation of DGOs 5.08 and 9.01, issued the complainant a traffic citation when there was no evidence that the complainant's driving created an aggravated situation requiring the officer's immediate attention. One of the officers incorrectly cited the complainant for parking in a prohibited area, Traffic Code section 32B, when the officer claimed that the complainant refused to pay the parking meter and had parked too far from the curb.

  One of the officers wrongfully ordered a DMV priority reexamination of the complainant's driver's license in apparent retaliation for the complainant's attitude and not because the complainant showed signs of incapacity while committing a traffic violation. The officer also failed to notify the complainant that if he did not contact the DMV in five days, his license would automatically be suspended causing the DMV to suspend the complainant's license.

  The other officer failed to write a complete incident report because it omitted the parking citation he issued to the complainant and in the incident report the officer also omitted reference to the priority reexamination proceeding he initiated against the complainant.

The officer who ordered the priority reexamination in addition to wrongfully making a traffic stop in plain clothes received a one day suspension.

The officer who wrote an incomplete incident report in addition to wrongfully making a traffic stop in plain clothes received a written reprimand.

- Conduct Reflecting Discredit – An officer called a jogging complainant a knucklehead when the officer ordered the complainant to get back on the sidewalk and away from a trench and in response, according to the officer, the jogger was sarcastic and stopped in the middle of the street. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to ensure that the complainant's juvenile son's property was properly secured resulting in the loss of her son's cell phone. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of duty – In violation of Department General Order 7.01 and Department Bulletin 12-190, a first phase recruit officer and the officer's Field Training Officer (FTO) failed to Mirandize a juvenile when they took the juvenile into custody in the field. Although they stated they Mirandized the juvenile at the police station when they interrogated her, they failed to record the interrogation in violation of Department General Order 7.01 and Department Bulletin 12-190. The FTO also violated Department General Order 3.01 and the 2010 SFPD Field Training Manual when the FTO failed to properly supervise the recruit when the recruit failed to issue a Miranda warning when he first took the juvenile into custody in the field and also failed to record the second required Miranda warning and the interrogation at the police station. A sergeant violated Department General Orders 1.04 and 1.06 and the SFPD Report Writing Manual for improperly supervising the officers when the sergeant approved the incident report which did not refer to evidence of a recording of the interrogation. When there was no reference to a recording on the evidence face sheet of the incident report, the sergeant did not ask the officers whether they recorded the interrogation. If he had, he would have learned that they did not and they were in violation of 7.01 and Department Bulletin 12-190. The officers and sergeant were admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of duty – In violation of California Vehicle Code section 40505 and the San Francisco Police Department Field Training Manual, an officer failed to fully complete a notice to appear for traffic violations by neglecting to include on the notice his name, star number, issuing unit identifier and the date of issuance. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Unnecessary Force – In violation of Department General Order 5.01, a Field Training Officer ("officer') who was training a recruit responded to a dispatch about a fight and an officer trying to control the situation. After responding to the incident, the officer used unnecessary force when he hit the complainant with a closed fist strike with his right hand to the left side of her face, near her eye. The officer struck the complainant after she spit directly in his face near his eyes. The officer claimed he feared he would be spit on again and he considered spit in the face to be a direct threat to his safety as bodily fluids contain potentially dangerous diseases. The officer had no physical contact with the complainant prior to or after the closed fist strike. Other officers struggled to detain the complainant and eventually they placed a spit mask on her head. The officer received a written reprimand.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Officer-Involved Shootings

At the end of second quarter, the OCC continued to investigate four officer-involved shootings. Of the four officer-involved shooting complaints under investigation, three resulted in the death of the suspect.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

At the end of second quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entries and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior.

C. SFPD Investigation of the Death of a Bicyclist Involved in a Vehicle Collision

In 2013, a complaint was filed alleging an inadequate investigation of the death of a bicyclist involved in a vehicle collision. The complaint also alleges a sergeant's inappropriate behavior during a rally in the wake of the cyclist's death. The investigation remained pending at the end of the second quarter.

D. SFPD Investigation of a Missing Person

In 2013, a complaint was filed alleging an inadequate investigation of a person reported missing from the San Francisco General Hospital and later found deceased in a stairwell. The investigation remained pending at the end of second quarter.

E. Officers' Response to Videotaping Bystander

In late 2013, the OCC received several complaints regarding a video taken by a bystander and posted on an Internet site. The video showed the bystander videotaping a contact between an individual and SFPD officers, when the bystander was taken into custody. Allegations in the complaint include the unlawful detention and arrest of the bystander, failure to comply with Department General Order 5.04 (Rights of Onlookers), failure to promptly provide name and star number, use of profanity and inappropriate behavior. The investigation remained pending at the end of the second quarter.

F. Valencia Gardens Incident

In 2013, the OCC received two complaints regarding an incident that involved several SFPD officers and residents of the Valencia Gardens housing complex. The complaints contain allegations of excessive use of force, unlawful detentions and arrests, unlawful entry and inappropriate behavior. The investigation remained pending at the end of the second quarter.

G. Complaint Regarding SFPD's Crime Lab

At the end of the second quarter, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint from a sexual assault victim who complained about SFPD's failure to promptly process evidence.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2014 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2013 cases and by the end of the second quarter 2014 staff had closed 89% of them, leaving 11% of the 2013 cases pending. These statistics are similar to the end of the 2013 second quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2012 cases, and had closed 92% of them, leaving 8% of the 2012 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the leadership of Inés Vargas Fraenkel. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this second quarter, the Legal Unit presented two hearings at the Chief's Hearing level, both of which involved plainclothes officers making traffic stops and priority reexamination issues.

As to Police Commission cases, none were pending during this second quarter.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During this second quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted 12[4] sustained reports, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VII. MEDIATION

During the second quarter of 2014, the OCC mediated 13 cases compared to 12 cases in 2013. At the end of the second quarter the OCC had mediated 30 cases as compared to 24 in 2013.

[4] The four sustained reports for neglect of duty for failure to collect traffic stop data did not require review by the Legal Unit

In 2013, there was a decline in officer participation. That year, nearly 14% of officers declined to mediate compared to only 7% in 2012. In the first half of 2014, five officers, or 9% declined mediation. Donna Salazar, the Mediation Coordinator, continued to document the numbers and circumstances of officers who declined to meet.

The responses indicate that officers declined to participate because of the circumstances of the particular case rather than a reluctance to participate in the mediation program.

In April, the Mediation Coordinator made a presentation about the OCC's mediation program to an advanced mediation class at the University of California Hastings College of Law. During the second quarter, the Mediation Coordinator was contacted by a representative of the Los Angeles Inspector General, who has been charged with oversight of the LA Sheriff's Department, as well as the Director of a Community Mediation Center in St. Louis regarding implementing mediation programs in those jurisdictions. The Mediation Coordinator continued ongoing conversations with the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office regarding their new Biased Policing Mediation Program.

The mediation program continued to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the second quarter of 2014, the OCC was engaged in local outreach activities as well as networking with other agencies on a state and national level.

Director Hicks made presentations about the OCC's services at Police Commission meetings held for the Richmond, Southern and Northern District neighborhoods during this quarter. During the 2nd quarter Director Hicks represented the OCC at the Robert D. and Leslie-Kay Raven lecture at Berkeley Law School, University of California on Access to Justice by Vince Warren, Executive Director, Center for Constitutional Rights on Stop and Frisk litigation in New York, New York. Director Hicks and Deputy Director Baltazar met with representatives from the Oakland City Council, the Los Angeles County Inspector General's Office, a delegation of government officials from India studying advanced government negotiations at the University of California, Berkeley, Goldman School of Public Policy, and a task force from Sonoma County regarding civilian oversight and the role of the OCC.

In April, the San Francisco Examiner interviewed Director Hicks for an article about police oversight in San Francisco. In May, the San Francisco Examiner featured an article on SFPD policing procedures for children of arrested parents that quoting Policy Analyst Samara Marion on the OCC's role in its adoption. During this quarter, the Department of Justice included on its website the officer training video on overcoming language barriers that the OCC co-produced with SFPD.

The Deputy Director and Senior Investigator Edward McMahon made a presentation to a class of cadets at the San Francisco Police Academy in April. Acting Senior Investigator Fletcher and Investigator Maunder addressed a SF PAL Cadet class at the academy regarding the functions of the OCC and possible careers in police oversight in June.

OCC Policy Analyst Samara Marion was a guest speaker at a law school class at USF on constitutional policing and use of force in April. Attorney Marion also consulted with New York Legal Services regarding LEP officer training and DGO 5.20. In June, staff members staffed informational tables at the Sunnydale Connect as well as a Career Day for Youth sponsored by the Chief.

In addition to the above, OCC staff provided brochures and complaint forms to La Raza Central Legal, the La Raza Community Center, Community United Against Violence, two offices of the Mission Resource Center, the Instituto Laboral de la Raza, Arriba Juntos, the SF Public Defender's office, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, the ACCESS Center, the Jewish Vocational Center, Asian Pacific Islander Outreach, the Asian Law Caucus, Chinese for Affirmative Action, Horizons Unlimited, the Bernal Neighborhood Center, as well as the ten District Police Stations.

The OCC continued to be a resource for oversight agencies statewide and nationally. Agencies frequently consult with OCC regarding its unique model of civilian oversight, its police/citizen mediation program, its policy work regarding juveniles, language access, and most recently, children of arrested parents.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaints' mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the second quarter 2014, the OCC continued its policy work on language access and police protocols for children of arrested parents. The OCC also made recommendations to establish written procedures and training regarding officer-initiated incapacity proceedings against a driver.

Since the adoption of Department General Order 5.20 in 2007, the OCC has worked to enhance the Police Department's language services. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to address on-going language access concerns. During the first quarter 2014, the OCC worked with SFPD and community advocates to complete the officer training video entitled "Investigative Techniques for Overcoming Language Barriers." Using a domestic violence incident involving a Spanish-speaking victim and an elder-abuse incident involving a Cantonese-speaker, this training video identifies the common signs that language assistance is needed. It also addresses how evidence of a dominant aggressor and elder abuse can be overlooked because of a language barrier. Following the Department's posting of the training video on the Internet, the OCC has received inquiries from other agencies about the Department's language access procedures. The video can be viewed at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i8qY1zi0tzc).

During the second quarter, the OCC also worked with the Department to finalize Department General Order 7.04 (Children of Arrested Parents). This proposed DGO requires officers to inquire whether the arrested adult has a child for whom the adult is responsible and if so, to follow procedures to ensure the safety and care of the child. The OCC also drafted the script for a video roll call training that the Department and the OCC commenced filming in April. The proposed DGO was heard before the Police Commission on May 7, 2014.

Last, the OCC recommended that the Department adopt written procedures and provide training on officer-initiated driver incapacity proceedings. Vehicle Code section 21061 permits an officer to issue a notice of Department of Motor Vehicle re-examination to a driver who shows signs of mental or physical incapacity while committing a traffic violation. Because officers have to comply with evidentiary and notice requirements to initiate the DMV priority re-examination proceeding and OCC investigations have determined that some officers have initiated these proceeding without cause, the OCC made the following recommendations:

1. Require a supervisor's authorization to initiate DMV re-examination of a driver (for both priority re-examination and non-priority re-examination);

2. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to book into evidence a copy of the officer's completed and signed DMV re-examination form;

3. Require the officer initiating the DMV re-examination proceeding to document in an incident report the following information:

    a. the factual basis for the re-examination;
    b. the time, date, and manner in which the officer provided the driver a written copy of the DMV re-examination form;
    c. the supervisor who authorized the DMV re-examination; and
    d. the officer booked into evidence a copy of the DMV re-examination form.

4. Issue a priority "A" Department Bulletin immediately that states the legal standard and notice requirements to initiate a DMV priority re-examination of a driver and includes the three procedures described above.

5. Provide training to all officers and recruits consistent with the above-mentioned procedures as soon as the Department Bulletin is issued.

X. CONCLUSION

As in the past six years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Case No.	Allegation	Policy Recommendation
A	Neglect of Duty	The complainant, who was the victim of a sexual assault, alleged that the named officer failed to respond to her phone calls and e-mails concerning the status of the investigation. The complainant did not learn about the District Attorney's decision not to prosecute the case until many months later, and only after the complainant called the Special Victims Unit several times requesting an update. There is no written Department policy that imposes an affirmative duty upon San Francisco Police Department members of the Investigation Bureau or Special Victims Unit to maintain regular contact with a victim in a case under investigation. There is also no written Department policy that requires San Francisco Police Department members of the Investigation Bureau or Special Victims Unit to notify a victim of the disposition of the victim's case. The Office of Citizen Complaints recommends that written procedures be adopted that require regular status updates with crime victims whose cases are under San Francisco Police Department investigation.

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2014 third quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 195 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 186 complaints this third quarter. Between January 1, and September 30, 2014, the OCC opened an adjusted total of 536 complaints and closed 525 complaints. During the third quarter, it sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 15 complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is an 8% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 9 cases, which is a 5% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. St affing

During the third quarter, the OCC had 34.75 budgeted positions. Of those positions, 20 were investigator positions, not including the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations. Seventeen of the investigator positions were 8124 line investigators and three were 8126 Senior Investigators. During the third quarter, 14 permanent line investigators and two temporary line investigators staffed the OCC. There were three line investigator (8124) vacancies and one Senior Investigator (8126) vacancy. One of the line investigators acted as a Senior Investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the Deputy Director/Chief of Investigations position in August 2013. As of the close of the third quarter, 18 employees (16 permanent and 2 temporary) staffed the 20 investigator positions. San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers. With 2095 sworn SFPD members at the close of the third quarter, the floor was 14 line investigators.

During the third quarter, with the Assistance of the Department of Human Resources (DHR), the OCC continued working to create an 8124 list. The OCC and DHR posted the 8124 job announcement and conducted the written portion of the test during the second quarter. During the third quarter, the OCC and DHR conducted the oral portion of the examination and the OCC anticipated receiving a list from DHR. Due to the review process, the list was not released during the third quarter. The OCC anticipates finally hiring complaint investigators in early 2015. When the 8124 recruitment is concluded, the OCC will work with DHR to recruit for the vacant 8126 Senior Investigator position.

B. Technology

While assisting investigators and other staff with technical aspects of their work, developing more efficient workflows and preparing data for public reports are constants for OCC Information Systems Business Analyst, Chris Wisniewski, during the third quarter, additionally he completed two important initiatives and commenced a third as described below.

1. Online Complaint Filing. During the third quarter, online complaint filing went live on the OCC's website. The online complaint filing feature represents the culmination of more than two years work including several months in development with an outside vendor. The first online complaint was filed on August 8, 2014, the day after it was announced and linked from the OCC website. Chris Wisniewski trained OCC staff on inputting online complaint data that integrates with the OCC's intake process. Individuals filed five online complaints during the third quarter.

2. Facebook. Additional work included the creation of an organizational Facebook account to further inform the public about online complaint filing and the OCC in general. The Facebook page displays content drawn from our various language brochures (English, Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Russian and Vietnamese).[1]

3. Server Migration. The third quarter marked the beginning of concentrated attention to the OCC's technology infrastructure and the overhaul of core elements of the OCC's computing environment. In recent weeks, the Information System s Business Analyst has been rebuilding, upgrading and extending the capability of servers that are key to staff research and reference, internal calendaring, document and data exchange with SFPD and response to records requests fro m the City Attorney, District Attorney, Public Defender and others.

C. Training

In August, Director Hicks, who is a member of the board of directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE), hosted a training event for Bay Area oversight organization staff. Mediation Coordinator Donna Salazar offered a presentation on Police/Citizen Mediation and Policy Attorney Samara Marion offered a presentation on policy issues.

In September, Director Hicks led a delegation consisting of OCC investigators and attorneys to the NACOLE annual training conference. At the conference, the Director moderated a panel on mediation. Policy Attorney Marion co-presented at a session entitled "Civilian Oversight's Role in Police Training". Ms. Marion used excerpts from police training she developed in partnership with SFPD on language barriers and children of arrested parents procedures. OCC investigator, Jayson Wechter, co- presented at a session on planning and prioritizing investigations.

D. Budget

During the third quarter, Mayor Lee signed the City's two-year budget for 2014/15 and 2015/16. The budget provided the OCC with $5.1 million for fiscal years 2014/15 and 2015/16. It also provided funding for a car to replace the OCC's aging Crown Victoria with a Toyota Prius.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2014 third quarter, the OCC opened 557 new cases, and closed 525 cases. The OCC closed the quarter with 345 pending cases, which are 3 fewer pending cases than the close of the third quarter in 2013. By the end of the 2014 third quarter, there were 319 pending cases from 2014, 23 cases from 2013, one case from 2012, and two cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

The average caseload in the third quarter of 2014 decreased to 22 cases per investigator versus 25 cases per investigator at the close of the third quarter in 2013, both above best practices caseloads for civilian oversight investigators.[2]

[2] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators

The average number of days to close cases between the third quarters of 2013 and 2014 increased by 16% from 138 in the third quarter of 2013 to 161 in the third quarter of 2014. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the third quarter of 2014, OCC investigators closed 186 cases with 76% of them closing within 270 days and only three of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is less timely than the third quarter of 2013 where of the 168 cases closed, 86% of them were closed within nine months. In addition to higher than best practices caseloads, a nearly 50% increase in cases with sustained allegations in the third quarter of 2014 over the third quarter of 2013 impeded a prompter disposition of cases with no sustainable allegations during the third quarter of 2014.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of cases with sustained allegations increased during the first nine months of 2014, compared to the first nine months of 2013; a 7% sustained rate the first nine months of 2014 and a 4% sustained rate the first nine months of 2013. In the first quarter of 2014, the OCC sustained allegations in eight cases, it sustained allegations in another 16 in the second quarter, and in the third quarter the OCC sustained allegations in 15 cases. The average number of days for the OCC to close cases with sustained allegations increased by nineteen days for the third quarter of 2014 compared to the third quarter of 2013. In the third quarter of 2014, three cases or 20% of cases with sustained allegations were completed within nine months and no case with a sustained allegation was completed more than 365 days after its receipt. This is a less timely result than the second quarter of 2014 where 44% of cases with sustained allegations were completed within 270 days. The average number of days to close cases with sustained allegations increased to 306 days during the third quarter of 2014 from 291 days during the second quarter of 2014.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the third quarter of 2014, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 14 of the 15 complaints with sustained allegations, or 93% of them. Four of these fifteen complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or 29% of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Complaints with sustained allegations for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 26 % of all complaints with sustained allegations the third quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[3] The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional allegations sustained included:

1. Unwarranted action:
    a. Using a Department computer to access Facebook and make written comments on Facebook unrelated to Department work.
    b. Displaying a weapon to a juvenile without justification.
    c. Searching the complainant without cause.
    d. Detaining, arresting and citing the complainant without justification.
    e. Improperly seizing a bicycle and releasing it to an individual the complainant alleged wrongfully took it.

2. Conduct reflecting discredit:
    a. Making inappropriate comments.
    b. Failure to provide name and star number to the complainant upon request.
    c. Using profanity and making other inappropriate comments.

3. Neglect of duty:
    a. Failing to provide a certificate of release after detaining a juvenile.
    b. Failure to investigate by not obtaining complainant's version of the incident.
    c. Failure to include on the incident report that an officer interpreted for the Spanish-speaking complainant.
    d. Failure to properly process complainant's property resulting in the loss of the complainant's bicycle when the complainant was taken into custody.
    e. Failure to prepare an incident report when the complainant reported that her purse, wallet, and other belongings were taken from her at a bus shelter.
    f. Failure to properly process property by forgetting that complainant's purse was in the trunk of a patrol vehicle and leaving it there for three months.
    g. Failure to properly investigate a traffic collision.

[3] Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and the Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

h. Failure to complete an accurate traffic collision report.
i. Approving an incomplete and inaccurate traffic collision report.
j. As a Field Training Officer, failure to instruct the trainee on lawful pat searches and on the collection of traffic stop data.
k. Failure to complete a certificate of release after handcuffing the complainant and the complainant's passengers and ordering them to sit on the sidewalk.
l. Failure to include in the incident report the primary language spoken by a Spanish-speaking limited English proficient person and failure to identify the officer who provided the language assistance.
m. Failure to prepare an incident report in a dispute between a taxi driver and the driver's fares.
n. Failure to properly investigate a dispute over a bicycle resulting in the officer's seizure of the bicycle and release of the bicycle to a person the complainant alleged had wrongfully taken it from the complainant. Failure to prepare an incident report documenting the dispute over a bicycle.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards report on a case with sustained allegations to the Chief of Police, she can recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Cases with sustained allegations that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to concur with the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the third quarter, the Chief of Police made the following determinations on the twenty-one OCC cases where the OCC made a sustained finding on one or more allegations as follows:[4]

- Neglect of Duty – A sergeant failed to collect traffic stop data. The sergeant was admonished and retrained.

- Discourtesy – In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 14, Public Courtesy, an officer used profanity and a sexual slur. The officer was admonished and retrained.

[4] Disciplinary determinations made by the Chief of Police during this third quarter are not necessarily for cases where the OCC made findings of sustained during this third quarter.

- Neglect of Duty – In violation of Departm ent General Order 5.20, an officer failed to interview the co mplainant in her prim ary language, Cantonese. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Unwarranted Action and Neglect of Duty – In violation of DGOs 5.08, Non-Uniformed Officers and 9.01, Traffic Enforcement, while in plain clothes and driving an unmark ed vehicle, officers initiated a traffic stop and issued the complainant a traffic citation for conduct that did not con stitute an "aggravated situation" and for conduct that was not observed. An officer wrote the wrong vehicle code section and date on the complainant's citation. By conducting a traffic stop in violation of DGOs 5.08 and 9.01, the officers de tained the com plainant without justification. The officers were admonished and retrained.

- Unwarranted Action – In violation of DGO 10.08, Unauthorized Use of Office Technologies and Department Bulletin 13-156, Use of Computers and Peripheral Equipment, an officer used a Department computer and Department internet access without permission to make written comments on Facebook that were unrelated to her work. The officer received a written reprimand.

- Neglect of Duty –In violation of Department General Orders 2.01 and 5.20 and the report writing manual, an officer failed to obtain the complainant's account of the incident where the complainant received injuries during a fight, omitted the complainant's statement from the incident report, and neglected to indicate in the incident report that another officer interviewed the complainant at the scene in his primary language, Spanish. Admonishment and retraining.

- Neglect of Duty and Unwarranted Action– The OCC determined that in violation of Department General Order 5.02, an officer displayed his weapon to the young teenaged complainant without justification and in violation of Department General Order 5.03; the officer detained the complainant without reasonable suspicion and failed to issue the complainant a certificate of release. Chief Suhr did not concur that the officer was out of policy in displaying his weapon but he found the officer should have explained to the complainant why he displayed the weapon once the officer quickly determined the complainant was not the suspect. Chief Suhr found the detention proper but concurred that the officer should have documented the detention and issued the complainant a certificate of release. Admonishment and retraining.

- Neglect of Duty – In violation of DGOs 1.03, 2.01 and 6.15, an officer failed to properly investigate a dispute over a bicycle, failed to prepare an incident report and failed to properly process property by releasing the bicycle to the person the complainant reported as the bicycle thief. Written reprimand and retraining.

The officer also failed to collect traffic stop data. In violation of The San Francisco Field Training Program Manual for FTOs, the recruit's Field Training Officer failed to properly instruct the recruit on lawful pat searches and the duty to collect traffic stop data. Admonishment and retraining.

- Neglect of Duty – In violation of Department General Order 5.02. Language Access Services for Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons, an officer who prepared an incident report based on information obtained by an officer who provided language assistance services, failed to list the officer who provided the language assistance services and did not identify the LEP individuals in the report. In violation of Department Bulletin 1.04. Duties of Sergeants, the recruit's Field Training Officer, a sergeant, who responded to the incident and reviewed the incident report, overlooked the requirement that the incident report identify the officer who provided the language assistance. Admonishment and retraining.

- Neglect of Duty – In violation of Department General Order 1.04. Duties of Sergeants and 5.03. Investigative Detentions, the supervising sergeant failed to ensure that the complainant was issued a certificate of release after the complainant was released from a twenty minute detention. During the detention, the complainant and his passengers were made to sit on the curb and were handcuffed while the officers searched the complainant's car for guns. Admonishment and retraining.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Officer-Involved Shootings

At the end of the third quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two officer-involved shootings. Of the two officer-involved shooting complaints under investigation, both complaints resulted in the death of the suspects.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

At the end of the third quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entries and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior.

C. Valencia Gardens Incident

In 2013, the OCC received two complaints regarding an incident that involved several SFPD officers and residents of the Valencia Gardens housing complex. The complaints contain allegations of excessive use of force, unlawful detentions and arrests, unlawful entry and inappropriate behavior. The investigation remained pending at the end of the third quarter.

D. Complaint Regarding SFPD's Crime Lab

At the end of the third quarter, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint from a sexual assault victim who complained about SFPD's failure to promptly process evidence.

E. Officer-Involved Discharge During Vehicle Pursuit

In the third quarter, the OCC received a complaint regarding a vehicle pursuit where an officer discharged his firearm at the suspect during the pursuit.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2014 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2013 cases and by the end of the third quarter 2014 staff had closed 97% of them, leaving 3% or 23 of the 2013 cases pending. These statistics are nearly identical to statistics at the end of the 2013 third quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2012 cases, and had closed 97% of them, leaving 3% or 19 of the 2012 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the leadership of Inés Vargas Fraenkel. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief's staff when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this third quarter, the Legal Unit presented one (1) hearing at the Chief's Hearing level, which involved an officer's failure to write an incident report.

One OCC case remained on the Police Commission's docket this third quarter.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During this third quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted to the Executive Director thirteen (13) sustained reports[5], each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VII. MEDIATION

During the third quarter of 2014, the OCC mediated 9 cases compared to 18 cases in the third quarter of 2013. At the end of the third quarter the OCC had mediated 39 cases compared to 42 in 2013.

[5] Two additional sustained reports each with a sustained allegation of neglect of duty for failure to collect traffic stop data were submitted by the Deputy Director to the Executive Director for review.

In 2013, officer participation in the mediation program declined. That year, nearly 14% of officers declined to mediate compared to only 7% in 2012. Through the third quarter of 2014, six officers, or 5% declined mediation. Of the 42 citizens offered mediation, 31 or 73% agreed to mediate.

During the third quarter of 2014, the Mediation Coordinator was contacted by oversight representatives from Albuquerque and New Orleans regarding instituting mediation programs in those jurisdictions. In September, the Mediation Coordinator discussed the OCC mediation program with a class of mediators at UC Hastings School of Law.

The mediation program continued to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the third quarter of 2014, the OCC was engaged in local outreach activities as well as networking with other agencies on a state and national level.

Director Hicks made presentations about the OCC's services at Police Commission meetings held for the Mission and Central District neighborhoods during this quarter. Senior Investigator McMahon offered a presentation at an Ingleside Station community meeting. Deputy Director Baltazar, Acting Senior Investigator Fletcher, and Senior Investigator McMahon gave presentations to two groups of cadets at the Police Academy.

OCC Investigators Jessica Cole and Emily Shannon staffed a table at Northern Station's National Night Out festivities in the Western Addition. Senior Investigator McMahon and Mediation Coordinator Salazar visited the National Night Out observations in the Ingleside, and Bayview districts.

During this quarter, OCC staffed information booths at a Homeless Connect event as well as Back-to-School events in the Bayview and Western Addition Neighborhoods.

In August, OCC Attorney and Policy Attorney Samara Marion was a guest speaker on a "Know Your Rights" Commissioner Dr. Joe Marshall's Street Soldiers radio program. Ms. Marion also consulted with representatives of the U.S. Department of Justice regarding language access. Director Hicks and Ms. Marion met with representatives from the Urban Institute about the OCC's involvement in issues related to the children of arrested parents.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Policy Attorney Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the third quarter, the OCC continued its policy work on police protocols for children of arrested parents and language access.

During the third quarter, the OCC focused on developing training for the newly adopted Department General Order 7.04 that provides for children's safety during and after their parent's arrest. This DGO establishes arrest procedures such as arranging for another family member to care for the arrestee's children and handcuffing a parent outside the presence of their children. These procedures are designed to prevent a child from being left without care following a parent's arrest and reduce the traumatic impact of a parent's arrest on a child.

Working in collaboration with the Department, the OCC facilitated interviews with youth from Project WHAT who had witnessed their parent's arrest so that their experiences will be included in an upcoming SFPD officer training video. The OCC also helped coordinate a focus group involving Project WHAT youth and patrol officers to exchange information about arrest procedures involving parents with children. Two immediate recommendations resulted from these partnerships: 1) officer training that emphasizes that often there are no signs that an arrestee is a parent and 2) an incident report writing system that incorporates DGO 7.04's documentation requirements including whether the officer asked the arrestee if he or she has a child they care for, who has been designated for the child's care, and the names, ages, and school notification for each child. The OCC suggested revisions to the officer training video so that it now features a traffic arrest in which there are no indications that the driver is a parent. The OCC continues to advocate for incident report writing features to assist officers in fulfilling the documentation requirements under the new DGO.

On August 21, 2014, OCC Director Hicks and Policy Attorney Marion met with representatives from the Washington, D.C. based Urban Institute. The Urban Institute selected San Francisco as a study site, in part, because of the collaborative work of community-based organizations, the Police Department, and the OCC in establishing an arrest procedure for parents. Discussion focused, in part, on the unique role civilian oversight agencies can play in facilitating partnerships among community, government and law enforcement agencies.

The OCC continued its language access policy work throughout the third quarter. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to address on-going language access concerns.

Current projects include increasing bilingual certification opportunities for SFPD officers and civilians, enhancing LEP report-taking at district stations, and data collection on in-person interpreters and language line use.

X. CONCLUSION

As in the past six years, the OCC continues to face budget and staffing constraints that could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC remains committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS – 3rd QUARTER 2014

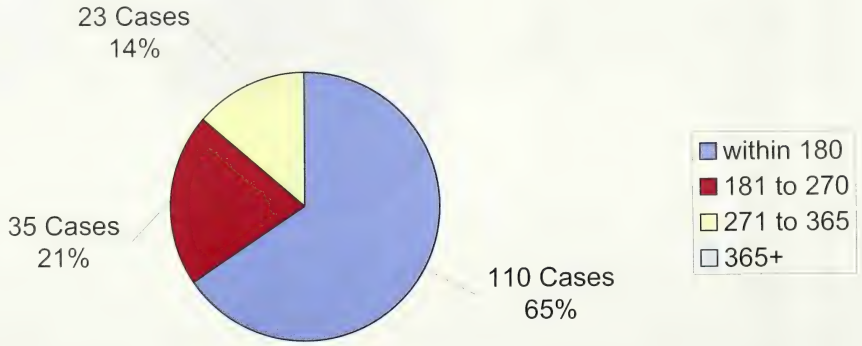

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
A	Neglect of Duty	During the investigation of a complaint involving a traffic stop, evidence suggested that officers in a specialized unit failed to make Traffic Stop Data Collection Program (E585) entries for 76% of the vehicle stops they made. The sergeant supervising this specialized unit stated that he was unable to access the E585 entries made by the officers he supervised and thus could not determine whether the officers were complying with Department requirements concerning traffic stop data collection. The OCC recommends that the Department require supervisors of specialized units to compare E585 entries of their subordinates with the number of traffic stops that subordinates make and report regularly on compliance rates to the Chief of Police.

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2015 First Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Attached is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2015 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 174 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 159 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in eight complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is an 8% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

By the close of this period, 15 permanent line investigators (8124) staffed the OCC, but only 13 of them had full caseloads during this quarter. Two permanent line investigators were acting senior investigators during the first quarter. One of the permanent line investigators acted as a senior investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the deputy director/chief of investigations position in August 2013. Another permanent line investigator acted as a senior investigator while a senior investigator was on a long term leave. Another 8124 investigator returned from extended leave near the end of the first quarter. Additionally, a temporary employee provided line investigator assistance. By the close of the first quarter, there were three investigator vacancies; two line investigators and one senior investigator. The OCC's budget provided for 17 line investigators, three senior investigators and a deputy director/ chief of investigations. By the close of the quarter, 18[1] employees (16 permanent and one temporary) staffed the 21 investigator positions.

B. Technology

During the first quarter, the OCC implemented the City's migration of department email, address book and calendaring to Microsoft 0365 cloud services.

C. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In February, the investigators received training on Department General Order 7.01, Children of Arrested Parents. The investigators also were given a presentation by the Bicycle Coalition. Three investigators attended non violent crisis intervention training.

D. Budget

After consideration by the San Francisco Police Commission, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor's Office on February 23, 2015. The Mayor's Office's 2015/2016 and 2016/2017 budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2015/2016 and 2016/2017 with a 1% reduction of general fund support for budget year 2016/17. For this reduction, the OCC's target was $34,538.00. To meet the 1% budget reduction target of $34,538 for FY 16/17, the OCC proposed to reduce its clerical staff.

The OCC's fiscal year 2015/2016 baseline budget of $5,093,985 included $4, 601,540.00 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprised 90% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs partially funded 34.75 positions; however, due to attrition costs and step adjustments, the OCC's personnel budget was $300,000 short. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $492,445, was for operations. Of this operations amount, the OCC paid $307,132 or 62% to the City to rent the OCC's office at 25 Van Ness Avenue.

The OCC proposed budget enhancements rather than reductions to include 4.25 (FTEs) full time equivalents in additional staffing. The proposed staffing included one 8124 journey level investigator, one 8126 senior investigator, one 1051 information systems business analyst assistant and 1.25 – 8177 attorneys. Additionally the OCC requested partial relief from step and attrition adjustments. The proposed enhancements totaled $636,118 for fiscal year 2015/16 and ongoing costs in 2016.17 totaling $961,596.

[1] A senior investigator remained on long term leave through the close of the first quarter.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

By the end of the 2015 first quarter, the OCC opened 179 new cases, and closed 159 cases. During this period, the OCC opened 20 more cases than it closed. The OCC closed the quarter with 355 pending cases, which are 22 more pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2014. By the end of the 2015 first quarter, there were 141 cases from 2015, 210 pending cases from 2014, two from 2013, and two cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

With only 13 investigators assigned full caseloads the first quarter of 2015 and 14 investigators assigned full caseloads the first quarter of 2014, caseloads were higher than best practices both years.[2] In the first quarter of 2015, the caseload was 25 cases per investigator versus 24 cases per investigator in the first quarter of 2014. Comparing the first quarters of 2014 and 2015, the average number of days to close cases increased by 20% from 142 to 171. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the first quarter of 2015, OCC investigators closed 159 cases with 78% of them closing within 270 days and only three of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This differs by five percentage points from 2014 where of the 168 cases closed, 83% of them were closed within 270 days. While the average number of days to close cases increased during the first quarter, the average number of days to close sustained cases decreased by 8% to 283 days. In working to better manage the OCC's challenging caseload, the OCC decided to focus on closing sustainable cases sooner.

C. Sustained Cases

The number of sustained cases in the first quarter of 2015, eight, was identical to the number of sustained cases the first quarter of 2014; a 5% sustained rate. In the first quarter of 2015, 50% or four of the sustained cases closed within nine months compared to the first quarter of 2014, where only one case or 13% of sustained cases was completed within nine months.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) Several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

[2] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators

During the first quarter of 2015, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in six of the eight sustained complaints, or 75% of them. None of these six complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations were for failure to collect traffic stop data.

The sustained allegations were as follows:

1. Unwarranted action
   Detaining, searching, and arresting a complainant and taking his property.

2. Conduct reflecting discredit:
   a. Failure to check weapon with sheriff's staff when conducting personal business at the courthouse.
   b. Losing composure in frustration with hospital staff delaying access to a patient who was in custody for psychiatric reasons, yelling and using profanity.

3. Neglect of duty for:
   a. Failure to write an incident report
   b. Failure to maintain constant radio contact with dispatch in violation of DGO 1.03 and to provide relevant information regarding the officer's on-view and the resulting course of action.
   c. Failure to properly supervise.
   d. Failure to prepare an incident report when an officer declined to take a person into custody pursuant to a request for a private person's arrest in violation of DGO 5.04.[3]
   e. Failure to call for backup when initiating a traffic stop in plain clothes in violation of DGO 5.08.
   f. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing in violation of DGO 5.03.
   g. Failure to complete a Property Inventory Arrest Form documenting the amount of cash in the envelope containing complainant's money in violation of the SFPD Booking and Detention Manual, DM-12, Section 5, Prisoner Property.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director

can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated eight OCC sustained cases as follows:[1]

- Unwarranted Action and Neglect of Duty – In an incident involving two sergeants and two complainants, one sergeant wrongfully detained and cited one complainant for marijuana possession and driving while in possession of more than an ounce of marijuana. The complainant had a medical marijuana card and the sergeant observed the complainant in a parked car but did not observe the complainant driving the car. The sergeant wrongfully seized the complainant's marijuana. The sergeant also failed to properly complete the incident report. The other sergeant wrongfully detained the co-complainant who was sitting in the passenger seat of the parked car. The sergeant failed to timely release the co-complainant once the sergeant determined the co-complainant had no warrants and a valid driver's license. The sergeants were admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – An officer woke the complainant who was sleeping on a Golden Gate Park bench in violation of the Park Code. The officer cited the complainant but the complainant refused to sign the ticket. In the officer's words, rather than making a time consuming custodial arrest, the officer released the complainant with a warning. In violation of Department General Order 9.05, the officer failed to void the incomplete citation causing the citation to be processed by the Traffic Court and resulting in a $192 fine being levied against the complainant. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Neglect of Duty – In violation of Department General Oder 2.01, Rules 9 and 14, an officer failed to promptly and politely provide in writing his name and star number to the complainant upon request. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Unwarranted Action – An officer wrongfully seized the complainant's keys from the complainant's double parked unoccupied truck with the engine running. The officer placed a citation on the truck for leaving it running. The officer then left the vicinity of the truck because he was flagged down by someone advising him that a person had fallen around the corner. The officer would have had limited authority to enter the truck to initiate a tow of the truck or if the officer believed the entry or search was necessary to protect lives or property from imminent damage. The officer instead said he seized the keys to prevent the truck from being stolen. Chief Suhr did not concur with the OCC's sustained finding and found Proper Conduct.

- Neglect of duty – In violation of Department General Order 5.04, an officer failed to prepare an incident report documenting that he did not find cause to facilitate a citizen's arrest. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Conduct reflecting discredit – In violation of civil court house rules, an inspector wore a gun while conducting personal business in court. The officer was admonished and retrained.

- Conduct reflecting discredit – An officer engaged in inappropriate language and used profane language. The officer received a written reprimand.

- Neglect of duty – A plainclothes officer made a traffic stop because he believed the complainant's driving was an immediate danger to the public. In violation of Department General Order 5.08, the officer failed to call for a marked backup unit. The officer was admonished and retrained.

J. SFPD Department General Order 8.10, Guidelines For First Amendment Activities
The OCC received a complaint regarding a man questioned by a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Agent and a member of the San Francisco Police Department regarding a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request that the man had filed concerning his recent travel issues. The complaint alleges among other things violations of Department General Order 8.10 and biased policing prohibitions.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2015 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2014 cases and had closed 71% of them, leaving 29% of the 2014 cases pending. At the end of the 2014 first quarter, staff had also completed intake on all its 2013 cases, and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2013 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the supervision of Executive Director Joyce Hicks. Attorneys Ines Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality, prepare legal opinions and manage records requests including subpoenas, Pitchess motions and Sunshine Ordinance and Public Records Act requests. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this first quarter, the Legal Unit presented one case on appeal by an officer at the Chief's Hearing level, which had sustained allegations against an officer for violating Department General Order 6.09 for instead of arresting the perpetrator, arresting without cause, the complainant, the victim of domestic violence.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the first quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted four sustained reports, each of which involved one or more sustained allegations against one or more officers.

VII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2015, the OCC mediated twelve cases compared to seventeen cases in 2014.

In March of 2015, Donna Salazar, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator, hosted a group of volunteer mediators on a trip to Alcatraz to visit the Ai Wei Wei Exhibit. Ai Wei Wei is an internationally renowned artist and advocate for human rights. This was an excellent opportunity to show our appreciation to the mediators who dedicate their time and talents to making our program so successful. Sixty mediators and members of the OCC staff made the trip.

During this quarter, Ms. Salazar also met with representatives from the San Mateo Peninsula Conflict Resolution Program and the Contra Costa County Center for Human Development regarding the possibility of initiating a police/citizen mediation program in those jurisdictions. Ms. Salazar was consulted regarding a proposed Request for Proposals for grants to be offered by the National Association for Community Mediation (NAFCAM) and Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (JAMS).

Ms. Salazar offered a presentation about the OCC Mediation Program and coached a role play for a mediation class at the University of California Berkeley.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2015, the OCC was engaged in the following outreach activities:

In January, Director Hicks, who sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE), attended a mid-winter meeting to finalize scheduling for the 2015 Annual Training Conference to be held at the Mission Inn in Riverside, California from October 4 through October 8, 2015.

In February, Director Hicks was a panelist speaking on civilian oversight and police liability at a municipal law symposium sponsored by Chapman University and the League of California Cities.

During the first quarter, Director Hicks attended Police Commission meetings and gave regular updates regarding the work of the OCC. In addition, she gave a detailed presentation on the functions of the OCC at a community meeting in the Park District in March.

In January, OCC Attorney Manuel Fortes gave a presentation at a Brothers for Change function honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Mr. Fortes also participated in a panel discussion at the University of San Francisco on improving police and community relations.

In February, the San Francisco Children of Incarcerated Parents Partnership's newsletter highlighted the OCC's and OCC attorney Samara Marion's collaborative role in producing SFPD's officer training video on Department General Order 7.04, procedures for safeguarding children at the time of a parent's arrest.

In March, Attorney Ines Frankel and Deputy Director Erick Baltazar gave a presentation at the San Francisco General Hospital to resident physicians about the functions of the OCC.

The Deputy Director along with Senior Investigator Edward McMahon for the first group, Acting Senior Investigator Sherry Fletcher for the second group and Acting Senior Investigator Steve Ball for the third group, offered presentations to three groups of police recruits at the Police Academy in February and March.

During this quarter, Investigator Kacy Green staffed an informational table at an Operation Homeless Connect event and Investigator Sara Maunder and Mediation Coordinator Donna Salazar staffed an informational table at the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth and Families.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the first quarter 2015, the OCC continued its policy work on language access and police protocols for children of arrested parents. The OCC also made recommendations to establish written procedures and training regarding officer-initiated incapacity proceedings against a driver.

On January 9, 2015, in partnership with SFPD and San Francisco Children of Incarcerated Parents Partnership, the OCC presented to the Police Commission the officer training video for Department General Order 7.04. This training video explains police procedures for ensuring the safety of children during and after their parent's arrest. The San Francisco Youth Commission awarded a commendation to the San Francisco Police Department, the Office of Citizen Complaints, Project WHAT and the San Francisco Children of Arrested Parents Partnership for the "successful completion of a collaboratively-developed quality training tool" that includes "the voices of youth who have been affected by their parent's incarceration, as well as examples of real scenarios that might be encountered by officers when making arrests of parents." (See San Francisco Youth Commission Resolution No.1415-RC-02.)

To comply with officers' documentation responsibilities under DGO 7.04, the OCC drafted suggested changes to SFPD's incident report so that officers would indicate whether an arrestee is responsible for a dependent child under 18 years old and if so, provide the name and contact information of the person who assumed responsibility for the child.

Throughout the first quarter, the OCC continued its language access policy work. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, Police Commissioner Sonia Melara, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to address on-going language access concerns. Projects during the first quarter included establishing a written procedure for the timely translation of statements from Limited English Proficient victims, witnesses and suspects, providing interpreter training and data collection on in-person interpreters as mandated under Department General Order 5.20, and increasing bilingual certification opportunities for SFPD officers and civilians.

X. CONCLUSION

Despite budget and staffing constraints the OCC remained committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2015 Second Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Attached is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2015 second quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 164 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 162 complaints in the second quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 19 complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 12% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is an 8% mediation rate. Combining the first and second quarters, the adjusted total of complaints received is 339, the total of complaints closed is 321, the total of complaints sustained is 27, and the total of mediations is 29. Combining both quarters the sustained rate is 8% and the mediation rate is 12%

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

By the close of this period, 16 permanent line investigators (8124) staffed the OCC, but only 13 of them had full caseloads during this quarter. Two permanent line investigators were acting senior investigators during the second quarter. One of the permanent line investigators acted as a senior investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the deputy director/chief of investigations position in August 2013. Another permanent line investigator acted as a senior investigator while a senior investigator was on a long term leave. By the close of the second quarter, there were two investigator vacancies; two line investigators and one senior investigator. The OCC's budget provided for 17 line investigators, three senior investigators and a deputy director/chief of investigations. By the close of the quarter, 18[1] employees staffed the 21 investigator positions.

San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers. With 2,176 sworn SFPD members during the second quarter, the floor was 15 line investigators.

B. Technology

During the second quarter the IS Business Analyst troubleshot various aspects of OCC's transition to Microsoft Office 365 services, began work on next generation template installations for all OCC PCs and laptops, conducted inventories and audits and worked with vendors on fiscal year-end purchases. As always, he assisted investigators and other staff with technical aspects of their work and prepared statistical data for reports.

C. Training

During the second quarter of 2015, the OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In May, the investigators received training from Sergeant Cristina Franco of SFPD Internal Affairs Division. They also received training on accessing DMV records. During the second quarter, an OCC staff member received language access training.

D. Budget

During the second quarter, the OCC Director testified at two Board of Supervisors Public Safety Committee meetings, and three Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee meetings on how enhancements to the OCC's budget could contribute to increasing public trust in the San Francisco Police Department. During the first quarter the OCC proposed budget enhancements rather than reductions to include 4.25 (FTEs) full time equivalents in additional staffing. The proposed staffing included one 8124 journey level investigator, one 8126 senior investigator, one 1051 information systems business analyst assistant and 1.25 – 8177 attorneys. Additionally the OCC requested partial relief from step and attrition adjustments. The proposed enhancements totaled $636,118 for fiscal year 2015/16 and ongoing costs in 2016/17 totaling $961,596.

On April 30, 2015, Mayor Edwin M. Lee, Board President London Breed, other members of the Board, announced a proposed package of initiatives to increase public safety and implement police reforms including accelerated hiring, increased civilian oversight, more training for officers and deploying body cameras for every SFPD police officer on the street. Mayor Lee accepted the OCC's budget request to fund 4.25 positions. The press release read as follows:

> "San Francisco deserves the best in 21st Century policing and this comprehensive package of public safety reforms will help our police officers further strengthen their ties with the community," said Mayor Lee. "It is that community trust that has helped San Francisco remain one of the safest big cities in the nation and this plan will ensure that our Police Department has the resources they need to continue their work to protect and serve. "With increased civilian oversight, more training, accelerated hiring, and the latest technology, our sworn officer can do their job with even greater transparency and accountability."
> "We entrust the police to keep our citizens safe and as elected officials our citizens entrust us to ensure the police have all the tools, resources and education to do their job," said Board President Breed. "This is a win-win for both the police and the community."
>
> "We have learned lessons from around the country, and we are responding to our residents' requests," said Supervisor Malia Cohen. "Investing in body cameras for our police force, and providing additional resources for the Office of Citizens' Complaints are proactive and measurable steps towards strengthening community trust in the police."
>
> "San Francisco is embracing, acknowledging and promoting 21st Century policing policies every day," said Chief Suhr. "More sworn officers, additional training, greater civilian oversight, and the use of body cameras on all our sworn officers will help protect the people of San Francisco and at the same time create a greater sense of community trust as police officers do the job they have sworn to do."
>
> Mayor Lee's hiring plan will accelerate the hiring of 250 new police officers over the next two years. This will include two additional academy classes at a cost of $10.2 million in FY15-16 and $11.1 million in FY16-17. This proposal will allow the City to meet its mandatory staffing requirement of 1,971 officers in June of 2017, a full year ahead of schedule.
>
> Additionally, the Mayor's proposed budget will fund four new staff at the Office of Citizens Complaint (OCC) to fully fund OCC's budget request which includes a new investigator, a senior investigator, attorney and a technician assistant.[2]

At the conclusion of its June budget hearings, the Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee forwarded the proposed City and County of San Francisco 2015/2016 and 2016/2017 two year budget to the full Board of Supervisors for first reading at its July 14, 2015 meeting.[3] Pursuant to Charter, Section 9.100(b), time period for the Board of Supervisors to finally adopt the Budget was no earlier than July 15th nor later than August 1st.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

By the end of the 2015 second quarter, the OCC opened 167[4] new cases, and closed 162 cases. During this period, the OCC opened 5 more cases than it closed. The OCC closed the quarter with 361 pending cases, which are 39 more pending cases than the close of the second quarter in 2014. By the end of the 2015 second quarter, there were 248 cases from 2015, 109 pending cases from 2014, two from 2013, and two cases from 2011. Between January 1, 201, and June 30, 2015, the OCC opened 347 cases, closed 321 cases and sustained 27 cases.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

With only 13 investigators assigned full caseloads the second quarter of 2015 and 16 investigators assigned full caseloads the second quarter of 2014, caseloads were higher than best practices both years.[5] In the second quarter of 2015, the caseload was 33 cases per investigator versus 23 cases per investigator in the second quarter of 2014. Comparing the second quarters of 2014 and 2015, the average number of days to close cases increased by 12% from 170 to 190. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the second quarter of 2015, OCC investigators closed 162 cases with 71% of them closing within 270 days and only six of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This differs by six percent from 2014 where of the 172 cases closed, 80% of them were closed within 270 days. The average number of days to close sustained cases also increased, but only by 3% from 291 days to 299 days. In working to better manage the OCC's challenging caseload, the OCC is continuing to focus on closing sustainable cases

[3] The San Francisco Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee's proposed 2015/2016 – 2016/2017 two-year budget included the OCC's proposed budget enhancements.

[4] The adjusted total of opened cases was 164 cases during the 2015 second quarter.

[5] In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators sooner. However, with three less investigators in the second quarter of 2015 than the second quarter of 2014, reducing case closure time remained elusive.

C. Sustained Cases

The number of sustained cases in the second quarter of 2015, 19, is three more than the 16 sustained cases the second quarter of 2014 and is a 12% sustained rate. In the second quarter of 2015, 42% or eight of the sustained cases closed within nine months which is similar to the closure time in the second quarter of 2014, where 44% of sustained case closures occurred within nine months. Combining the eight sustained cases in the first quarter with the 19 in the second quarter, the half year sustained rate is 8% compared to 7% as of June 30, 2014.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) Several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the second quarter of 2015, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 17 of the 19 sustained complaints, or 89% of them. Seven of the complaints were sustained in whole or in part for neglect of duty for failure to collect traffic stop data.

The sustained allegations during the second quarter were as follows:

In violation of Department Bulletin 13-091, the officers failed to collect traffic stop data.

4. Unnecessary force:
Officers used unnecessary force when arresting the complainant.

D. Sustained Findings for Failure to Collect Traffic Stop Data

In the second quarter of 2015, officers failed to collect traffic stop data in 7 of 19 cases with sustained findings or in 37% of cases with sustained findings. In the first quarter of 2015, there were no cases with sustained findings for failure to collect traffic stop data and in the second quarter of 2014, four of the 12 complaints with sustained neglect of duty findings, or 33% of them were for failure to collect traffic stop data.

The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[6] The Northeastern University Racial Profiling Data Collection Center cites several benefits of collecting stop data for both law enforcement and the community. The Center has found that collecting data about those who are stopped, searched, cited and arrested can[7]:

- Send a strong message to the community that the department is against racial profiling and that racial profiling is inconsistent with effective policing and equal protection
- Build trust and respect for the police in the communities they serve
- Provide departments with information about the types of stops being made by officers, the proportion of police time spent on high-discretion stops, and the results of such stops
- Help shape and develop training programs to educate officers about racial profiling and interactions with the community
- Enable the development of police and community dialogue to assess the quality and quantity of police-citizen encounters
- Allay community concerns about the activities of police
- Identify potential police misconduct and deter it when implemented as part of a comprehensive early warning system
- Retain autonomous officer discretion and allow for flexible responses in different situations

E. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the second quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated eight OCC sustained cases as follows:[8]

- Neglect of duty and Conduct Reflecting Discredit – In violation of Department General Order 2.01, an officer engaged in discourteous conduct. In violation of Vehicle code sections 21100.3, 23123, and Department Bulletin 13-135, Use of Cellular Phones, an officer used his cell phone while driving. Chief Suhr found improper conduct for the cell phone use. The officer is retired.

[8] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during the second quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this first quarter.

- Neglect of duty – In violation of Department General Order 7.01, an officer, failed to adjust a juvenile's handcuffs after the juvenile complained they were too tight. Another officer violated DGO 7.01 for preparing an incomplete incident report that omitted significant details and information about the juvenile's detention, arrest and custody. In violation of Department General Order 1.04 and SFPD's Report Writing Manual, a sergeant failed to recognize the inadequacy of the incident report. The officers and sergeant received written reprimands and were retrained.

- Neglect of Duty, Unlawful Detention, Filing False Charges and Failure to Properly Supervise – In violation of Department General Order 5.08 plainclothes officers made a traffic stop of a bicyclist riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. The bicyclist's conduct did not meet the exceptions to the general prohibition against plainclothes officers making traffic stops. Those exceptions include the officer engaging in an activity related to an ongoing investigation or regulated vehicle enforcement, e.g. taxicabs, shuttle buses or limousines or when the officer witnesses an aggravated situation requiring immediate action to protect life or property, e.g. drunk driving. Moreover, even if the stop had met the exceptions, the officers failed to call for a marked backup unit. The officers also failed to collect traffic stop data. The officers received written reprimands and retraining. Chief Suhr did not concur with additional sustained allegations including unlawful detention, filing false charges, and failure to properly supervise.

- Conduct Reflecting Discredit and Failure to Properly Supervise – An officer used profane and threatening language when detaining the complainant and the sergeant who was at the scene did not intervene or correct the officer's conduct. The officer received a written reprimand and retraining. Chief Suhr did not concur that the sergeant engaged in misconduct.

K. Complaint Filed by a San Francisco Department Head Against an SFPD Lieutenant
In the second quarter 2015, the OCC received a complaint from a San Francisco Department Head regarding an alleged battery committed by an SFPD lieutenant during a meeting.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2015 second quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2014 cases and had closed 85% of them, leaving 15% of the 2014 cases pending. At the end of the 2014 second quarter, staff had also completed intake on all its 2013 cases, and had closed 89% of them, leaving 11% of the 2013 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the supervision of Executive Director Joyce Hicks. Attorneys Ines Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality, prepare legal opinions and manage records requests including subpoenas, Pitchess motions and Sunshine Ordinance and Public Records Act requests. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this second quarter, the Legal Unit did not present any cases on appeal by an officer at the Chief's Hearing level.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the second quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted five sustained reports, each of which involved one or more sustained allegations against one or more officers. They also provided legal opinions for five complaints. Additionally, they advised staff on a subpoena duces tecum.

VII. MEDIATION

During the second quarter 2015, the OCC mediated seventeen cases compared to thirteen in 2014. At the end of the second quarter, the OCC has mediated twenty-nine cases compared to thirty during the first six months of 2014.

In 2015, there was an increase in officer participation. During the first half of 2015, two officers or 5% declined to meet. In the first half of 2014, five officers, or 9% declined mediation. The mediation coordinator continues to document the numbers and circumstances of officers who decline to meet. The responses indicate that officers who decline, do so because of the circumstances of the particular case and/or the complainant rather than a reluctance to participate in the program.

During the second quarter of 2015, the Coordinator served as a grant reviewer for the National Association for Community Mediation (NAFCAM) and the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (JAMS). The coordinator was previously contacted regarding the proposed mini-grant program to promoted conflict resolution services between local community mediation programs and local law enforcement. In that capacity she worked with colleagues in ADR, civilian oversight, and law enforcement from around the country.

The mediation program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the second quarter of 2015, the OCC was engaged in local outreach activities as well as networking with other agencies on a state and national level.

During the second quarter, the Executive Director Hicks testified at two Board of Supervisors Public Safety Committee meetings, on how recruitment of a diverse SFPD workforce, implicit bias and diversity training for SFPD officers, body worn cameras for SFPD officers and enhancements to the OCC's budget could contribute to increasing public trust in the San Francisco Police Department.

Beginning in January and continuing through the second quarter, the Director and Attorney Manuel Fortes met monthly as members of the Bar Association of San Francisco Criminal Justice Task Force.[9] Director Hicks and Attorney Fortes serve on [9] In January 2015 the BASF Board of Directors convened a Task Force on the Criminal Justice System, composed of prosecutors, defense attorneys, civil rights attorneys, law professors, the judiciary, members of law enforcement (police and sheriff) and police oversight agencies. The Task Force formed several subcommittees to examine current practices regarding the collection and retention of data in detentions/arrests, use and policies regarding body cameras, training regarding bias (including implicit bias), use of grand juries in police-involved shootings, and civilian oversight. As a whole, the Task force meets monthly while the committee work is ongoing. Each committee has undertaken a comprehensive examination of current practices of the San Francisco Police Department and the surrounding bay area law enforcement agencies. A bipartisan and thorough analysis of best practices, the civilian oversight subcommittee and Attorney Fortes also serves on the data collection subcommittee.

On April 17, 2015, Director Hicks appeared on KQED NEWSROOM's televised show entitled "Public Trust in SFPD Shaken."[10] Director Hicks joined San Francisco Supervisor David Campos, Police Chief Greg Suhr, District Attorney George Gascón, San Francisco Public Defender Matt Gonzalez, and Officers for Justice President and SFPD Sergeant Yolanda Williams to discuss issues within the police department ranging from the bigoted text messages to management of the crime lab.

The Deputy Director and Senior Investigator Sherry Fletcher taught a class of cadets at the San Francisco Police Academy in May. Investigators Sara Maunder and Kacy Green participated in a career fair for youth in San Francisco. This event was sponsored by Mo' MAGIC and SFPD and also honored recipients of Mayor Lee's "I am the Future" Scholarship Awards.

Mediation Coordinator Donna Salazar met with community organizations regarding upcoming outreach activities for the fall. She also attended a Peninsula Conflict Resolution function on improving public safety in communities. Ms. Salazar and Staff Attorney Manuel Fortes staffed a table at San Francisco's Juneteenth Festival. Ms. Salazar and other OCC staff members attended the Public Defenders' Justice Summit on Race and Reform, and the District Attorney's Summit on Law Enforcement, Race, and Justice.

In May, OCC Policy Attorney Samara Marion gave a talk on strategies and solutions to minimize trauma to children of arrested parents to law enforcement and social service agencies during a conference hosted by Alameda County Children of Incarcerated Parents Partnership.

On June 10, 2015, Director Hicks presented the OCC's 2014 Annual Report, the 2014-15 Strategic Outreach Report and Plan, as well as a report on OCC's customer satisfaction surveys. In June, Director Hicks, Deputy Erick Baltazar Director, and Policy Attorney Samara Marion met with a delegation of twenty-five Indian government officials who were attending the Goldman School of Public Policy.

their political and practical implications requires a dedication of time, spirit and know-how by all Task Force members. The Task Force will meet through April 2016 and may expand its work the following

They provided a presentation on OCC's history, investigative and policy-making roles, which fostered a lively comparison of policing in India and the United States.

In June, Ms. Marion made a presentation entitled, "The Office of Citizen Complaints and Its Collaborative Role in Police-Community Relations" during a hearing before the Mayor's Disability Council on police interactions with individuals with mental illness and cognitive disorders. Ms. Marion also attended the opening exhibit "The Sentence Unseen: Portraits of Resilience" at Alcatraz that featured visual and performance art by youth impacted by their parent's incarceration. Ms. Marion also participated in a roundtable discussion on "Ending Violence Against Women and Girls" sponsored by the San Francisco Department on the Status of Women and It's Time Network.

The OCC's informational, mediation and Youth Know Your Rights' brochures were translated into Braille this quarter. OCC staff also provided brochures and complaint forms to La Raza Central Legal, the La Raza Community Venter, Community United Against Violence, two offices of the Mission Resource Center, the Instituto Laboral de la Raza, Arriba Juntos, the SF Public Defender's office, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, the ACCESS Center, the Jewish Vocational Center, Asian Pacific Islander Outreach, the Asian Law Caucus, Chinese for Affirmative Action, Horizons Unlimited, the Bernal Neighborhood Center, as well as the ten District Police Stations.

The OCC continues to be a resource for oversight agencies statewide and nationally. Agencies frequently consult with OCC staff regarding its unique model of civilian oversight, its police-citizen mediation program, and its policy work regarding juveniles, language access, and most recently, children of arrested parents.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. Policy work during the second quarter focused on language access and children of arrested parents protocols.

Throughout the second quarter, the OCC continued its language access policy work. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, Police Commissioner Sonia Melara, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to enhance language access services. The OCC recommended that the Department establish a written procedure for the timely translation of statements from Limited English Proficient victims, witnesses and suspects. The OCC is working with the Police Department to issue a Priority "A" Department Bulletin on this topic. The OCC also worked with the Police Department on a survey for Department General Order 5.20 training to enable officers to evaluate language access services and the training video developed by the Language Access Working Group.

Ms. Marion presented the OCC's policy work on children of arrested parents on two webinars during the second quarter. On June 3, 2015, Ms. Marion joined SFPD Chief Greg Suhr on an Urban Institute Webinar entitled "Promising and Innovative Practices for Children of Incarcerated Parents: Arrest through Pre-Adjudication." Over 300 attendees listened to the panel. Participants included correctional officers, academics and representatives from the media, social services and community organizations from across the country.[11]

In conjunction with this webinar, the Urban Institute released their report on "Children of Incarcerated Parents Framework Document: Promising Practices, Challenges, and Recommendations for the Field" a culmination of their study of the San Francisco Bay Area and two other study sites. This report includes the OCC's role in establishing SFPD's permanent parent arrest protocol and officer training video. The Urban Institute also released a "Toolkit for Developing Parental Arrest Policies" which includes the collaborative work the OCC initiated to establish SFPD's permanent parent arrest policy.[12]

On June 15, 2015, Ms. Marion was also a presenter on a webinar entitled "Developing a Policy to Protect Children of Arrested Parents" that the International Association of Chiefs of Police hosted in collaboration with the Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs and the U.S. Department of Justice. Ms. Marion joined Chief Suhr, Nell Bernstein (author and co-founder of San Francisco Children of Incarcerated Parents Partnership), and two youths from Project WHAT (an organization for youth whose parents are incarcerated) to discuss a collaborative approach to developing and implementing a parent arrest policy.[13]

Last, Ms. Marion's article entitled "Civilian Oversight as Bridge-Builders: Collaborating with Communities and Police To Develop Trauma-Reducing Procedures for Children of Arrested Parents" was published by the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) in its Summer 2015 NACOLE Review.[14]

X. CONCLUSION

Despite budget and staffing constraints the OCC remained committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS – 2nd QUARTER 2015

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
A	Neglect of Duty	The complainant, a city employee, went to a district station to file a complaint concerning an officer's alleged criminal conduct. She wrote a statement summarizing the incident and requested a copy of her written statement. The named officer did not provide her a copy of her written statement. The named officer stated that Department General Order 2.04 instructs officers that "a Citizen Complaint form shall not be completed when the complainant is a member of the Department or is a representative of another police department or government agency. Instead, prepare a memorandum specifying the nature of the complaint and forward it to the accused officer's commanding officer." The DGO 2.04 instruction that an OCC complaint form shall not be completed when the complainant is a representative of a government agency conflicts with the OCC's jurisdiction as established in San Francisco City Charter §4.127. San Francisco City Charter §4.127 states that the OCC shall investigate "all complaints of police misconduct, or that a member of the Police Department has not properly performed a duty except those complaints which on their face clearly indicate that the acts complained of were proper and those complaints lodged by other members of the Police Department." Moreover, Penal Code §832.7 requires that a "department or agency shall release to the complaining party a copy of his or her own statements at the time the complaint is filed." Thus, regardless of the OCC's jurisdiction to receive and investigate the complainant's complaint, Penal Code §832.7 requires the police department to provide a complainant a copy of his or her own statement at the time the complaint is filed. The OCC recommends that the Police Department issue a Priority A Department Bulletin that instructs officers to comply with Penal Code §832.7 and provide complainants a copy of their statement at the time the complaint is filed.

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS – 2nd QUARTER 2015

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
B	Neglect of Duty	The named officer stopped an individual for allegedly jaywalking and did not enter any traffic stop data concerning this individual. The named officer stated that he did not enter traffic stop data required by Department Bulletin No.14-059 because the individual he stopped was on foot and the named officer believed that traffic stop data was required for vehicle stops. Department Bulletin No.14-059 states "Members are reminded to make all E585 entries after any vehicle stops related to the following incidents…."Moving violations, including bicycles and pedestrians." The evidence established that the member's explanation for not complying with Departmental Bulletin 14-059 was reasonable in light of the Department Bulletin's confusing language that requires E585 data entry after "any vehicle stop" without clarifying that members are also required to make E585 entries involving stops of bicyclists and pedestrians for moving violations. The OCC recommends that the Department revise Department Bulletin 14-059 so that it explains that traffic stop data collection includes vehicle, pedestrian and bicycle stops related to moving violations, Municipal Code violations, Penal Code violations, Transportation Code violations, 916 (suspicious) vehicle and high-risk stops, mechanical or non-moving violations, driving under the influence stops, traffic collisions, assistance to motorists, and BOLO/APB/Warrants.

Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2015 Third Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Attached is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2015 third quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 172 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 171 complaints in the third quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in eight complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 5% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is a 7% mediation rate. From the beginning of the year through the end of the third quarter, the adjusted total of complaints received is 513, the total of complaints closed is 492, the total of complaints sustained is 35, and the total of mediations is 41. As of September 30, 2015 the sustained rate was 7% and the mediation rate was 8%.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

By the close of this period, 15 permanent line investigators staffed the OCC but only 13 of them had full caseloads during this quarter. Two permanent line investigators were acting senior investigators during the third quarter. One of the permanent line investigators acted as a senior investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the deputy director/chief of investigations position in August 2013. Another permanent line investigator acted as a senior investigator while a senior investigator was on a long term leave. By the close of the third quarter, there were five investigator vacancies; three line investigators and two senior investigators. The OCC's budget provided for 18 line investigators, four senior investigators and a deputy director/chief of investigations. By the close of the third quarter, 18[1] employees staffed the 23 budgeted investigator positions.

San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers. With 2,195 sworn SFPD members during the third quarter, the floor was 15 line investigators.

B. Technology

During the third quarter, Chris Wisniewski, the Information Systems Business Analyst, began deployment of next generation template installations for all 40 existing workstations. He also started work on two next-generation media center audio/visual systems and engaged with the Department of Technology to upgrade the OCC's network. As always, he assisted investigators and other staff with technical aspects of their work and prepared statistical data for reports.

C. Training

During the third quarter of 2015, the OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees.

D. Budget

At the conclusion of its June budget hearings, the Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee forwarded the proposed City and County of San Francisco 2015/2016 and 2016/2017 two year budget to the full Board of Supervisors for first reading at its July 14, 2015 meeting.[2] The Board of Supervisors finally adopted the budget on July 28, 2015 and Mayor Edwin Lee signed the budget document on July 29, 2015. The OCC's approved budget for fiscal year 2015/2016 is $5,570,077 and for 2016/2017 is $5,932,964.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

By the end of the 2015 third quarter, the OCC opened 175[3] new cases, and closed 171 cases. During this period, the OCC opened one more case than it closed.

[1] Toward the close of the third quarter, a senior investigator returned from a year-long leave.
[2] The San Francisco Board of Supervisors Budget and Finance Committee's proposed 2015/2016 – 2016/2017 two-year budget included the OCC's proposed budget enhancements of 4.25 positions including one attorney, one .25 attorney, one senior investigator, one journey investigator and one information systems assistant..
[3] The adjusted total of opened cases was 172 cases during the 2015 third quarter.

The OCC closed the quarter with 366 pending cases, which are 21 more pending cases than the close of the third quarter in 2014. By the end of the 2015 third quarter, there were 322 cases from 2015, 40 pending cases from 2014, two from 2013, and two cases from 2011. Between January 1, 2015, and September 30, 2015, the OCC opened 524 cases, closed 492 cases and sustained 35 cases.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

With only 13 investigators assigned full caseloads the third quarter of 2015 and 15 investigators assigned full caseloads the third quarter of 2014, caseloads were higher than best practices both years.[4] In the third quarter of 2015, the caseload was 28 cases per investigator versus 22 cases per investigator in the third quarter of 2014. Comparing the third quarters of 2014 and 2015, the average number of days to close cases increased by 10% from 161 to 177. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During the third quarter of 2015, OCC investigators closed 171 cases with 73% of them closing within 270 days and only seven of them, none of which had sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This differs by five percent from 2014 where of the 186 cases closed, 76% of them were closed within 270 days. The average number of days to close sustained cases in the third quarter showed improvement by decreasing by 7% from 306 days in 2014 to 284 days in 2015. In working to better manage the OCC's challenging caseload, the OCC is continuing to focus on closing sustainable cases sooner. However, with three less investigators in the third quarter of 2015 than the third quarter of 2014, reducing case closure time remained elusive.

C. Sustained Cases

The number of sustained cases in the third quarter of 2015, eight, is seven less than the 15 sustained cases the third quarter of 2014 and is a 5% sustained rate. In the third quarter of 2015, 38% or three of the sustained cases closed within nine months which was an improvement over the closure time in the third quarter of 2014 where only 20% of sustained case closures occurred within nine months. However, the challenge in the third quarter of 2014 was the large number of sustained cases, 15, that quarter. The yearly sustained rate as of September 30, 2015 is 7%, the same as the third quarter of 2014.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least four factors: 1) larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) several high profile and complex investigations, 3) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 4) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the third quarter of 2015, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 7 of the 8 sustained complaints, or 88% of them. No complaint was sustained in whole or in part for neglect of duty for failure to collect traffic stop data.

The sustained allegations during the third quarter were as follows:

1. Unwarranted action:

   In violation of DGO 6.09, Domestic Violence, wrongful arrest of the complainant who was the victim, not the dominant aggressor.

2. Conduct reflecting discredit:

   In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 14, an officer said to the complainant, "If you think you were driving, you were tweaking."

3. Neglect of duty:

   a. When a sergeant and two plain clothes officers took the complainant into custody, the sergeant took custody of the complainant's property.

      The sergeant failed to properly process complainant's property in violation of DGO 6.15.

      While the complainant's property was listed on a San Francisco Property Inventory Arrest Record, the officer who listed the items did not complete and sign a property receipt in duplicate and give the original form to the complainant and keep one copy. Instead, the blank receipt with carbon copies still attached was placed inside a manila envelope with the complainant's property. The manila envelope was not sealed and no officer wrote his name or star number on the envelope flap. The complainant's cash was placed in a cash inventory envelope. The form on the front of the cash envelope describing currency in words and numbers was left blank.

      Upon release from jail, the complainant said one of his two diamond earrings, each worth $3,000, was missing.
      An officer failed to comply with DGO 5.20's reporting requirements.

b. An officer violated DGO 5.20 when he did not obtain an interpreter to explain to a LEP Spanish-speaking mother why he was taking her 13-year old daughter into custody.

The officer violated DGO 7.01 when he did not notify the mother of the process underway for her daughter, the reason for taking her daughter into custody, where she was going to be held, that she had been provided with the Miranda admonishment and that she was being taken to CARC.

The officer failed to call for a female officer.

The officer neglected his duties as a field training officer (FTO) in violation of DGO 1.03 and the Field Training Manual.

A sergeant violated DGO 1.04 by approving the incident report that facially showed an insufficient investigation and violations of DGO 7.01.

c. An officer violated DGO 5.04 when he failed to prepare an incident report indicating the complainant had requested a private person's arrest.

The officer violated DGO 5.03 when he failed to issue a certificate of release when he handcuffed and then released the complainant.

d. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, Misconduct and the Peace Officer Field Training Manual, Traffic Enforcement, an officer failed to include his name, star number and unit number on the citation he issued to the complainant.

e. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, Misconduct, a sergeant failed to properly supervise an officer, resulting in the officer's wrongful arrest of the complainant.

f. In violation of DGO 5.03, Investigative Detentions, an officer failed to include his signature, the time the complainant was detained and the time the complainant was released.

g. Domestic Violence Investigation and Arrest
In violation of DGO 5.20, Language Access, officers failed to obtain an interpreter for the LEP Spanish-speaking complainant.

In violation of DGO 6.09, Domestic Violence, the officers failed to properly investigate.

Officers failed to comply with DGO 7.04, Children of Arrested Parents, as they did not let the complainant explain to her children what was happening and who would care for them.

A sergeant failed to properly supervise.

Post Arrest
The sergeant who provided the DA with evidence resulting in complainant's exoneration did not complete the investigation by failing to prepare a report of the crime committed against her by her boyfriend. The sergeant also failed to provide services to the complainant as the victim of domestic violence.

Once the complainant was exonerated, an officer violated DGO 3.16 by failing to provide the complainant the incident report or explaining how public safety would be harmed if it were released.

An officer failed to comply with DGO 5.20's reporting requirements.

D. Sustained Findings for Failure to Collect Traffic Stop Data

While in the third quarter of 2015, no complaint was sustained for failure to collect traffic stop data; however, during the third quarter, one officer received an admonishment and retraining for failure to collect traffic stop data in a case the OCC sustained in the second quarter and Chief Suhr adjudicated in the third quarter of 2015.

The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.[5] The Northeastern University Racial Profiling Data Collection Center cites several benefits of collecting stop data for both law enforcement and the community. The Center has found that collecting data about those who are stopped, searched, cited and arrested can[6]:

- Send a strong message to the community that the department is against racial profiling and that racial profiling is inconsistent with effective policing and equal protection
- Build trust and respect for the police in the communities they serve
- Provide departments with information about the types of stops being made by officers, the proportion of police time spent on high-discretion stops, and the results of such stops
- Help shape and develop training programs to educate officers about racial profiling and interactions with the community
- Enable the development of police and community dialogue to assess the quality and quantity of police-citizen encounters
- Allay community concerns about the activities of police
- Identify potential police misconduct and deter it when implemented as part of a comprehensive early warning system
- Retain autonomous officer discretion and allow for flexible responses in different situations

E. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and, after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the third quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated four OCC sustained cases as follows:[7]

[5] Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

[6] Northeastern University Racial Profiling Data Collection Center

[7] Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during the third quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this third quarter.

1. Neglect of Duty – In violation of Department General Order 5.08, plainclothes officers in an unmarked vehicle made a traffic stop of the complainant that did not meet the exceptions to the prohibition against plainclothes officers making traffic stops. Those exceptions include the officer engaging in an activity related to an ongoing investigation or regulated vehicle enforcement, e.g., taxicabs, shuttle buses or limousines or when the officer witnesses an aggravated situation requiring immediate action to protect life or property, e.g., drunk driving. Moreover, even if the stop had met the exceptions, the officers failed to call for a marked backup unit. The officers also failed to collect traffic stop data.

   Additionally, the officers initiated a pursuit of the complainant's vehicle when the complainant drove away from the officers after initially stopping. Pursuant to DGO 5.05 a pursuit can be justified when the individual is suspected of a felony or there is an articulable belief that the individual needs to be immediately apprehended because of the risk the individual poses to public safety. The officers received admonishments and retraining for failure to contact Dispatch for a marked backup unit, for failure to notify Dispatch of the pursuit and for failure to collect traffic stop data.

2. Neglect of Duty – In violation of Department Bulletin 14-0459, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer received an admonishment and retraining.

3. Neglect of Duty – While investigating graffiti vandalism allegedly caused by a 13-year old who was taken into custody, a Field Training Officer failed to comply with DGO 7.01, Juvenile Policies, 5.20, Language Access for Limited English Proficient persons, DGOs 1.03, 2.01 and 3.01, investigations, maintaining knowledge, and responsibilities, and the Field Training Officer manual for failing to remediate his recruit's unfamiliarity with various department general orders. A sergeant violated DGO 3.01 for failing to properly review and order remediation of deficiencies in the incident report and the conduct of the investigation. The officer and sergeant each received an admonishment and retraining.

4. Conduct Reflecting Discredit – In violation of Department General Order 2.01, Public Courtesy, an officer in expressing disbelief of complainant's explanation that the complainant double parked, not complainant's girlfriend who had slid into the driver's seat while complainant ran an errand, said to the complainant, "If you think you were driving, you were tweaking." During his interview, the officer acknowledged "tweaking" was a derogatory term for methamphetamine use but stated he did not mean it in a derogatory manner. The officer was admonished and retrained.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Detention of a Disabled Man with Prosthetic Leg

In the third quarter 2015, the OCC received numerous complaints regarding SFPD's detention of a man with prosthetic leg. An 11-minute video of the incident was posted on numerous websites.

B. Officer-Involved Shootings

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC concluded its investigation of an officer-involved shooting. Another officer-involved shooting complaint remained open at the end of the third quarter.

C. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entries and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior.

D. Complaint Regarding SFPD's Crime Lab

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC concluded its investigation of a complaint from a sexual assault victim who complained about SFPD's failure to promptly process evidence. No allegations were sustained; however, the investigation revealed policy failures that resulted in several policy recommendations that are found in Appendix 18 of this report.

E. Wheelchair Incident

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint regarding an alleged mistreatment of a physically disabled man in a wheelchair in Visitacion Valley. The interaction between the police and the disabled man was captured on video.

F. San Francisco Woman Shot and Killed by Her Ex-boyfriend

At the end of third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint regarding a San Francisco woman who was shot and killed by her ex-boyfriend before he fatally turned the gun on himself. The woman was shot in her home from which other calls for help had been made prior to her murder.

G. San Francisco Deputy Public Defender's Arrest at the Hall of Justice

In the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate complaints regarding an incident that occurred at the Hall of Justice between an officer and a San Francisco Deputy Public Defender Attorney.

H. Racist and Homophobic Text Messages by SFPD Officers

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint regarding racist and homophobic text messages by members of the San Francisco Police Department.

I. Baby Bjorn Bicycle Incident

At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint regarding a man who filed a lawsuit accusing San Francisco police officers of wrongfully arresting the man and forcibly taking his 10-month-old son from him after stopping him for riding his bike with his child strapped to his chest in a Baby Bjorn.

J. Department General Order 8.10 Guideline for First Amendment Activities, Complaint

At the end of the third quarter, the OCC continued to investigate a complaint regarding a man questioned by a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Agent and a member of the San Francisco Police Department regarding a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request that the man had filed concerning his recent travel issues.

K. Complaint Filed by a San Francisco Department Head against a Lieutenant

At the end of the third quarter, the OCC concluded its mediation of a complaint from a San Francisco Department Head regarding an alleged battery committed by an SFPD lieutenant during a meeting.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2015 third quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2014 cases and had closed 95% of them, leaving 5% of the 2014 cases pending. At the end of the 2014 third quarter, staff had also completed intake on all its 2013 cases, and had closed 97% of them, leaving 3% of the 2013 cases pending.

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit under the supervision of Executive Director Joyce Hicks. Attorneys Ines Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality, prepare legal opinions and manage records requests including subpoenas, Pitchess motions and Sunshine Ordinance and Public Records Act requests. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During the third quarter, Attorney Manny Fortes appeared in four Chief's Hearings in two OCC Cases. All of the discipline imposed was sustained after the Chief's Hearings, including:

1. Three officers received disciplinary reprimands arising out of the arrest and injury of a minor.
2. One officer received a disciplinary reprimand for failure to prepare an incident report arising out of a pet owner dispute.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the third quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted three sustained reports, each of which involved one or more sustained allegations against one or more officers. They also provided legal opinions for three complaints.[8] Additionally, they advised staff on a subpoena duces tecum.

VII. MEDIATION

In the third quarter of 2015, the OCC completed twelve mediations compared to nine in 2014. At the end of the third quarter 2015, the OCC had mediated 41 cases compared to 39 in 2014.

[8] Deputy Director Erick Baltazar reviewed, revised and submitted to the Executive Director for review five (5) additional sustained reports, each which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

During the third quarter of 2015, 34 officers were considered for mediation. Seven of those officers or 20% were ineligible. Of the officers who were offered mediation, no officers declined compared to 4% during the same period in 2014. Of the 24 complainants offered mediation, 10 or 42% agreed to mediate.

During the third quarter of 2015, the Mediation Coordinator was contacted by a representative of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Independent Monitor's officer regarding instituting a mediation program there. In July, the Coordinator offered an orientation for ten new mediators enlarging the pool of volunteers who generously provide their services.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the third quarter of 2015, the OCC engaged in the following activities:

Director Hicks and Attorney Marion met with the Executive Director of Justice Strategies to discuss the OCC's mission, procedures and policy work.

Throughout the third quarter Director Hicks continued meeting with the body worn camera working group initiated by San Francisco Police Commission President Suzy Loftus. Director Hicks attended the Police Commission hearing on body cameras on September 16, 2015, at the Korean Community Center. She opined in her presentation on body cameras that in limited circumstances, to preserve an officer's recollection of an event, the officer should give a statement first, then view the recording and provide a supplemental statement.[9] Attorney Manny Fortes and Deputy [9] Director Joyce Hicks, OCC, described the duties and responsibilities of the OCC. Director Hicks stated that "while the OCC substantially supports the draft general order on body worn cameras, we believe allowing officers to review the recording during active internal investigations could impact the integrity of the investigations of officer misconduct. The draft DGO only precludes officers from reviewing their recordings in advance of an interview for an officer involved shooting, in-custody death, or criminal investigation. The draft DGO would permit an officer to review recording prior to an Internal Affairs Division interview and prior to an OCC interview, except under those early circumstances I've discussed." Director Hicks continued that the OCC "have concerns with this because an officer not intending to testify in matters he/she did not see, hear, or otherwise experience could be unconsciously influenced by viewing the recording in advance of the interview." Director Hicks then read quotes from the NY Attorney General.

Director Hicks stated that "the OCC recommends the following: In addition to the limitations already in the draft DGO around criminal investigations, officer-involved shootings, and in-custody deaths, there be additional language which provide when an officer is notified by OCC, Internal Affairs Division, or Director Erick Baltazar also attended body worn camera working group meetings. Director Hicks attended Police Commission meetings on July 22, August 5 and August 19. Additionally, she presented the OCC's Second Quarter 2015 report at the Police Commission's September 9, 2015 meeting. Deputy Director Baltazar attended the July 8, 2015 Police Commission meeting in Director Hicks' absence.

Deputy Director Baltazar and Investigator Candace Miles-Threatt Carpenter gave presentations to one class of recruits and a group of cadets at the Police Academy.

OCC representatives staffed a table at the National Night Out festivities in the Western Addition. Senior Investigator McMahon, Mediation Coordinator Salazar, and Investigators Cole and Dolese visited the National Night Out observations in several other districts.

During this quarter, OCC staffed information booths at a Homeless Connect event as well as Back-to-School events in the Bayview and Western Addition neighborhoods.

Attorney Manny Fortes made a presentation regarding the functions of the OCC to a class at Santa Clara Law School. He also participated in a panel discussion regarding police interaction with youth at the Black Family Day event at Mission High School.

In August, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator Salazar was contacted by the Denver Office of the Independent Monitor regarding the OCC Outreach Strategic Plan and activities. She also offered a presentation about the OCC to a group of seniors in the Bayview District and represented the OCC at the District Attorney's Summit Race and Justice.

the District Attorney, that the officer is subject to or witness in a misconduct investigation, the officer not be permitted to review the recordings in advance of the interview, but, after giving the statement, the officer should be permitted to review the video and offer a supplemental statement. And to avoid what some have referred to as the "gotcha" effect most importantly for fairness when determining truthfulness inconsistencies should be reviewed under the standard of intent and materiality. In non-disciplinary matters, in matters not involving in-custody deaths, officer-involved shootings, or criminal investigations, when an officer prepares a narrative of an incident in his/her own words, then the officer should first prepare it in his/her own words before viewing the video and then be permitted to prepare a supplemental." San Francisco Police Commission Minutes of 09.16.2015 meeting.

Throughout the third quarter, Director Hicks and Attorney Manny Fortes continued attending the San Francisco Bar Association's monthly Criminal Justice Task Force meetings. The Director and Attorney Fortes met regularly with the civilian oversight subcommittee and Attorney Fortes also met regularly with the data collection subcommittee.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. While traditionally policy attorney Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work, throughout the third quarter, as more particularly described in section VIII of this report, Director Hicks led the OCC's body worn camera policy work as a member of the Body Camera Working Group and as a presenter to the San Francisco Police Commission on the adoption of a draft San Francisco Police Department General Order on Body Worn Cameras. Attorney Marion's policy work during the third quarter focused on language access, sexual assault protocols, and formulating recommendations based on the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing.

Throughout the third quarter, the OCC continued its language access policy work. The OCC meets monthly with domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, language access advocates, city agencies, Police Commissioner Sonia Melara, and the Police Department, a practice the OCC initiated in 2012 to enhance language access services. Based on the OCC's recommendation in partnership with language access advocates, the Department issued a Priority "A" Department Bulletin that establishes a written procedure for translating statements from Limited English Proficient victims, witnesses and suspects. Pursuant to Department Bulletin 15-171, officers are now required to ensure that written statements and other documents in a foreign language are translated into English prior to filing an incident report and booking the document into evidence.

During the third quarter the OCC also made recommendations concerning the Department's sexual assault protocols. The OCC investigated a complaint from a sexual assault victim in which the evidence established that during a period of twenty-two months, the Department did not contact the victim, reassigned her case to a new inspector after the original inspector was transferred, or obtain the results of DNA testing until the victim complained. To enhance communication with sexual assault victims, the OCC recommends that the Department develop and implement a procedure that notifies sexual assault victims at least every 60 days on the status of their case.

To establish clear timelines for the testing of sexual assault forensic evidence, the OCC recommends that the Department develop and implement procedures that comply with the 2014 amendments to Penal Code §680, the "Sexual Assault Victims' DNA Bill of Rights." These procedures require crime labs receiving sexual assault forensic evidence on or after January 1, 2016, to process sexual assault forensic evidence, create DNA profiles when able, and upload qualifying DNA profiles into CODIS as soon as practically possible, but no later than 120 days after initially receiving the evidence. Alternately, a crime lab can transmit the sexual assault forensic evidence to another crime lab as soon as practically possible, but no later than 30 days after initially receiving the evidence for processing of the evidence for the presence of DNA. Additionally, the OCC recommends that annually, the Department present a written report to the Police Commission about its collection and testing of DNA evidence in sexual assault cases, including its compliance with the forensic evidence collection and processing deadlines of Penal Code §680.

In September, after reviewing the President Task Force's Reports on 21st Century Policing, the Office of Citizen Complaints made recommendations to the San Francisco Police Department to strengthen police-community relations. The OCC's nineteen recommendations cover a number of topics such as detention and consent procedures, training, use of force data, and searches of transgender individuals, to name a few. The OCC and SFPD are currently discussing these recommendations. "OCC's Recommendations to Enhance Police-Community Relations in Response to the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing" is included in this quarterly report as Appendix 1.

X. CONCLUSION

Despite staffing constraints the OCC remained committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

San Francisco Office of Citizen Complaints Recommendations to Enhance Police-Community Relations in Response to the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing

Introduction

Responding to nation-wide events about police-community relations, on December 18, 2014, President Barack Obama signed an Executive Order establishing the Task Force on 21st Century Policing. The President's Task Force's mission was to "examine how to foster strong, collaborative relationships between local law enforcement and the communities they protect and to make recommendations to the President on how police practices can promote effective crime reduction while building public trust."[1] During January and February 2015, the President's Task Force held seven sessions in Washington D.C., Phoenix, Arizona and Cincinnati, Ohio and received testimony and recommendations from over 100 law enforcement officers and executives, community members, civic leaders, advocates, researchers and academics. Releasing an interim and then final report in May 2015, the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing sets forth 59 recommendations and 92 action items in the following six areas to strengthen trust between law enforcement and the communities they serve:

- Building Trust and Legitimacy
- Policy and Oversight
- Technology and Media
- Community Policing and Crime Reduction
- Officer Training and Education
- Officer Safety and Wellness

After reviewing the President's Task Force's Interim and Final Reports, in September 2015, the Office of Citizen Complaints made recommendations to the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) to strengthen police-community relations. The OCC's recommendations cover a number of topics such as detention and consent procedures, training, use of force data, and searches of transgender individuals, to name a few. The OCC's recommendations are outlined below and include the President's Task Force recommendations for reference. The OCC and SFPD are currently discussing these recommendations.

[1] The President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing (2015), Final Report of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. Recommendations

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.1 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement culture should embrace a guardian mindset to build public trust and legitimacy. Toward that end, police and sheriffs' departments should adopt procedural justice as the guiding principle for internal and external policies and practices to guide their interactions with the citizens they serve.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.11 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should adopt policies requiring officers to identify themselves by their full name, rank, and command (as applicable) and provide the information in writing to individuals they have stopped. In addition, policies should require officers to state the reason for the stop and the reason for the search if one is conducted.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.11.1 ACTION ITEM: One example of how to do this is for law enforcement officers to carry business cards containing their name, rank, command, and contact information that would enable individuals to offer suggestions or commendations or to file complaints with the appropriate individual, office, or board. These cards would be easily distributed in all encounters.

OCC Recommendation No.1: SFPD Should Incorporate Procedural Justice Language Into Its Department General Orders Such As DGOs 5.03 (Detentions), 5.17 (Biased Policing), and 2.01 (General Rules of Conduct) By Requiring Officers To Explain Why An Individual Has Been Detained Or Searched and Provide In Writing The Officer's Name, Contact Information, and the Complaint/Commendation Process.

The President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing emphasizes that "procedural justice" is essential to strengthening police-community relations. Procedural justice involves four central principles: 1) treating people with dignity and respect; 2) giving individuals "voice" during encounters; 3) being neutral and transparent in decision making; and 4) conveying trustworthy motives.[2] Procedural justice principles are at the heart of the President's Task Force's recommendations that police adopt policies requiring officers to explain why an individual has been detained or searched. Procedural justice also shapes the Task Force's recommendation that officers provide in writing their name and contact information that enables individuals to offer suggestions, commendations or to file a complaint.

The OCC recommends SFPD incorporates procedural justice language into its Department Bulletins and its Department General Orders so procedural justice concepts are explicitly defined and included. For example, DGO 5.03 (Investigative Detentions) does not instruct officers to explain to the detained individual the reason for the police stop. DGO 5.17 (Policy Prohibiting Biased Policing) states officers "should" explain the reason for their detention though it does not require officers to do so. Although DGO 2.01(14) states, "when requested, officers shall promptly and politely provide their name, star number and assignment" this DGO requires the individual to ask for the officer's name, a request some individuals would find intimidating or not know they could make. None of these DGOs require during police encounters officers provide in writing their name and contact information that includes how to file a commendation or complaint.

The OCC suggests SFPD issue a Department Bulletin setting forth the legal standards for a detention, search, and consensual encounter and requires officers to state the reason for their stop and/or search as outlined in the Task Force's Recommendation 2.11. The OCC also suggests this Department Bulletin require officers to provide in writing their name and contact information that includes how to file a commendation or complaint as recommended by the President's Task Force. The Task Force suggested officers carry business cards with this information. The OCC recommends SFPD adopt the Task Force's suggestion or alternatively revise SFPD's "Protecting Our City, Knowing Our Rights"[3] to include the OCC's contact information and a space for officers to write their name, rank, and contact information.

The issuance of a Department Bulletin outlining the above-mentioned procedures would incorporate procedural justice concepts by requiring officers to take the time to explain the reason for their actions and enabling community members to have a better understanding of their rights during such encounters. The OCC also recommends Department General Orders 5.17, 5.03, and 2.01 along with SFPD manuals and training materials be amended to incorporate these requirements and officers be provided training on these changes.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.3 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should establish a culture of transparency and accountability in order to build public trust and legitimacy. This will help ensure decision-making is understood and in accord with stated policy.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.3.1 ACTION ITEM: To embrace a culture of transparency, law enforcement agencies should make all departmental policies available for public review and regularly post on SFPD's website information about stops, summonses, arrest, reported crime, and other law enforcement data aggregated by demographics.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.2 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should have comprehensive policies on the use of force that include training, investigations, prosecutions, data collection, and information sharing. These policies must be clear, concise, and openly available for public inspection.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.6 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should be encouraged to collect, maintain, and analyze demographic data on all detentions (stops, frisks, searches, summons and arrests). This data should be disaggregated by school and non-school contacts.

OCC Recommendation No.2: SFPD Should Design a Form To Collect Information on Use of Force Incidents Systematically and Electronically.

OCC Recommendation No.3: SFPD Should Post Monthly Its Use of Force Data On Its Website.

OCC Recommendation No.4: SFPD Should Analyze and Report Its Use of Force Data Annually to the Police Commission.

The OCC recommends SFPD provide comprehensive statistics and analysis concerning its use of force data—a practice it has done in prior years. (See for example, SFPD's 2002 Use of Force and Officer Assault Review; also see SFPD's study on Five Years of Officer-Involved Shootings (January 20, 2010).) The OCC recommends SFPD adopt a use of force form so such information is collected systematically and electronically in all cases. The OCC suggests on a monthly basis SFPD post on its website comprehensive use of force statistics and analysis. Statistics and analysis should include the type of force, the type and degree of officer and/or suspect injury, time of day, location of the incident/use of force, unit/station, officer demographics (age, gender, race, rank, number of years with SFPD, number of years as a police officer) and suspect demographics including race/ethnicity, age, gender, gender identity, primary language and other factors such as mental illness, cognitive impairment, developmental disability, drug and alcohol use/addiction and homelessness. The OCC recommends annually SFPD issue a comprehensive Use of Force report that is available to the public and presented to the Police Commission. The OCC suggests SFPD's 2002 "Use of Force and Officer Assault Review" report be used as an example of the type of data collection and analysis SFPD provide on its website and in its yearly report.

OCC Recommendation No.5: SFPD Should Re-Examine its Policies, Training and Evaluation of Force Incidents In Light of the California Supreme Court Decision Hayes v. San Diego (2013) 57 Cal.4th 622.

The OCC recommends SFPD re-examine its policies, training, and analysis of use of force incidents in light of the California Supreme Court decision Hayes v. San Diego (2013) 57 Cal.4th 622. In Hayes, the California Supreme Court ruled under California negligence law, the tactical conduct and decisions preceding an officer's use of deadly force are relevant considerations in determining whether the use of deadly force is reasonable. The OCC recommends in all cases involving deadly force SFPD evaluate the tactical conduct and decisions preceding an officer's use of deadly force and this analysis be included in any evaluation of the incident. The OCC also suggests SFPD revise its use of force policies and training to include consideration of the tactical conduct and decisions preceding an officer's use of deadly force.

OCC Recommendation No.6: SFPD Should Post Monthly its Data Concerning Car, Bicycle and Pedestrian Stops on its Website.

OCC Recommendation No.7: SFPD Should Analyze Its Data Concerning Car, Bicycle and Pedestrian Stops and Report Its Analysis of the Data Annually to the Police Commission.

SFPD currently collects data concerning car, bicycle and pedestrian stops. (See e.g. Department Bulletin 14-059, "Traffic Stop Data Collection Program"). To provide transparency, the OCC recommends SFPD post on a monthly basis its traffic stop data. The OCC also recommends SFPD annually analyze this data and provide its analysis of the data in a public report for presentation to the Police Commission.

OCC Recommendation No.8: Institute A Quarterly Meeting Between OCC and SFPD To Identify Training, Policy, and Procedure Recommendations Arising From Disciplinary Cases.

To address training, policy, and procedure issues discovered during the investigation and disciplinary process of police misconduct cases, the OCC recommends a quarterly meeting with the Chief, the Deputy Chief of Staff, Officer-in-Charge of Risk Management, the Police Academy Captain, the OCC Director and the OCC policy attorney to discuss the OCC's police misconduct cases of the previous quarter that resulted in a sustained, policy or training failure finding. The goal of this meeting is to evaluate whether any training, policy or procedure of SFPD needs to be revised, added or re-issued and if so, to make written recommendations that include the manner in which the recommendations can be implemented and a timeline for completion.

OCC Recommendation No.9: SFPD Should Post Its Department Bulletins On Its Website.

SFPD currently posts its Department General Orders online, a practice instituted in response to the OCC's 2007 recommendation. Because Department Bulletins often contain important policing procedures and policies, the OCC recommends Department Bulletins also be posted on SFPD's website.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.3.2 ACTION ITEM: When serious incidents occur, including those involving alleged police misconduct, agencies should communicate with citizens and the media swiftly, openly, and neutrally, respecting areas where the law requires confidentiality.

OCC Recommendation No.10: SFPD Should Institutionalize Its Practice of Holding a Community Meeting Following An Officer-Involved Shooting By Revising DGO 8.11.

After every officer-involved shooting, the Chief convenes a community meeting in the district where the shooting occurred. To institutionalize this important practice, the OCC recommends DGO 8.11 be amended to state within 10 days of an officer-involved shooting resulting in a fatality, the Chief of Police will notify the public and convene a meeting at a location within the affected community to provide whatever factual information SFPD can release and answer any questions and/or address concerns the public may have.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.5.3 ACTION ITEM: Law enforcement agencies should create opportunities in schools and communities for positive, non-enforcement interactions with police. Agencies should also publicize the beneficial outcomes and images of positive, trust-building partnerships and initiatives.

OCC Recommendation No.11: SFPD Should Partner With Youth Organizations To Make Presentations At Middle And High Schools On "Know Your Rights" For Youth.

The OCC recommends SFPD in partnership with youth organizations, such as the Youth Commission, make presentations at high schools and middle schools on "Know Your Rights" for youth. These informal presentations would foster a positive manner to interact with middle and high school students, provide students with the "Know Your Rights for Youth in San Francisco" brochure that youth advocacy groups, the OCC, the Youth Commission and SFPD coauthored and answer questions that youth may have about their rights, the law and policing.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.5.4 ACTION ITEM: Use of physical control equipment and techniques against vulnerable populations – including children, elderly persons, pregnant women, people with physical and mental disabilities, limited English proficiency, and others – can undermine public trust and should be used as a last resort. Law enforcement agencies should carefully consider and review their policies towards these populations and adopt policies if none are in place.

OCC Recommendation No.12: Provide More Resources To The CIT Program To Address Its Increased Training And Administrative Demands.

SFPD has been innovative in issuance of Department Bulletins on handling mental health crisis calls and the extensive work SFPD has done in partnership with the Mental Health Working Group to implement a Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) approach to mental health crisis calls for service. To enhance CIT's effectiveness, the OCC recommends SFPD dedicate more resources to address the increasing training and administrative demands of the CIT program. The OCC also recommends SFPD prioritize the collection of CIT data so information such as the types of service calls, dispatch time and outcomes can be analyzed to evaluate the program.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 1.9.2 ACTION ITEM: Law enforcement agencies should ensure reasonable and equitable language access for all persons who have encounters with police or who enter the criminal justice system.

OCC Recommendation No.13: SFPD Should Provide Interpreter Training to Bilingual Officers, Language Recertification For Bilingual Officers and Civilians, and Certification in Translation.

SFPD has been on the forefront of promoting language services by implementing a Department General Order on language services, having an extensive group of certified bilingual officers, and meeting with the OCC and language access stakeholders monthly to address language access concerns.

To further enhance language services, the OCC recommends SFPD provide interpreter training for its bilingual officers as required by DGO 5.20. For several years, the OCC and language access stakeholders have also recommended SFPD obtain assistance from SFPD or Human Resources to provide bilingual recertification of sworn officers and civilian employees every 2-3 years. Because language proficiency is a perishable skill, recertification is a best practice. Additionally, SFPD does not yet test officers on their ability to translate a written statement in a foreign language into English. Translation is a different skill than oral interpretation. SFPD need certified officer translators because Department Bulletin 15-171 requires the translation of foreign language statements and documents before the completion of an incident report.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE 1.6.1 ACTION ITEM: Research conducted to evaluate the effectiveness of crime fighting strategies should specifically look at the potential for collateral damage of any given strategy on community trust and legitimacy.

OCC Recommendation No.14: SFPD Should Include Input From The OCC and Civilian Complaints When Evaluating The Effectiveness of Crime Fighting Strategies.

The OCC recommends SFPD's tracking and evaluation of crime-fighting strategies also include the OCC's input and evaluation of complaints arising from these strategies. For example, the OCC has had several complaints concerning plainclothes units conducting traffic enforcement stops that did not qualify under Department General Order 5.08 as an ongoing investigation or an aggravated situation requiring immediate action to protect life or property. In addition to violating Department General Order 5.08, these strategies did not result in the discovery of contraband and undermined community trust because the traffic enforcement actions appeared arbitrary and petty.

2.3 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies are encouraged to implement non-punitive peer review of critical incidents separate from criminal and administrative investigations.

OCC Recommendation No.15: SFPD Should Include The OCC In Its Development of a Non-Punitive Lessons Learned Approach to Reviewing Serious Incidents.

The OCC applauds SFPD for developing a non-punitive lessons learned approach to reviewing serious incidents. The OCC suggests it be included during the review process so that the OCC has an opportunity to contribute to training recommendations arising from these serious incidents.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.10 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement officers should be required to seek consent before a search and explain that a person has the right to refuse consent when there is no warrant or probable cause. Furthermore, officers should ideally obtain written acknowledgement that they have sought consent to a search in these circumstances.

OCC Recommendation No.16: SFPD Should Modify Its Written Consent to Search Policy to Include Consent Searches of the Person and the Person's Effects.

Pursuant to Department General Order 15-136 (Consent Searches of Private Residences), officers are required to obtain written consent when searching a residence. To comply with the President's Task Force Recommendation 2.10 that officers should be required to seek consent before a search and explain that a person has the right to refuse consent when there is no warrant or probable cause, the OCC recommends SFPD's written consent to search policy include consent searches of the person and the person's effects in addition to its current policy on residential searches.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 2.11 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should establish search and seizure procedures related to LGBTQ and transgender populations and adopt as policy the recommendation from the President's HIV/AIDS Task Force to cease using the possession of condoms as the sole evidence of vice[4].

OCC Recommendation No.17: SFPD Should Establish A Written Procedure For Searching Transgender Individuals.

The OCC recommends SFPD establish a written procedure for searching transgender individuals. Department Bulletin 13-258 provides many important procedures for police interactions with transgender individuals though it does not address how to search a transgender individual. DB 13-158 explains how to address transgender individuals appropriately, prohibits detentions based on one's appearance or gender identity alone, prohibits searches to determine a detainee's gender, prohibits detaining a transgender arrestee in a district station's holding cell, and requires notification to dispatch of the starting and ending mileage when an officer transports a transgender individual. However, Department Bulletin 13-158 does not address the procedure officers should follow if they need to conduct a search of a transgender individual. The OCC recommends in collaboration with transgender officers, community stakeholders, the OCC, and other relevant subject matter experts, SFPD develop a written policy for conducting a search of transgender individuals.

PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE: 5.2 RECOMMENDATION: Law enforcement agencies should engage community members in the training process.

OCC Recommendation No.18: SFPD Should Incorporate Community Members Especially from African-American, Asian, Latino, Youth, Immigrant, Muslim, and LGBTQ Communities in the Development of Training Curriculum and as Presenters during Officer Training.

Community members from populations that have historically distrusted law enforcement have invaluable experiences and perspectives to share that will deepen officers' understanding of the various types of people and cultures they will encounter. As highlighted over a decade ago in Police Executive Research Forum's report Racially Biased Policing: A Principled Response, "[p]ersonal testimonials from minorities who have suffered from the effects of racial profiling or other forms of racial bias in policing can be effective in personalizing the problem and emphasizing the real harm caused to real people. Police personnel need to hear how racially biased actions can have profoundly damaging and long-lasting effects on citizens." (See [4] Concerning the President's Task Force's recommendation to cease using condom evidence in vice crimes, Department Bulletin 15-019 instructs officers not to confiscate, photograph or otherwise document possession of open/unopened condoms in prostitution-related crimes.

Racially Biased Policing: A Principled Response, Lorie Fridell, Robert Lunney, Drew Diamond and Bruce Kubu, Police Executive Research Forum, 2001, page 85.)

A well designed officer training seminar led by an experienced instructor that includes community members provides an ideal environment to discuss the stereotypes, misconceptions and biases we all have. The OCC suggests SFPD include community members—especially from African American, Asian, Latinos, youth, immigrant, Muslims and LGBTQ communities—in the development of training curriculum and also as participants and presenters during officer training.

OCC Recommendation No.19: SFPD Should Provide Recruits, Patrol Officers, Sergeants, and Field Training Officers Training Specific to Police Interactions with Youth.

The OCC recommends SFPD provide training designed to address police interactions with youth, including information about the juvenile brain, the impact of trauma on children and youth, and de-escalation tactics tailored to youth-police interactions. SFPD does not currently provide this type of training. When President Obama issued his Executive Order to create the 21st Century Policing Taskforce, he noted too many individuals, particularly young people of color, do not feel they are being treated fairly.[5] Police training designed to provide officers an understanding of the experiences and challenges of youth—particularly youth of color—is imperative. The OCC suggests a core component of this curriculum involve scenario-based training in which recruits, patrol officers, sergeants, and field training officers are required to learn and practice de-escalation tactics to address common interactions between youth and law enforcement.

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
5	Neglect of Duty	In a sexual assault case, the complainant alleged the officer had failed to properly investigate her case and communicate with her about the status of the investigation. The evidence indicates during the first two months the officer assigned to the complainant's case pursued several investigative leads. Initially the named officer made reasonable efforts to investigate the complainant's case and to maintain contact with the complainant. The officer submitted the complainant's sexual assault kit for testing approximately five weeks after the incident which predated the passage of San Francisco Administrative Code section 2A.89 entitled "Implementing the California Sexual Assault Victims' DNA Bill of Rights." Section 2A.89 required by March 1, 2011, the Police Chief implement procedures for collecting and testing DNA evidence in sexual assault cases, including the testing of DNA evidence obtained from a healthcare provider within not more than fourteen days of receipt. Subsequently, the officer collected a DNA sample but did not submit it for testing. Only after the complainant asked about the status of her case six months after the incident did another inspector submit the DNA evidence for testing. When the officer transferred to another unit, the complainant's case was not reassigned to another investigator. For almost two years, there was no follow up on the results of the complainant's sexual assault kit. The OCC recommends SFPD develop and implement procedures that comply with the 2014 amendments to Penal Code section 680, the "Sexual Assault Victims' DNA Bill of Rights." Under these procedures, sexual assault forensic evidence received by a law enforcement agency on or after January 1, 2016, should be submitted to the crime lab within 20 days after it is booked into evidence. Crime labs are also required to process sexual assault forensic evidence, create DNA profiles when able, and upload qualifying DNA profiles into CODIS as soon as practically possible, but no later than 120 days after initially receiving the evidence. Alternately, a crime lab can transmit the sexual assault forensic evidence to another crime lab as soon as practically possible but no later than 30 days after initially receiving the evidence for processing of the evidence for the presence of DNA. These procedures should also include the rights of sexual assault victims as set forth in Penal Code section 680. The OCC also recommends SFPD adopt a procedure to notify sexual assault victims at least every 60 days on case status including any change in the name and contact information of their investigator, whether a DNA profile of the assailant was obtained from the testing of the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence, whether the DNA profile of the assailant developed from the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence has been entered into SFPD of Justice Data Bank, and whether there is a match between the DNA profile developed from the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence and a DNA profile contained in SFPD of Justice Convicted Offender DNA Data Base provided that disclosure would not impede or compromise an ongoing investigation. The OCC also recommends SFPD present an annual written report to the Police Commission about its DNA evidence collection and testing in sexual assault cases, including its compliance with Penal Code section 680 forensic evidence processing and collection deadlines.

1.	When a sergeant and two plain clothes officers took the complainant into custody, the sergeant took custody of the complainant's property. The sergeant failed to properly process complainant's property in violation of DGO 6.15. While the complainant's property was listed on a San Francisco Property Inventory Arrest Record, the officer who listed the items did not complete and sign a property receipt in duplicate and give the original form to the complainant and keep one copy. Instead, the blank receipt with carbon copies still attached was placed inside a manila envelope with the complainant's property. The manila envelope was not sealed and no officer wrote his name or star number on the envelope flap. The complainant's cash was placed in a cash inventory envelope. The form on the front of the cash envelope describing currency in words and numbers was left blank. Upon release from jail, the complainant said one of his two diamond earrings, each worth $3,000, was missing.

2.	An officer violated DGO 5.20 when he did not obtain an interpreter to explain to a LEP Spanish-speaking mother why he was taking her 13-year old daughter into custody. The officer violated DGO 7.01when he did not notify the mother of the process underway for her daughter; the reason for taking her daughter into custody, where she was going to be held, that she had been provided with the Miranda admonishment and that she was being taken to CARC. The officer failed to call for a female officer. The officer did not conduct a complete investigation in violation of DGO 1.03 and 3.01. The officer neglected his duties as a field training officer (FTO) in violation of DGO 1.03 and the Field Training Manual. A sergeant violated DGO 1.04 by approving the incident report that facially showed an insufficient investigation and violations of DGO 7.01.
3.	An officer violated DGO 5.04 when he failed to prepare an incident report indicating the complainant had requested a private person's arrest. The officer violated DGO 5.03 when he failed to issue a certificate of release when he handcuffed and then released the complainant.

5.	In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, Misconduct and the Peace Officer Field Training Manual, Traffic Enforcement, an officer failed to include his name, star number and unit number on the citation he issued to the complainant.
6.	In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, Misconduct, a sergeant failed to properly supervise an officer, resulting in the officer's wrongful arrest of the complainant.
7.	In violation of DGO 5.03, Investigative Detentions, an officer failed to include his signature, the time the complainant was detained and the time the complainant was released.

*	Investigation and Arrest In violation of DGO 5.20, Language Access, officers failed to obtain an interpreter for the LEP Spanish-speaking complainant. In violation of DGO 6.09, Domestic Violence, the officers failed to properly investigate. Officers failed to comply with DGO 7.04, Children of Arrested Parents, as they did not let the complainant explain to her children what was happening and who would care for them. A sergeant failed to properly supervise. Post Arrest The sergeant who provided the DA with evidence resulting in complainant's exoneration did not complete the investigation by failing to prepare a report of the crime committed against her by her boyfriend. The sergeant also failed to provide services to the complainant as the victim of domestic violence. Once the complainant was exonerated, an officer violated DGO 3.16 by failing to provide the complainant the incident report or explaining how public safety would be harmed if it were released. An officer failed to comply with DGO 5.20's reporting requirements.	The officers wrongfully arrested the complainant as the dominant aggressor instead of the victim, causing her wrongful incarceration for domestic violence.
